The Passing Years

The Moving Finger writes, and having writ
Moves on; nor all thy Piety nor Wit Shall lure it back to cancel half a line, Nor all thy Tears blot out a Word of it.

Twenty-five Years Ago. From the Sentinel Files, December 22, 1916:

A Christmas concert for the benefit of the children was given by the United Baptist Sunday School on Wednesday evening, P. L. Atherton, superintendent was in charge and Rev. F. L. Orchard, B. D., was present and conducted the devotional part of the service. The program included recitations by Miss Helen Chapman, Graham Simms and Hilda Griffith. A dialogue, The Complaint of Santa Claus — was given by Wilbur Gray and Edward Clark.

Miss Marion Winslow who is studying nursing at the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal, is spending her vacation here with her parents.

fessional business.

Forty-five Years Ago. From the Sentinel Files, Dec. 19th, 1896:

Hon. A. R. McClellan was sworn in Lt. Governor of the province this week. The Sentinel welcomes Mr.
McClellan to his distinguished position. It is hoped that his Honor will live to see New Brunswick enter upon the coming century into which his term of office extends with increasing prosperity.

Among those who went from Woodstock to attend the last rites of Archdeacon Neales were J. P. Fisher, Wm. Connell, J. N. W. Winslow, J.
T. A. Diblee, M. P. P., H. W. Mc-

YOURS TO ENJOY

TO A CANADIAN SOLDIER'S MOTHER

A lady is reading a letter
From a boy who has gone far away;
Her eyes fill with tears as she reads it,
For he says he'll be home Christmas Day.

Do you wonder why her hands are atremble?
Why the tears of joy fill her eyes?
Why her heart seems to fill with emotion
To hear of this happy surprise?

It's her son who has written the letter;
He has gone to fight for his King.
He has taken up arms for his country.
For this Land of the Free which we sing.

He is only one of the thousands Who have taken their stand for the right,
There are thousands of others just like him
That make us proud of Canada's might.

Now the old lady's voice it is shaking As she tells all her friends he'll be home;
That he's coming to see her at Christmas;
That she won't have to spend it alone.

There's a proud lift to her head, as she tells them
Of the deeds of her own soldier boy,
That he hasn't forgotten his Mother;
That the tears in her eyes are of joy.

How she will plan for his coming,
How she will enjoy each day that he's there,
How she will forget for awhile all the trouble
That at times seem so heavy to bear.

Then when they come to the parting
She will send him off with a smile,
And show him that she too is a soldier.

A mother that's really worth while.
So now she is waiting and watching;
She hears a quick step in the hall—
A clear strong voice shouts a greeting
"MERRY CHRISTMAS to the most wonderful Mother of all!"
