A Beautiful Souvenir.

Splendid illustrations, supplements, literary features and artistic arrangement; beautiful engravings, charming stories, sketches and poems wit and humor, in delightful combination in the Christmas number of the Dominion Illustrated for 1891. No expense will be spared to make it the most magnificent souvenir ever issued in Canada. Published by the Sabiston Litho. & Pub. Co., Montreal.

An Old Style Boat.

Captain Collins, who is familiar with all the builds of foreign fishing boats, tells about the Newfoundland pinkie boat, some few of which are still found off the New England coast. For size and build, the pinkie is a clever boat, with her strong sternpost and sharp bow. It is highly probable that the pinkie is a survival of the oldest form of Norse boat brought to England a thousand years ago, and as for that, the lines of the dory came over to England with the pinkie from the mother country.—New York Times.

Woodpecker versus Sparrows.

The English sparrow has a mortal enemy in the common red headed woodpecker, who, though no giant among birds, is as big as half a dozen English sparrows, and not afraid of half a hundred. The woodpecker's beak is so hard, and his head and neck are so powerful that in a single peck he can kill a sparrow, and the English birds have become aware of his powers and are very much afraid of him. The appearance of a red headed woodpecker will set a whole lot of sparrows to flight, and the only time they will face him is when he makes an onset on their nests.

The eggs of the sparrows are not larger than peas, and their young about the size of a grubworm, and a nestful of young sparrows is a dainty picnic for a woodpecker, which he is careful not to overlook. The sparrows will fight, but they cannot drive him away.—Drake's Magazine.

—The famous Saxby gale, with which some of the storms of nowadays are frequently compared, occurred on October 5th, 1869. It was felt all over the Provinces, and was accompanied by exceedingly high tides.

—The Moniteur Acadian notes the presentation to Rev. F. M. Richard, of Rogersville, of a handsome silver-headed cane by Messrs. Clarke, Kerr & Thorne, of St. John. On the head is inscribed a cross, under which is engraved the reverend gentleman's name and the year.

—Pear's Soap, of London, expend between half a million and $600,000 annually in advertising, about half of which comes to America. They are said to be the largest advertisers in the world.

—The St. Lawrence Lumber Co.'s mill at Bathurst was destroyed by fire on Wednesday night last week. A large quantity of lumber was also destroyed. It is said the loss will be in the vicinity of $75,000. The mill was insured for $18,000 or $20,000, and was built in 1876, by K. F. Burns, M. P., who is the head of the company.

—Most of the Aroostook starch factories have started up, but the amount of stock hauled to them has not been large. This is not owing to any lack in the potato crop, but to the low prices. Twenty cents a bushel is not a large amount for the hoeing, killing potato bugs, digging, etc., required to raise a bushel of potatoes.

—The Methodists of Weldford Station are to have the corner stone of their new church laid on Oct. 22nd. Orations will be delivered by leading clergymen; meals will also be served on the grounds, and altogether an enjoyable time may be expected. A more definite programme of which will appear later.

—Dr. Brine's many friends here will be pleased to learn that the report of his death in a New York hospital is untrue. A letter from the doctor to a friend here says he had been ill recently but is now recovering rapidly and expects to enjoy better health than he did previous to his late sickness.

—The annual convention of the Kent County Sunday School Association met here last week, and was an unusually interesting one, and calculated to cause a renewed interest in Sunday school work in this county. Revs. W. Hamilton, J. Seller, W. McLeod, F. A. Wightman, G. F. Kinnear, and A. Lucas were present. We understand it is the intention of the association to publish a full report of the proceedings in their new organ, the Sunday School Helper.

—The Fredericton Farmer says: It is the intention of the genial and enterprising proprietor of the Hotel Brunswick, Moncton, to guarantee at least a $100 added money for each class in two, three, and four-year-old futurity race, to be trotted on Moncton driving park, in all probability during the month of August next, and also to hang up a purse of at least $300 for a free-for-all class, thus making two excellent days' sport. Here is a chance for the young trotting stock of the provinces to be brought to the front, and we have no doubt whatever that there will be a large entry list in each class. Mr. McSweeney deserves a great deal of credit for the enterprise and public spirit displayed in this way, and it is to be hoped that he will be gratified by such an entry list as he and all other progressive horsemen desire to see.
