WEDDINGS

FREDRICKS—LONDON

A wedding of interest to many friends in Carleton County was solemnized at Andover, Conn., on October 14, when Miss Arlene W. London, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elroy B. London of Andover, Conn., became the bride of Charles Mortimer Fredricks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fredricks also of Andover, at a ceremony performed at the home of the bride's parents, at high noon. Dr. Brownell Gage of Bolton officiated at the single ring service. The home was tastefully decorated with Autumn leaves, and flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a Defence Blue travelling suit, lace blouse, black velvet and lace hat and a corsage of white rosebuds and mums. The maid of honor, Miss Caloe Fredricks, sister of the groom wore a grey tweed suit with a corsage of yellow roses. Ivan E. London, brother of the bride was best man for the groom.

Following the ceremony, a luncheon for the immediate members of the family, was held at the Hotel Sheridan, Manchester at 1.30, after which the happy couple left on a wedding trip to New York City.

The bride wore, for travelling a suit trimmed with mink fur and brown accessories.

Upon their return, they will reside in Andover.

Both are graduates of Windham High School, and at present are engaged with Insurance Companies.

Mrs. Fredricks, is a niece of Lebaron and George London, Upper Woodstock; and of Mrs. C. O. McKinney and Mrs. Albina Brooks, of this town.
