1943 RED CROSS DRIVE IN CARLETON COUNTY GETS UNDER WAY MONDAY

Quota For Local Distribution Of Ration Books Passes Uneventfully

ORGANIZED GROUPS OF
VOLUNTEER WORKERS
READY

Plans are well in hand for the launching of the 1943 Red Cross Drive in Carleton County which begins next Monday March first. In every parish of the county well organized groups of volunteer workers will embark on an energetic canvass and it is the hope of the campaign committee of which F. O. Creighton is the head that the response by the citizens to the humanitarian cause will be even more generous than in past years.

The objective for Carleton County has been set at $8500; New Brunswick must raise $200,000; and a national goal of $10,000,000 has been set. The funds are urgently needed for maintenance of the international organization's many aided war activities—such as the great continuous flow of parcels of food to prisoners of war, "survivor" outfits for seamen whose ships have been torpedoed, hospitals, mobile canteens and blood donor clinics.

Woodstock W. I. Objects To Children Being Inmates Of Municipal Home

COMMITTEE IS APPOINTED TO INTERVIEW PROVINCIAL CHILD-REN'S AID WITH A VIEW TO HAVING CONDITIONS
REMEDIED

Disapproval of children as inmates of the Municipal Home was voiced at the monthly meeting of the Woodstock Women's Institute in the Vocational school Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Luella McLeod reported that she had interviewed the Municipal Home Committee on the subject.

The affair had been discussed at the County Council sessions in January but so far as she could learn, no action had been taken. She had communicated with the provincial Children's Aid officer who promised to visit Woodstock soon. Mrs. McLeod, Mrs. Frank Olmstead, Mrs. Fred K. Brown, Mrs. Ralph Brooks and the President Mrs. Percy Betts were named a committee to see the officer with a view to having the condition remedied.

Mrs. John McBride gave an interesting paper on citizenship, tracing its origin to Greece and Rome. She pointed out that a good citizen should have a knowledge of history, law and current events and regretted that no religious training was taught in the schools. Mrs. Clyde Watson and Mrs. William Andow contributed a duet.

Roll call was answered with the Lieutenant Governors since Confederation. Mrs. R. K. Watson, treasurer reported that $27.15 had been forwarded to the Prisoners of War fund in January.

Mrs. Albion Foster reported that the Woodstock W. I. had come third in the county for sale of cook books. A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. R. L. Hay, Canterbury, who had 50 cook books. Mrs. Fred K. Brown was appointed to supervise further sales.

Ship of H. M. R. C. N. Named For Woodstock

Mayor E. A. Neal has been notified by the Department of Naval Defence that they wish to name one of the ships of His Majesty's Royal Canadian Navy for Woodstock. As there is already a corvette named for Woodstock, Ontario, that name will not do. Carleton has been suggested but as there are many Carletons in different places that does not seem to apply either. The name Meduxna-keag seems the most suitable of any so far submitted.

Mr. Bracken said he was not making a political speech but wished to meet the people, listen to their problems and find a way of solving them. He felt there was no doubt that New Brunswick as well as Nova Scotia had the longest unfavorable economic history. Being a farmer himself he knows about farmers, their problems and difficulties. His main policy was to prove he was a real Canadian, he said.
