The Ladies Interested in the Distribution of $1,500.00!

A SPIRIT OF FRIENDLY RIVALRY STIRRED UP!

The Ladies Alive to the Great Importance of the Undertaking!

The ladies of Canada are delighted; husbands note with pleasure the smiling faces of wives and daughters; indeed the whole country is stirred up with pleasurable excitement.

It simply amounts to this,—that the manufacturers of the celebrated and universally used Diamond Dyes have inaugurated a grand competition scheme known as the "Diamond Dye Competition," which is freely thrown open to every mother, wife and daughter in our broad Dominion.

No less a sum than $1,500.00 will be distributed to the mothers, wives and daughters of Canada, in first, second and third prizes. This sum is really being returned to the consumers of Diamond Dyes. Every lady in Canada can afford to become a competitor, and has sufficient intelligence and ability to make up some of the articles mentioned in the long and varied list. Ample time is afforded to all for experimenting and becoming perfect as competitors for the large cash prizes offered.

It is an unprecedented act of liberality on the part of the wealthy manufacturers of Diamond Dyes, and never before attempted by any similar institution in the world; and the public have the most ample proof that every promise will be faithfully carried out.

During the season the manufacturers of Diamond Dyes have contributed liberally to country fairs, in order to encourage Household Economy and Art. Small and almost unknown concerns have tried to stimulate this character of work, by the offer of insignificant sums of from one to three dollars, that would not be any instance defray cost of dyeing and making up of goods called for. We fear these small imitators have not yet discovered the fact that the ladies value too highly their time and materials, to be lured by such trifling and miserly prizes.

The fairs of our country having closed for the season, the manufacturers of Diamond Dyes mean to keep the ladies busy during the long autumn and winter evenings, by offering large and substantial prizes in keeping with the character of work asked for.

The production of every competitor will form an exhibit in the large and well-equipped Diamond Dye establishment in Montreal, and three of the largest and best known "Dry Goods" firms in Canada have promised experts to award the prizes. These well-known houses are:
Henry Morgan & Co., Henry & N. E.
Hamilton, and John Murphy & Co.

Graham & Co., proprietors of the Montreal "Daily Star" and "Family Herald and Weekly Star," have signified their willingness to act as judges of the various Essays sent forward for competition.

Young and old, rich and poor, have an equal chance in this magnificent and novel competition scheme; therefore all should willingly enter. If you have not yet received a book giving full particulars of the scheme, write at once to Wells & Richardson Co., Montreal, who will send it post free.

We are asked to remind our readers of the fact that all intending competitors should at once signify their intentions of becoming competitors, by sending in the form, properly filled up, which is found on page 15 of the book referred to. We wish to impress on our people the fact that this contest is absolutely free to all.
There is no cost for books, no entrance fee, and no money to be sent forward; it is as free to all as the air we breathe. We trust our people will do what they can in this competition, and thus sustain the reputation of our women and girls as adepts in housework and art.

Molus River.
Times are quite dull around here now, about two months ago there were always some pleasant dances to take one's attention. Some of the young fellows say they would not give one of the Boston widows for a dozen of the Molus River girls.

Nearly all the young men have gone away from here. Alfred Ward, John Tweedie, Edward Ward and quite a number more have left for the lumber woods.
William Baldwin, who went to cook for Kesick, has returned home again, having left the crew in disgust.

Mr. Robert Baldwin is getting his house finished this fall. It is going to be one of the handsomest houses on the Richibucto road from Kingston to Weldford.

Mr. Joseph Kenny has returned from the wild West. His pockets are well lined with gold, and it is no wonder his friends gave him a hearty welcome, for he is like one returning from the dead, having lost the Molus River address and could not get a ticket for Molus River.

Mr. James Tweedie has had great success in hunting this fall. He has shot a great number of squirrels. We understand he is going to ship the skins to Chicago.

Mr. Ezra Ward has one of the finest colts in the county. He has also fallen heir to quite a fortune, and may be seen with a large roll of bills most any time.

Mr. Thomas Graham has about 20 tons of hay and is selling it at rock bottom prices.

Mr. Gappy Leger, who has been working at Oak Point for five years, left us about two weeks ago. As he was an off-handed, intelligent young man every one felt sorry at his departure. His many friends wish him every success through life.

Mr. Frederick Ward is ploughing at Mr. Michael Graham's this fall. Frederick is the boy to make things look lively.
He is a first-class farmer and needs no recommendation.

We regret that our teacher, Miss Lennox, has been very ill for three weeks and is not able to take charge of the school. The place seems very dull since she went home.

No top buggy nor road cart to be seen on a wet evening on the Birch Creek road.

Miss Janief Thompson has been very ill the past three months. As she was a very kind and pleasant girl, her many friends and acquaintances have much sympathy for her. We have only to say that we hope she may get better in the near future and be able to enjoy a sleigh drive when the snow comes.

Miss Mary Thompson has returned from Buctouche. It is a pleasure to state that her merry laugh may be heard in the Ward Settlement once more.

Why a Priest Farms.

An announcement was made in the press the other day respecting the large crop of oats, etc., grown on the Rev.
Father Michaud's farm at Buctouche.
Some people might be curious to enquire why a priest who has charge of a parish should engage in farming, but to those who know the reasons which actuate the Rev. Father Michaud in this case know that they are thoroughly commendable.
The Rev. Father is firmly convinced that there was and is great room for improvement in farming among his flock, who are largely agriculturists. Imbued with this idea he took a tract of useless land and turned it into a model farm which has been the admiration of the district.
The influence of that farm upon the farmers of the district has been remarkable. The revenue of the farm goes to board the workmen free who are employed in connection with the construction of the fine church and also the work on the convent.—Transcript.

Noble Deed of a Tramp.

Rarely indeed is anything seen in the papers to the credit of the genus tramp, but it is likely that many of them are as brave as Thomas Burns, whose prompt and daring deed recently saved the life of a little Italian girl, and shamed hundreds who inactively witnessed the incident.
She had fallen into the fountain of the City Hall park, New York city. Crowds of well dressed people saw her peril, but not one of them made an effort to save her.
They stared in speechless dismay, some of them probably thinking that water might injure their garments, when Thomas Burns whose attire denoted him to be of the tramp order, hurriedly made his way to the front, plunged in and saved the imperiled child, whose unconscious body already lay at the bottom of the fountain.

A Good Man to Watch.

The man who laughs without opening his mouth is like the man who laughs at you with his eyes half closed, a good man to watch. He may be a perfectly reputable citizen, an honest man, a good neighbor and have many excellent qualities, but he is of a profoundly secretive disposition will not take you into his confidence unless he has use for you and will cast you aside as soon as you have served his purpose.

He may be capable of friendship, but he will never allow his friendship to interfere with his plans or business. He is cool, calculating, and if he has generous impulses will keep them under control.
He is a bad man to offend for he never forgets an injury, and will wait twenty years for a chance to get even.

A Sea Voyage.

A sea voyage is an expensive and extensive prescription, especially when equally good results as regards health, are to be had by simply taking Burdock Blood Bitters according to directions. It is a specific for dyspepsia, cleanses the blood, regulates the liver, bowels and kidneys and removes all impure matter from the system.

The Hindoo nose ring is said to be doomed. At a meeting of the members of the Cutchee Veesa Oswal caste, held at Mand-vie Bunder, it was resolved that instead of a ring women should wear a flower in the nose. Inasmuch as the nose ring had led to "much unfavorable comment," henceforth wearing nose rings would lead to a fine of ten rupees and four annas, in addition to forfeiture of the ornaments.

Minard's Liniment is the Best.

Among the resolutions adopted at the General Baptist convention in Toronto on Thursday was one pointing out that the corruption of political life in Canada is a stain on the national honor and an injury to the highest welfare of our people, and declaring "that this convention would impress on the churches and pastors the need of emphasizing honesty in all the relations of life, and also declares its conviction that the purification of our public life is impossible if important government positions are to continue to be filled by men who are lax in morals and corrupt in principle."
