NO CHRISTMAS TREE WILL BE PLACED IN TOWN SQUARE THIS YEAR

Action Taken To Conserve Power

INSURANCE ON TOWN PROPERTY IS DISCUSSED

No Christmas tree will be placed in the town square this year, it was decided at a short meeting of the town council held in the town hall last Wednesday evening. An order of the A. R. P. and a request of the Maine and New Brunswick Electric Power Commission to conserve power, Mayor E. R. Jones gave as reasons that no tree will be erected this year.

The question of insurance on town property was discussed. Some councilors thought the town was paying too high a rate at present. A committee composed of Couns. Douglas McBride and R. W. Maxwell and the Town Manager were appointed to look into the matter.

Next season's wood was also considered. It was decided to insert an advertisement in the local papers asking for tenders for 70 cords of good quality, green hardwood to be delivered before June 15, tenders to close Saturday December 28, at 12 o'clock noon.

Discussion took place regarding the advisability of turning the street lights off at night during the winter months for the purpose of saving power. It was felt by some councilors that the move might make the enforcement of the law more difficult for the police. No action was taken.

LOCAL BOY IS HONORED FOR GALLANTRY

IS PRESENTED THE SCOUT SILVER MEDAL IN UNITED CHURCH

E. Walter MacDonald, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James MacDonald, Cedar St., Woodstock, N. B., was honored Sunday at a special service in the Woodstock United Church when he was presented with the Scout Silver Cross for gallantry. The decoration was given to Scout MacDonald for the gallantry he displayed in the rescue last June 30 of Byron R. Troy, also of Woodstock. Ten-year-old Byron was wading at the edge of the pool at Bull's Creek when he was swept off his feet by the swift current and carried into the main part of the stream. Walter MacDonald being near the scene, plunged into the water and swam to the aid of the exhausted boy, who had gone down twice. Walter swam 30 feet to shore with the semi-conscious lad through waters that were swollen with heavy rains. Byron was revived by artificial respiration applied by school girls who witnessed the gallant deed.

At the time of the rescue Walter was still a probationer tenderfoot having joined the 1st Woodstock Troop two weeks previously. The Silver Cross was presented to young MacDonald before a congregation that filled the Woodstock United Church. Capt. the Rev. S. B. Profit took as the theme of his sermon the story of the Good Samaritan.

EMPLOYER FINED $140

FAILURE TO PUT INSURANCE STAMPS ON BOOKS IS CAUSE

Mr. Edmund Savage, proprietor of the Edmundston Hotel, appeared recently before Magistrate E. J. Hubert and pleaded guilty to a charge of non-compliance with the Unemployment Insurance Act. He was fined $140.

The informations in this case were laid by Mr. W. T. MacDonald, Regional Inspector of Insurance Revenue, Moncton, N. B., in which Mr. Savage was charged with failure to place the required Unemployment Insurance stamps in the books of his employees within 72 hours after their pay day in accordance with the requirements of the Act. Evidence at the trial was submitted by Inspector F. Belliveau of the Unemployment Insurance Commission, while Mr. J. E. Pichette acted as Special Crown Prosecutor. In imposing this fine, the Magistrate pointed out to the accused the seriousness of the offence, and under the provisions of the Act, penalties provided for non-compliance could well ruin any employer if enough separate charges were laid.
