Reports were given by Mrs. Norman Smith for the Sick Committee and Mrs. Arthur Everett for the Work Committee. Three work meetings were held during November at which two quilts were completed and several garments made for a six year old boy.

Letters were read conveying the thanks of shut-in members who had been remembered by the Institute. Mrs. Ralph Smith was appointed to the Sick Committee to replace Miss Anna Blackie who is ill. General regret was expressed at the continued illness of Miss Blackie and Mrs. Charles Everett.

Correspondence re the Victory Cook Books and the duties of convener was read and discussed. By motion it was decided that we subscribe for the Institute paper "Home and Country."

Mrs. Ronald Briggs was appointed Publicity Convener. It was decided on motion to send Christmas cards and handkerchiefs to the boys of the district in the Armed Services in Canada and also to send Christmas cards to the shut-ins of the community.

The program for the day was in charge of Mrs. Wilfred Webb. The carols "Holy Night" and "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear" were sung. The members were delighted with humorous readings by Mrs. Webb and Mrs. Norman Smith. A solo was sung by Mrs. Ronald Briggs, who, also had prepared a contest which was won by Mrs. Webb.

The program was followed by an auction of Christmas gifts. Mrs. Norman Smith, in a very capable manner, acted as auctioneer. There was lively bidding on the various articles offered for sale and a pleasing sum was added to the Institute funds.

Returns were handed in from the sale of tickets on a quilt. These returns amounted to fifteen dollars. The evening ticket, number 216 was drawn by Master Gary Webb and held by Miss Judy Sharkey.

The mystery box provided by Mrs. Arthur Everett was won by Mrs. Norman Smith.

A delicious supper was served by the hostess, Mrs. Karnes, assisted by her daughter.
