In Memoriam

In loving memory of mother, Mrs. Mozart A. Benn, who fell asleep Feb. 28th, 1938:

There's an open gate at the end of the road
Through which each must go alone,
And there in the Light we cannot see
Our Father claims his own.
Beyond that gate our mother
Found happiness and rest,
But there is comfort in the thought
That a Loving God knows best.

Sadly missed by
Daughter Maud and Family.

RED CROSS SERVERS

March 1st:—Mrs. J. Everett Montgomery, Miss Effie Strong.
March 8th:—Miss Effie Strong, Mrs. W. A. McDougall.
March 15th:—Mrs. W. A. McDougall, March 15th:—Mrs. W. A. McDougall, Mrs. Percy Dotsen.
March 22nd:—Mrs. Percy Dotsen, Mrs. Wilbert Jones.
March 29th:—Mrs. Wilbert Jones, Mrs. T. H. Lewis.

CORRECTIONS.

The statement made in last week's issue of the Sentinel to the effect that Lt. N. S. Betty Bellis was superintendent of Number 1 General Hospital, Overseas was an error. Lt. Bellis is Operating Room Supervisor in Number 1 General Hospital.

Another mistake occurred last week in the story of the Knights of Pythias celebration. Instead of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Baker it should have read, Mr. and Mrs. Kid Baker.

Still another mistake. In the account of Miss Marion Lindsay's piano recital the name Marion Barker, should have been Marion Baker.

WHEN ADULTS FAILED

The following item from Toronto Star Weekly is of interest to local readers:

When as the local newspaper put it "adults failed to move" Boy Scouts of Woodstock, N. B. inaugurated a weekly salvage drive and on the first Saturday gathered sufficient salvage to net them $600. The first $100 went to the Red Cross and another $200 to the British Scouts.

Last week was observed as Scout Week throughout Canada. To mark the occasion local scouts attended Divine Service at St. Luke's Anglican Church. The Girl Guides paraded to the United Baptist Church.

F. O. Troy local director of scout activities has asked the Sentinel to remind people to keep on gathering their salvage. It will be collected in the very near future.
