Cold Weather Trials

DEAR SIRS,—This fall and winter I suffered from neuralgia in my face and had the best medical advice without avail, I at last thought of trying B.B.B. and after using one bottle have not felt any symptoms of neuralgia since. I regard it as a fine family medicine.

Skated to Death.

James Walsh, about sixteen years old, on the Northwest Miramichi, went out skating Monday morning, and was drowned. He was skating along the shore by the edge of the channel, and when opposite Edward Whitneys shore slipped into open water. The ice was too weak, not having formed till Sabbath night. The young man's body was not found until noon of Tuesday. The young man's brother of about 11 years was with him and came very nearly skating into the open water too, but his eye just caught sight of the water in time to sheer off and escape a watery grave. The young boy says that his brother came up three times but went right down again, making no attempt to grasp at anything.—World.

Valuable Work of Art.

We are in receipt of an advance copy of the Christmas Dominion Illustrated and cannot but feel proud that such a magnificent issue is (as we are informed) entirely the product of Canadian skill and enterprise. It is far and away ahead of any Christmas issue we have seen: the English holiday issues just out do not begin to compare with it for beauty and variety of colored supplements and general illustration: The supplements are four in number; the chief of these are two large reproductions of oil-paintings, one "A Type of Canadian Beauty" by Mr. J. W. L. Foster of Toronto, the other "The Young Recruits" by Mr. C. Patterson of Montreal; both are beautiful in design and color, and are well worth framing and places of honor in any room. Another supplement, also in colour, is an eight page series of comic sketches of the trials and mishaps of a corpulent English sportsman while hunting in the woods, away back in the French Canadian country. A fourth is a photograph showing all the Universities of the Dominion, printed on a large sheet of heavy plate paper, suitable for framing.
The number itself is a beauty. It contains 40 pages of stories, poems, and articles from the pens of some of our most brilliant writers. Almost every page contains an exquisite illustration, printed in color; no less than five different tints are used in the press-work of the volume. Altogether the issue is a superb one and Canadians should feel proud of such a national contribution to the Christmas literature of the year.

You want K. D. C.—you want to be cured of dyspepsia. Then take K. D. C. and be cured of dyspepsia.
Minard's Liniment is used by Physicians.

A native bride in Rhodost... loaded down with all the jewelry she can get. She has a girdle at the waist, numerous rings, anklets, bracelets and bells, and decorations for the hair. Although she has never seen her intended husband, she goes and sits beside him the day of the ceremony. The priest takes a corner of the bride's veil and ties it to the groom's shawl, and they are married.

PARSONS' PILLS

PALATABLE AS MILK. ASK YOUR DRUGGIST.

The Yatisi Corset, owing to the peculiar diagonal elasticity of the cloth will fit the wearer perfectly the first time worn, no matter what her style of form is—either long or short waisted.

The Yatisi Corset does not stretch at the waist, requires no breaking in, fits comfortably the first time worn. As it gives to every motion of the wearer it will out-last any of the old style rigid Corsets.

The Yatisi Corset is made of the best materials, and being elastic, (without rubber or springs) is invaluable for invalids, as it cannot compress the vital parts of the body. They are recommended by the most celebrated physicians in all the leading cities.

The Yatisi Corset is the only one that the purchaser can wear ten days and then return and have the money refunded if not found to be the most perfect fitting, healthful and comfortable Corset ever worn.

Sent to any address on receipt of price, $1.25.

THE LATE FR. BELLIVEAU

I have a beautiful cabinet photo of the late Father Belliveau, made from life, and was highly approved of by himself. Do not buy some of the poor copies that are being sold, but see that every picture bears my name printed in gold on the bottom. If you want a picture you also want a good portrait and faithful likeness, which you can get mailed to you, postage prepaid, by sending 25 cents in stamps to my address.

SUGGESTS.

What are you using for your cold? Try Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, its wonderful.

"You've frozen your ears," is a common remark. Bathe in Johnson's Anodyne Liniment.

—Mr. James Brown, of Weldford is building a new oil warehouse for the I. C. R. in Moncton.

—Dr. H. C. LeBlanc, formerly associated with Dr. Leger, Buctouche, has opened an office at St. Mary, N. S.

—Mr. Thomas Dixon, of Main River, has a fine Polled Angus bull calf, which he purchased from Rev. Wm. Hamilton last spring.

—Bark Arlington, Hansen, from Chatham, N. B., Nov. 19, for Dieppe, was passed Dec. 4th, 448 miles west of Fastnet, abandoned waterlogged.

—No ice in the river yet, although teams were crossing on the ice this time last year. It is getting so late in the season that navigation will probably close very soon.

—One or two copies of No. 8, volume two, of THE REVIEW wanted to complete files. Anyone having the same would confer a favor by sending them to this office.

—A. E. Kilburn, of Macnaquack, this season threshed 106 bushels of oats from 1½ bushels sowing on 1½ acres. They grew to the average height of 5 feet 10 inches.

—The Christmas issue of the Dominion Illustrated may well be viewed with pride by Canadians. It is a complete work of art and really exceeds expectations. Don't fail to send for it.

—Mr. David Dykeman, of Mill Creek, shipped on the 2nd inst. from Harcourt Station to his daughter, Mrs. Lydia Dixon, of Portland, Me., a fine three-year-old Black Warrior colt.

—J. & T. Jardine's bark Sagona, Capt. McKay, arrived at Miramichi 7th Nov., loaded and departed on the 14th Nov. and arrived in Liverpool on 3rd December, which is pretty quick work.

—The drawing for a horse which was to have taken place at Kent Junction on August 13th, was held on November 6th, Mrs. George McPherson, of Trout Brook, possessing the lucky number.

—Who can beat it? We learn that Mr. J. N. Wathen, of Weldford, killed, on Saturday last, a spring pig, which he received on May 23rd, weighing, when dressed, 318 lbs. The pig was purchased at the Jardine stock farm, Kingston, Kent Co.

—Mr. Wm. J. Smith will sell at auction to-day at Patrick Mackey's, near Kouchibouguac; and on Monday, December 14th, he will conduct a clearance sale, without reserve, at the residence of Mr. John Harrington, Kouchibouguac. For further particulars see advertisement in another column.

—The wife of Mr. A. M. Bonnell, J. P., who lives on Main street, died on Saturday. Yesterday Mr. Bonnell reported to the police marshal that his wife's wedding ring had been stolen from her finger after she had died. The marshal could, however, find no clue to the guilty party.—Times.

—A Lewiston, Me., young man left home Thursday morning telling his mother he was going to Rockland to work. During the forenoon he was married to a woman fifteen years his senior; his own age was twenty-one, and the couple left town together. Their whereabouts are not known but he will probably wish he had gone to Rockland to work before many weeks.
