CONTRIBUTES SOLO

Those who attended the 10.30 Mass in St. Gertrude's Church Sunday last were pleasantly surprised to again hear the voice of Sgt. John Riordan, Dartmouth, N. S. Always a welcomed addition to the choir, Sgt. Riordan sang on this occasion, the hymn "On This Day", in an exceptionally pleasing manner at the offertory.

RICHMOND W. I.

Richmond W. I. had a most delightful treat in store for them on Friday, August 14th, when they enjoyed the hospitality of the President, Mrs. Clair Johnston.

The setting was particularly pleasing. The spacious old Johnston home, with its wide spreading trees and fertile fields, opened its doors to twenty-three members, ten visitors and several children.

To dispose of business before pleasure the Institute had a very brief meeting to look after unfinished business of July and any urgent matters that were pending. $3.05 was collected for the Prisoners of War Box.

Then we all sat under the trees in the shade and at six o'clock gathered to enjoy the bounteous supper served cafeteria style.

Mrs. Johnston was assisted by her husband's two aunts, the Misses Moores.

All good things come to an end and finally we bade a reluctant farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Johnston hoping that at some future date we might repeat the experience.
