venson, Miss Enid Cronkhite, Miss Lois True, Miss Roberta Fillmore, Miss Jean McNeerlin, and Miss Jacqueline McMullin were successful in passing the 100 word a minute test in shorthand and were awarded pins by the Sir Isaac Pitman Company.

Other prize winners were: Agriculture: General Proficiency, First Year, Trevor Kennett, Centreville; Second Year, Earle Rogers, Fielding.
Farm Mechanics: First Year, Donald McArthur, Lower Woodstock; Second Year, Ray Wilson, Houlton Road.

Commercial: General Proficiency, Roberta Fillmore, Woodstock; Doris Rideout, Hartland.

Bookkeeping: Reta Jones, Lakeville.

Home Economics: 1st, Lillian Brown, Hartland, N. B.; 2nd, Jean McMullin, Woodstock, N. B.

The students of the Home Economics Department wore smart jackets which they wore and tailored as part of their school work under the direction of their teachers Miss Florence Morton and Miss Miriam Dunphy.

The closing as usual was largely attended and the laws presented a striking appearance with over 1500 citizens from all parts of the county occupying all sitting and standing space. An effective background was formed by the stage decorated for the pageant with flowers and evergreen. The back of the school was draped with flags and posters demonstrating the war effort were prominently displayed.
