

LOCAL & GENERAL.

Sudden Death.

The late John Plume died at his residence, West Branch, Kent County, on Oct. 17th under the following sad circumstances: That day he had been in his usual health, assisting his son-in-law to finish digging potatoes. Late in the evening he went into the house and got a saw to cut some wood. A minute or two later his daughter opened the door and was horrified to see her father lying in the yard. On reaching him life was extinct, heart disease the cause. The family thus suddenly bereaved have the sympathy of the community. The deceased was born in Charlottetown, P. E. Island, in 1823, and came to this province at an early age. His father was Francis Plume. He settled at West Branch, St. Nicholas River, and was a successful farmer and a good neighbor. Some ten years ago the deceased and his wife endured a great affliction by the death of three sons (oldest sixteen) within a few days of each other by that scourge, diphtheria. He leaves a widow and three children, who are utterly prostrated by their sudden bereavement.—Com.

The Shooting Case.

When questioned by a reporter as to whether he proposed to take any action in regard to the shooting at St. John of McNeill by Policeman Caples, the solicitor general said it had not become necessary for him to decide what course he would adopt. In cases where it was supposed a crime had been committed, the usual course for the police authorities or some interested parties was to lay an information before the police magistrate, in order to the holding of a preliminary examination, and if the accused were committed for trial, it would be the duty of the crown officer to submit a bill of indictment to the grand jury, and should this not be done in the present instance it would be his duty to determine whether he should, of his own motion, submit a bill of indictment at the circuit court, which opens on the 17th instant.

A Severe Attack.

DEAR SIRS,—My children were taken ill with ulcerated sore throats bordering on diphtheria. I had nothing in the house but Hagar's Yellow Oil, which I used with great benefit. I am sure if it had not been for it the disease would have developed into diphtheria. It is a splendid medicine.

Mrs. E. CAMERON, Moore's Falls, Ont.

NUGGETS.

- The Prince of Wales is fifty years old.
—Smelt nets for sale. Apply at this office.
—Auction sale at Mr. J. D. Phinney's residence next Thursday.
—An effort is being made to extend the telephone system from Moncton to Buctouche.
—Wm. McKinnon killed a fine hog on Monday, thirteen months old, weighing 397 pounds.
—We extend congratulations to Mr. A. D. Walker and bride, and hope their voyage through life may be a long and prosperous one, and regret that they had not decided to make their home here.
—If any man whom Chief Clark has transformed with his magic wand into a policeman can become judge, jury, and executioner in a moment and shoot men down on sight, our courts of justice might as well be closed, and the administration of the law given over to the blue coated brotherhood with their clubs and their pistols.—St. John Gazette.
—When the cook in the Kent hotel looked for a goose, which had been carefully prepared the night previous for Sunday's dinner, it was not to be found, having been stolen from the pantry by some hungry thief. The burglar forced open the window by breaking the catch. He will have to answer for his conduct sometime.
—Can any of our farmer readers beat the following, which we clip from the St. Andrews Beacon: One hundred and fifteen bushels of oats from four bushels' sowing on one acre is a pretty good yield, and we doubt if there is another section of the province, except St. Andrews, that can do it. Mr. Robert Peacock did it on his Joe's Point farm.
—L. Higgins & Co., of Moncton have extended their business stand by opening up in the store adjoining the one already occupied by them and just left vacant by the firm of Loggie & Co. They thus have one of the largest, handsomest and best equipped establishments in the province. Their great clearing out sale that is going on is proving a great success.
—Among the most persistent and successful advertisers in New Brunswick, are Messrs. Daniel & Robertson, of St. John, N. B., and their large business is a good example of what printers' ink will do when judiciously applied. With new ideas and better facilities for doing business, they have made the London House Retail better known than ever throughout the provinces—the growth of their letter orders is wonderful, and every customer has words of praise for the satisfactory way in which all orders are attended to. See advertisement on this page.

A Double Effect. DEAR SIRS.—I have used Hagar's Pectoral Balsam for bronchitis and had cough, with the best results, and can highly recommend it to all sufferers. ROSCOE PUGSLEY, 250 Delaware Av., Toronto. Over one hundred thousand dollars worth of pearls were found in mussels on the Sugar river, Wisconsin, last summer.

THE LATE FR. BELLIVEAU. I have a beautiful cabinet photo of the late Father Belliveau, made from life, and was highly approved of by himself. Do not buy some of the poor copies that are being sold, but see that every picture bears my name printed in gold on the bottom. If you want a picture you also want a good portrait and faithful likeness, which you can get mailed to you, postage prepaid, by sending 25 cents in stamps to my address. C. E. NORTHRUP, Photographer. P. O. BOX 146, MONCTON, N. B.

NUGGETS. —To rent or for sale—the Bliss cottage. —Executions for Taxes at THE REVIEW office. —Seaweed is being eagerly gathered along the shores for banking. —The Miramichi river was frozen over at Millerton on Wednesday last. —Boys were skating on the St. John River, at St. Mary's, on Thursday last. —Mr. Sewell, of Springhill, York Co., raise 1,200 barrels of turnips this season. —Frank Phinney and Fred. McDougall killed thirteen partridges one day last week. —The weather during the past week or so has been perfect. Genuine Indian summer. —The great bulk of alcohol produced in the United States is made from corn in Peoria, Ill. —The Eiffel tower at Chicago will be 1,120 feet in height and will cost the modest sum of $1,500,000. —Auction sale on Wednesday next, at John C. M. Hannah's residence, South Branch, by Auctioneer McDougall. —Mr. Richard O'Leary purposes moving into the residence of the late Peter Loggie, which, we understand, he has leased. —The term "monkey wrench" seems to be unknown in England. The wrench is there called a spanner, because it spans the nut. —As the pig-killing season is at hand, we expect Kent will lead the van as usual with heavy weight porkers. Send along the figures. —Any of our subscribers entitled to the American Farmer not receiving the same will please notify us. It is no longer clubbed with THE REVIEW. —Every watch sold at my establishment can be depended upon to be as represented. All I ask is a fair, but small percentage on what I sell. W. R. GOULD, Chatham. —F. P. Reid & Co., wholesale grocers, Moncton, finding their premises quite inadequate to accommodate their growing business, have removed to the corner of Wesley and Main Streets. See their advertisement on the second page. —Dr. Arnold was struck a cowardly blow from behind with a bottle on Friday night last, inflicting an ugly scalp wound which bled profusely. The doctor says he has a "good idea" who the party is, but it is not his intention to prosecute. —In some sections of the county there are considerable potatoes, etc., still in the ground. Some people never seem to be prepared for winter; but the frosts came somewhat earlier this season, and were unusually severe. It is to be hoped everything will be gathered in without loss. —Last week an Amherst family named McKay, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. McKay, two daughters and a son, the eldest daughter aged 15, were poisoned fatally, through eating griddle cakes in which one of the girls had put hellebore, mistaking it for soda. —Owing to the rumor of the wreck of the bark Konoma during the recent storm, the owners, Messrs J. & T. Jardine, received a cablegram from parties interested in the old country, inquiring as to the truth of the report. The good ship Konoma is probably half way across the Atlantic now. —A Lisbon Falls, Me., correspondent says one of Frederick Thibideau's youngest sons was attacked by a large rat while asleep one night last week. The boy's father was aroused by the noise, as it was a struggle for life, the rat leaving two large gashes on the child's forehead and one on his nose. —A Bass River correspondent says that the crops in that section have been "great" this season. Mr. David Robertson threshed four hundred bushels of oats from thirty bushels seed, and he gathered in one hundred and fifty barrels of potatoes as the result of twenty bushels of seed planted. Mr. E. Walker secured 1600 bushels of potatoes as the fruits of one hundred bushels of seed. The latter also raised three hundred bushels of wheat. —A New York paper, speaking of the poor accommodations for the crews on board the United States war vessels, from which the sailors have been deserting in gangs, says in the old days the men did their four hours duty aloft and then retired to the comforts of the roomy gun deck, with gun ports open on every hand. Now they haul at tackle and falls, or toil before the furnaces, and retire into a rat hole under the forward hatches. They have spent their time devising engines and batteries; now they should try and devise a means of keeping men enough aboard to work them. —Mr. L. J. Reddin, of P. E. Island, but for the past four years in the employ of the late firm of McSweeney Bros., Moncton, and also the Moncton Furniture Company, has, as will be seen by advertisement elsewhere, opened a general store in the building lately occupied by Landry & LeBlanc, Buctouche. As Mr. Reddin is a young man of good address and business qualifications there is no doubt that his venture will be a success. Mr. L.'s stock of goods is nicely assorted and the store has been neatly repainted by Mr. Landry.
