16th, with the President, Mrs. Robt.
Markey in the chair. The roll call was answered with a house-cleaning hint, and showed 7 members and 1 visitor present.

Reports from the various committees were given. The financial report showed a balance of $28.87 on hand, $10.05 was realized from the sale of tickets on a quilt. The war convenor reported 9 pairs seamen's socks, 4 pair men's service socks, and 6 pair refugee mitts ready to hand in to the Red Cross.

The afternoon was spent in quilting and it was decided to donate the quilt and $5.00 to a family, who had recently lost their home by fire.
Money was voted to purchase a pair of shoes for children in the bombed areas of Britain. The president volunteered to buy yarn for a pair of socks, and another member offered to knit them; the socks to go with the shoes. Money was also
