Fine weather for farming.
The student is daily expected home.
The mills are all going. The hum of the gangs and the pleasant and musical sound of the trimmer saws indicate that the lumber industry is not a thing of the past in Kent County.

The drives are all down; the boys were paid off and left for their respective homes.
Mr. D. W. Grierson is again amongst us. He appears to grow young as the years roll on.

Among the visitors to town during the week we noticed Geo. V. McInerney and A. Storer, of Richibucto, and J. H. Abbot, of the Merchant's Bank of Halifax, Kingston.

Our good ladies are considering the advisability of organizing a W. C. T. U.
Their good work will no doubt be highly appreciated by our citizens, and while it will be injurious to none, it will be beneficial to many.

George Raymond, proprietor of the Carleton House, has one of the finest colts in the County; he is only two years old, and possesses the strength of an ordinary horse, and, as a stepper, he is a dandy.
RHAPSODIST.

John Penfield, a horse dealer at Mason City, Ia., was leading two stallions through the street, when they engaged in a fierce battle. Penfield seized a club and tried to separate them, when one of the horses grabbed him with his teeth and inflicted terrible injuries upon him. The stallion would not release his hold and his mouth had to be pried open. The man is not expected to live.

Judge Arnold of Philadelphia has decided that a man's wife is entitled to witness fees when she is a material witness in his suit. He says the theory that man and wife are one before the law is a legal fiction.

One of the census enumerators got lost in the Lake Manitoba district, and after being four days without food killed his horse, which was dying of starvation, and ate horse flesh. He afterwards reached the settlement safely.

One year to one address for only One Dollar!
Two Papers for the Price of One.

This extraordinary offer will only hold good for a short time.

Kingstone!

Should sufficient patronage be offered, the trotting bred stallion "Kingstone" will be held for the service of good roading mares at "The Cedars," Kingston, from each Saturday at noon till Monday noon during the season, and at other places at stated times where his services may be required, which places will be hereafter made known through circulars.
"Kingstone" is sired by "Rysdyke (653)" and he by the founder of the great Hamiltonian family, viz. "Rysdyke's Hamilton (10)"; "Rysdyke" the sire of "King-stone" has six of his get in the 2.30 list, including "Clingstone" 2.14, nicknamed "The Demon" on account of his bull dog determination displayed in his several hard contested races. "Kingstone's" dam "Duchess of Kent" was by the imported thorough-bred "Aracon" and her eighteen years' service over all kinds of roads proved her a superior roadster.
Coupled with the right kind of mares the get of "Kingstone" should show a fair percentage of fast trotters, while all should be superior roadsters, having a sufficient amount of the stamina and fine bone of the thorough-bred, as he, "King-stone," is half thorough-bred, sire and dam being each half.
Service fee $10.00 for the season, or $5 for single service. Be it known to all who it may concern "Life is too short to be spent in going to mill or market behind an ox or mule team."
I. W. DOHERTY.
"The Cedars," Kingston, April 20, 1891.

PEDIGREE
—OF—
Trotting Stallion
MYSTERIOUS
STRANGER.

Foaled July, 1885, dappled brown and weighs 1175 lbs., stands 16 hands high.
Sired by the noted stallion King Bird Jr., (better known as Cail's King Bird); he by the imported King Bird; he by Winthrop Bush Messenger. Dam of Stranger was the noted Christopher mare; she by Morning Star; he by Old Saladin, an imported English thoroughbred. This horse's grand dam on both sides is Sala-din. A glance at the above pedigree will convince anyone that breeding from this horse will insure a trotter almost every time. John McMannus, of Memramcook, owns one of his get for which he refused the neat sum of two hundred dollars when one year old, being the only one of his get in New Brunswick.

WILLIAM CLARK,
Manager and owner.
