Card of Thanks.
The committee of management in connection with the recent entertainment in St. Patrick's Hall, wish to tender their sincere thanks to those friends—THE REVIEW included—who by generous contributions and otherwise largely assisted in making the affair a success.
MARTIN FLANAGAN,
on behalf of Committee.

THE GREAT CLEARANCE SALE OF DRY GOODS at J. Flanagan's—Twenty thousand dollars worth. The stock is well selected. In all line of staple and useful goods that every household requires for all seasons it contains the cream of selections of the leading lines from the very best firms in the trade. (They all have their leaders.) This stock has been selected from the best and much of the stock is away below ordinary values. When you get them at our net cost as you do now or in many cases away below. You save one to five dollars a suit of clothes and the same on an overcoat. You save five to fifty cents a yard on Dress Goods, and the like sum on a carpet, you save from ten cents to a dollar a yard on Cloths. Five to ten dollars on a Lady's or Gentleman's Coat, one to five dollars on a Rubber Coat, and a proportionate saving on all classes of goods. Call as early in the day as possible to secure best attendance and avoid the rush later in the day. We have secured additional help to be able to meet the requirements of all.
J. FLANAGAN,
Moncton.

Presentation to Hon. Mr. Adams.
The Hon. Michael Adams, of Newcastle N. B., ex-commissioner of Crown Lands in that province, has just been the recipient of a highly eulogistic address accompanied by a testimonial in the shape of a magnificent beaver-skin coat, from the Liberal-Conservative Association of the county of Northumberland, N. B. After Mr. Adams had delivered an eloquent reply, and the party adjourned to the "Mitchell Arms," where a number of toasts were proposed and drunk in cold water. Amongst these was the toast of "Sir John Macdonald," and Mr. Adams being called upon to reply, exceeded even his well-known wit and eloquence in doing so. Several other gentlemen also replied to the toast, and excelled each other in their laudation of Canada's Chief, one gentleman who proclaimed himself a "Grit" praying that Sir John might long be spared to his country. It is now well understood that Mr. Adams will be the Conservative banner-bearer at the next election against Hon. Peter Mitchell, the present member, and with undoubted prospects of success.—Ottawa Citizen, 29 Dec., 1890.

Agricultural Meeting.
Kingston, Kent, Agricultural Society held their annual meeting in the Temperance hall, on Saturday, 3rd inst., at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, the following officers were elected for the present year: Wm. J. Brait, president; Wm. McLeod and A. McNairn, vice-presidents; John Jardine, jr., secretary and treasurer; Dr. Doherty, Robt. Law, W. H. McArthur finance and audit committee. It was decided to hold an exhibition of cattle and grain, and a ploughing match, in September or October, at which about $200 will be offered in prizes. F. S. Peters, A. McNairn, and Wm. Jardine were appointed a committee to prepare the prize lists.

Flowers and the Sick.
It is supposed that many flowers should be kept away from sick people, that they exhaust the air or communicate to it some harmful quality. This may, in a degree, be true of such strong fragrant blossoms as lilies or garden lilies, but of the more delicately-scented ones no such effect need be apprehended. A well-aired room will never be made close or unwholesome by a nosegay of roses, mignonette, or violets, and the subtle cheer they bring in with them is infinitely reviving to the weary eyes and depressed spirits.

Many Deaths in a Convent.
MONTREAL, Jan 1.—Vile Marie Convent the mother house in Canada and the United States of the congregation of nuns founded by Marguerite Burgoyne, is just now passing through a season of deepest sorrow. The death of three members of the order have taken place within a few hours, and consequently letters and despatches from more than a hundred convents were received yesterday.
The first victim, the Rev. Mother Ste. Benard, was one of the oldest religieuses in America. She was a Miss Mignault, and had worn the habit of Marguerite Burgoyne over fifty-nine years. The names of the other ladies whose deaths are mourned by the same community are Sisters Ste. Helene, in the world Catherine Dwyer, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Sister Ste. Rosaline, in the world Annie Comeau of Petit Rocher, N. B.
More than 2,000 women of India sent a petition 60 feet in length to Queen Victoria, praying for the increase of the age at which marriage may be legally entered into by women.

NIGGETS.
—Montreal is to have a jail to cost a round million dollars.
—Sixty degrees below zero was recorded at Fort Fair Field, M., on the 31st December—the lowest ever recorded.
—The North Atlantic Pilot Chart for January is now sent on the storm of the first of December says it was the most severe experienced in the gulf of St. Lawrence for sixty years.
—A correspondent at West Branch writes:—"S. B. Hetherington has returned from West Bridgewater, Mass., where he has been for the last two years, on a short visit to his friends. All his old friends here were glad to see him, and as he has brought an apparatus completely prepared to take views he is doubly welcome. He says that nothing gave him so much pleasure when away from home as the reading of THE REVIEW and that he hailed its approach with joy."

—Drs. Doherty & Somers, dentists, lost mostly all their tools and stock by fire Monday morning, valued at about $1,000; insurance, $700.
—Coun. D. McAlmon had his hand badly jammed in a car door at Kingston station the other day.
—The Moncton Times last year enjoyed the most prosperous 12 months in its history. "At first affording employment for one man and two boys the business has grown until upwards of thirty names are on the pay roll and about $250 per week is distributed among the employes in cash each Saturday night." May it continue to prosper.
—$350,000 have been expended in building operation in St. John during the last year.
—A New York man is under arrest charged with the murder of his mother, having thrown her out of a five story window.

—The decrease in lumber shipments during the past season was general from all the ports of New Brunswick except Richibucto. The figures for this port (including Buctouche) are: 1889, 13,084, 793; 1890, 14,945 707.
—While the goose bone and roanberry weather prophets are wrangling over what kind of a winter we are going to have, the question is being very decisively settled. Each storm and cold "snap" being more and more severe.
—THE REVIEW received this week a very handsome calendar from L. Higgins & Co., of Moncton.
—Henry O'Leary, Esq., recently imported a car load of boots and shoes from the factory of J. T. Hurley, St. John.
—The St. John Business College reopened on the 5th inst.
—The Municipal Council will meet in annual session on Tuesday the 13th inst.
—A fruitful subject for speculation upon the Phases of life in a great city is suggested by the Philadelphia Record, in an article in which it gives the names and addresses of more than two hundred women of Philadelphia, most of them young, who mysteriously disappeared last year.
—J. & A. McMillan have issued a handsome calendar for 1891. It is an artistic production, the work being all done in their own establishment.
—The premises of R. H. Armstrong, Newcastle, Miramichi, who has recently been appointed a vendor under the Scott Act, were broken into on New Year's Eve and a quantity of liquor, said to be worth about seventy dollars, stolen therefrom. Whatever money had been left in the till was also stolen.

—A correspondent at Buctouche, signed "Grit," writes about the herring nets some of the local politicians are making, and wonders if Laurier is interested in that industry. "One thing is sure, he is coming to Buctouche during the herring season and our friend D. D. will revive again," says the writer.
—All drivers, especially young ladies, who are not accustomed to the feat should be careful in turning into gateways.
—Seldom have we seen a more eloquent tender and resistless plea put forward in behalf of a patient but debt cursed occupant of an editorial chair than the following from The Office: "Lives of poor men oft remind us honest toil don't stand a chance. More we work we leave behind us bigger patches on our pants. On our pants once new and glossy, now are patches of different hue; all because subscribers linger, and won't pay up what is due. Then let all be up and doing; send in your mite be it so small; or when the snows of winter strike us we shall have no pants at all."
—Up to the time of going to press last evening the Weldford mail had not put in an appearance owing to the almost impassable condition of the roads.
Annie Oakley, the champion woman rifle and wing shot of the world, who travelled for years with Barnum and the Wild West shows, died recently at Buenos Ayres. She was born in 1866, and was married to Frank Butler, a famous shot. Her greatest feat was performed in February, 1885, when she shot at 5000 glass balls in one day, she loading the guns herself. The weapons were three 16-gauge hammer guns. She fired at 15 yards' rise, the balls being thrown straight away from three traps, and broke 4772 of the 5000.
