Miss Pauline Watters, Upper Mills, N. B., is spending part of her holidays with her aunt, Mrs. R. W. Price and Mr. Price.

Mrs. A. D. Kirkpatrick was hostess on Monday evening at a delightful shower in honor of her niece Mrs.
David Brown, formerly Miss Jean McNerlin, who was married the Wednesday previous in Saint John, where she will reside; her husband being in the Canadian Army. The rooms were tastefully decorated with garden flowers. The bride received many useful gifts of linen, china, pyrex, etc., the presentation being made by Mrs. J. R. Kirkpatrick. The bride thanked her friends heartily. At the lunch hour Mrs. Kirkpatrick was assisted by her sisters Mrs. Blair Graham, Miss Audrey McNerlin, Woodstock and Mrs. J. W. Galbraith, Winnipeg, and other friends.

Mr. Arthur Shaw, Boston, Mass., is spending his holidays with his mother Mrs. E. T. Shaw and aunts, Mrs. MacNeil and Miss Turner.

Miss Julia True, Woodstock, is the guest of Miss Pauline Fleming.

The W. I. programs for the coming year were completed on a recent evening at the home of Mrs. J. R. Kirkpatrick. Social hour was enjoyed afterwards when Mrs. Kirkpatrick served refreshments.

Mrs. J. W. Campbell, Mrs. E. Carter and Miss Helen Carter entertained at five tables of book on Tuesday evening last. The prize winners were Mrs. A. D. Kirkpatrick and Mrs.
R. W. Price. Guests from outside points who are visiting friends of the village were Mrs. J. W. Galbraith, Winnipeg, Miss Ava O'Donnell, New York, Miss Clara Turner, Harrisonburg, Va., Miss Evelyn Campbell, Point Tupper, N. S., Miss Pauline Watters, Upper Mills, N. B., Mrs.

Ethel Shaw, Houlton, Miss Geraldine Wadsworth assisted the hostess in serving.

Air Raid Precautions was the subject discussed at the meeting of the new C. V. C. on Friday evening, when Mr. Trotter, Perth gave an instructive address.

The following teachers are attending the Regional Conference in Woodstock this week—Mrs. Kenneth Taylor (Limestone), Mrs. Laura Cowper (Debec), Miss Helen Carter, (Epmwood), Mrs. Mary Miller, (Mc-Kenzie Corner), Miss Lina Taylor (Green Road).
