WEDDINGS

McGUIRE — KILFOIL

St. Bonaventure Church, Johnville was the scene of a pretty wedding on Friday August 25th when Nora Elizabeth Kilfoil daughter of Mrs. Kilfoil and the late M. Kilfoil of Johnville was united in marriage with Harold Francis McGuire son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John McGuire, Newburg. Rev. Fr. Hennebery officiating. Rev. Fr. Carney and Rev. Fr. Johnston were in the sanctuary.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white satin with finger tip veil of tulle illusion which fell from a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and maiden hair fern. Miss Lucy Kilfoil, sister of the bride was bridesmaid. She wore a floor length gown of yellow chiffon with matching pill box hat and carried a bouquet of gladioli in harmonizing shades. Clarence Johnston was groomsmen.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother when the table was centred with a tiered wedding cake surmounted by a miniature bride and groom. Friends of the bride assisted in serving.

Later Mr. and Mrs. McGuire left on a short wedding trip. For travelling the bride wore a beige wool costume with matching hat and white accessories. They will reside in Newburg where the groom is engaged in farming.

CUMMINGS — BRADGON

A wedding of much interest took place on the afternoon of the 26th at the Parsonage at Upper Woodstock when Miss Dorothy Bragdon, daughter of Mrs. Bragdon and the late Rev. Frederick Bragdon was united in marriage to Ralph Cummings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Cummings, Meductic.

The bride presented a charming picture in a Queen's blue redingote costume with matching hat, and corsage of pink roses. Miss Edith Fox who acted as bridesmaid was dressed in navy sheer with matching accessories. George Walker acted as best man.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Cummings left on a wedding trip through the Maritime provinces returning to Meductic on Monday, August 31st, when a grand chivari

CHICKEN MISSING

Chief of Police L. Schriver received a call Tuesday evening from Queen Street South telling him that three young men were seen about the barn of Howard McKibbin. The chief went at once to the spot accompanied by Constable Bert Gardiner. As a result of a thorough search of the premises the officers found a bicycle lying near by and a pile of feathers. A chicken was found to be missing from the hen house. The officers searched down around Page's Mill but no trace of the thieves was found. The Police have an idea of the guilty party and it is believed they will soon be brought to justice.

Two local youths were arrested on Saturday night for creating a disturbance at the dance. They will appear in the Police Court soon.

Mrs. Velma McLellan is spending her vacation in Saint John.

Miss Glenna Patten who has been spending her holidays in Boston, arrived home to-day by plane.
