LIFE

God hath not promised skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways all our lives through;
God hath not promised sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow, peace without pain.
But God hath promised strength for the day,
Rest for the labor, light for the way,
Grace for the trials, help from above,
Unfailing sympathy, undying love

Letter of the Month

Dear Cousin:

Your uncle has a job at last—the first time he has worked in over forty-eight years.

We are rich now $17.50 every Thursday, so we sent up to the Mail Order House for one of them new fangled bathtubs like you rich people have up North. It came and we had her all put right. You should see it.

Over on one side of the room is a big long white thing like the pigs drink out of, only you kin get in it and take a bath all over at once. Over on the other side of the room is a little white gadget hanging on the wall called a zink. This is for washing like hands and face. They also sent us a roll of writing paper but it's kinda cheap I think—it rips easy.

Put over in the corner—now they got a thing where you can put one foot in and scrub it till it gets clean, then you pull the chain and get fresh water for the other foot.

Yours truly,

Cousin Charlie.

P. S.—Two lids came with the damn thing and we ain't had no use for them in the bathroom, so Ma is using one for a breadboard and we framed Grandpa's picture in the other.

FARM HOMES

ary 17, and so on.

All coupons collected by farmers must be turned into the local ration board offices at the end of each month. What is more, every farmer who makes his own butter, and consumes it at home must turn in enough coupons each month to cover the butter eaten by every member of the household, at the same rate of one coupon for each half pound.

Any further information about the new rationing plan can be had by writing to the local Wartime Prices and Trade Board office in the community.

Fruit Salad

Cottage cheese is a perfect accompaniment to fruit salad made from either fresh or canned fruits. Place a mound of cottage cheese in a lettuce cup on individual salad plates. Surround with sliced, canned peaches, pears, plums and chopped apple. Garnish with canned or maraschino cherries or jelly and serve with salad dressing. If thick, the salad dressing may be thinned with fruit juice.

Boiled Salad Dressing

1 1/2 cups milk, scalded
1 cup milk, cold
1-4 cup sugar
2 tablespoons mustard
1-2 teaspoons salt
1-8 teaspoon pepper
few grains cayenne
1-2 cup flour
1 egg
1-4 cup malt vinegar
1-4 cup worcestershire sauce
1 tablespoon butter

Mix dry ingredients and combine with cold milk, stirring till smooth. Add slowly to the scalded milk in the top of a double boiler and stir constantly till thickened. Cook 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Beat eggs, add vinegar and worcestershire sauce. Add egg mixture slowly to milk mixture stirring constantly. Cook 3 minutes, and stir in the butter. Pour into a glass jar, cover and store. This makes a pint and a half of thick dressing which will keep three to four weeks. It may be used, undiluted for making sandwiches, or may be thinned as required with milk or fruit juices.

The Passing Years

As far as I know, but a tree and Truth."
Oliver Wendell Holmes.

Twenty-five Years Ago. From the Carleton Sentinel Fy. es, January 18, 1918.

It was a most harmonious meeting and might have developed into a real love feast had it not been for ex-Coun. Tom Noddin's criticism of several of the councillors. AHHH...The Old Home Town Paper Looks Good!

Many of us have a son, a brother, a husband or a friend overseas or at one of the army, navy or air force camps throughout the country. Chances are that he's lonesome for some news about the "goins on" back home and there isn't a better way to let him in on them than by sending him a weekly copy of the Carleton Sentinel.

Letters from the men in the services show that they appreciate the Sentinel more now than ever. They read it from cover to cover.

Let us look after the mailing and wrapping. We wrap them in heavy brown paper and tie them securely. Then you can keep your own copy at home for your own use, when you want it.
