THE VERDICT RENDERED!

OUR HOLIDAY TRADE THIS SEASON THE BEST WE HAVE EVER HAD!

In Etchings, Engravings, Fancy Frames & Mouldings We are carrying the choicest variety we have ever shown.

Our stock of ARTISTS' MATERIALS includes a magnificent line of

MARINE, LANDSCAPE and FLOWER STUDIES, A new lot just opened. Blank Books, Stationery and School Supplies

W. W. BLACK,

Telephone No. 110.

6.4

263 Victoria Block, Moncton.

CURRAN & WALKER,

-DEALERS IN-

DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, HARDWARE, CROCKERYWARE and GLASSWARE.

FLOUR & MEAL, BOOTS & SHOES, READY-MADE CLOTHING

ALL GOODS SOLD AT VERY LOWEST PRICES FOR CASH. PRODUCE TAKEN IN EXCHANGE FOR GOODS.

KINGSTON, KENT COUNTY, N. B.

J. & T. Jardine.

DIRECT IMPORTERS OF BRITISH AND FOREIGN GOODS.

-AND-

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS

-IN-

FLOUR, CORNMEAL, OATMEAL, COFFEE TEA, SUGAR, TOBACCO,

COARSE SALT, in bulk and bags, DAIRY SALT, Molasses, Biscuits, Cheese, BEEF PORK AND HAMS, OATS, BRAN AND SHORTS.

HARDWARE, CROCKERYWARE, GLASSWARE

BOOTS AND SHOES.

DRY GOODS.

Ready-Made Clothing,

Scotch Horse Collars,

IRON, CHAIN, ANCHORS, ROPE, NAILS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION, LIME.

English House Coal. Blacksmith's Coal.

SHINGLES, DEALS, BOARDS AND SCANTLING, PITCH-PINE, HARDWOOD, LATHS, etc.

Kingston, Kent County, N. B.

H. G. WADMAN,

AUCTIONEER AND COMMISSION MERCHANT,

314 Main Street, Moncton.

Auction Room Capacious and well adapted for all Consignments

GENERAL DEALER,

KING ST., WELDFORD

Plush Parlor Suits, Bedroom Suits, Marble Tops, Bed Couches, Student's Chairs, Easy Chairs, Tables-Square and Oval.

-JUST OPENED-

A large quantity of China, Fancy Lamps, Silverware, &c. SELLING CHEAP FOR THE CHRISTMAS TRADE.

SUBSCRIBE FOR

"The Review." Only $1.00.

of posts and chains before it, and on the "Septimus Eardly."

higher up, where it is narrower;" and, ourselves upon them. ushering me into a room on the ground-floor, he left me. room in a fever of impatience and suspense | pain, the noise of blows, the scuffling of that increased every momens, listening to feet, all mingled in a horrible medley of the comings and goings in the house, and sounds which I can never forget. A blow straining my ears for the sound of horses from Mr. Eardly's life-preserver felled hoofs without, At last I heard them, and, Reuben Blacklock to the floor, where he hurrying out, found Mr. Eardly and his lay stunned and motionless. The conson-a stalwart young Yorkshireman of stable and I were struggling with the four or five and twenty-on horseback at father, who fought like a madman. He the door, accompanied by the chief con- had a pistol in his hand-my own-and stable—one of the principal tradesmen of was trying desperately to disengage his

we were clattering through the silent town | the constable cried, as by a sudden wrench waking all its sleeping echoes, and bring- | the man freed his arm and pointed the ing more than one night-capped head to pistol full in my face. the windows as we passed.

a picture of rustic tranquility, with its | -a heavy fall. The bullet he had insnow-covered roof and picturesque gables. tended for me had gone through his own The "best room" was on the side facing brain. us as we approached. With breathless anxiety I strained my eyes in search of lodged in Beckley lock-up, to be thence the light. My heart gave a wild throb, transferred in due course to the county and then sank-the window was dark!

"Too late!" I gasped, pointing to it. light is still burning. Look again."

it flickered, failed, and vanished.

our pace to a walk as we approached, in tenderness, she was restored. order not to be heard, and, alighting at the gate of the yard, two of us-young Eardly of the attempt on my life, and was senand the watchman-went to guard the tenced to a long term of transportation. front door, while Mr. Eardly, the constable and myself entered the yard.

house through the window by which I had marry. Whom? Joyce! left; taken by surprise the men would have no time for resistance and no chance my wife—as true and tender a wife as for escape.

against the wall. I ascended first, Mr. met, I bless the chance which brought us Eardly and the chief constable following together at the lonely inn on the moors -all three armed.

"We'll take 'em alive, if we can, sir, if last sleep in the strange bed. it's all the same to you," the latter whispered to me as we ascended, as if we were speaking of some dangerous wild beasts.

What I expected to touch when I put out my hand in the darkness, I do not know; but what I did touch was a woman's dress and an icy-cold hand.

"A light! Show a light here for Heaven's sake!" I exclaimed, in a hoarse whisper.

Mr. Eardly, who carried a dark lantern, drew back the slide, and turned the circle of light full on to the bed-full on the face and figure of Joyce, who lay there silent and motionless, with closed eyes and white parted lips.

The pillows were undisturbed; there was no signs of a recent struggle. What did it mean? In a flash, as it were, I understood it. It meant that, after I had left the house, when her master thought her safe in her own chamber, she had crept back to this room, and had deliberately laid herself down upon the bed to meet the fate from which she had rescued

"She is alive; she has only fainted," whispered Mr. Eardly, putting his hand to her heart. "She- Hush!" he broke off suddenly. "Listen!"

He hastily concealed the light again, and we listened intently. There was a sound of stealthy footsteps ascending the stairs. They came along the landing, and the next moment we heard them enter the lumber-room.

"There they are; they have made sure that the light is out. In another moment | very accurate idea whether the lungs are they will open the door. We'll give 'em a warm reception!" whispered the chief constable, grimly, in my ear. "Lift the quently less than six, seconds. When the girl off the bed, sir, out of the way."

Five minutes later she clattered through gently on the floor at the far end of the Beckley High Street, and I drew rein be- room, and returned and took my station fore a large old-fashioned red-brick house | close to the bed's head, Mr. Eardly and standing back from the street with a line constable standing on the other side. There was a momentary silence; then we door a brass plate bearing the name of heard the faint click of the concealed spring--a sound so low that it would have Mr. Eardly was the Mayor of Beckley, been inaudible to ears less strained and and a magistrate to boot; a few years be- intent than ours-and we felt rather than fore, when himself in business, he had saw that the secret door was being slowly had dealings with Marriot Brothers, and I opened from the other side, leaving a void knew him to be not only a kind-hearted where the bed's head had been. Mr. man, but a clear-headed and quick-witted | Eardly waited long enough to allow it to one-invaluable qualities in an emergency. be unclosed to its full width, and then, The family had all retired for the night drawing back the slide of the lantern, except Mr. Eardly himself, who, in dressing flashed the light full on the faces of the gown and slippers, opened the door to me | two murderers, set like an ugly picture in and to whom in a few hurried words I ex- the frame of the door. With an indesplained the situation. He "rose to the cribable cry of astonisment, rage, and occasion" at once, as I expected he would. terror, they drew back into the other room "In twenty minutes the men and horses | and attempted to shut the door; but, beshall be at the door," he said, promptly. fore they could effect it we scrambled "We can cross the stream at another point | pell-mell through the opening, and threw

Then followed a scene of confusion. during which we all seemed to be strug-I spent the interval in pacing about the gling together—oaths, cries of rage and the town-and a watchman, both mounted. | right hand from our grasp.

In a second I too was in the saddle, and | "Look out, sir-look out! Take care!"

Before he could pull the trigger I struck At last we came in sight of the house— the weapon up; there was a sharp report

The same night Reuben Blacklock was Joyce, who had recovered from her "No, no," said young Eardly; "the swoon only to fall into another still more death-like, was removed, at Mr. Eardly's Booking more closely, I saw that he was suggestion, to his own house, and placed right; there was a feeble glimmer, a dim under the motherly care of his kinduncertain ray, which showed that the win- hearted wife. It was long before her dow was still open. But even as I looked mind recovered from the shock it had sustained on that night; by slow degrees By Mr. Eardly's directions we slackened however, thanks to unremitting care and

Reuben Blacklock was convicted only Polly and I took a few more journeys together, for an unexpected legacy which I knew there was a ladder in the stable, fell to me shortly afterwards enabled me and suggested that we should enter the to set up in business for myseif, and to

For more than fifty years she has been a man had-and, as I look back through The ladder was brought and placed the long past to the night when we first where I so narrowly escaped taking my

An Improved Hay Stacker.

A device which can be readily set up in "I'd give fifty pounds to see the villians a field, to facilitate forming a hay stack, or attached to larracks or to a barn, to To get in at the window was a somewhat lighten the labor of removing the hay more difficult matter than to get out of it; from the wagon and placing it where deaccomplished it however safely and sired, has been patented by Mr. Miller quietly, and motioned to the others to Machin, of Bowen, Ill. On the outer end keep back for a moment. The room was of an arm pivoted to a ridge pole or other silent, chilly, and profoundly dark. The support is a head adapted to be engaged candle had only just expired, the wick still by a tripping lever pivoted on a short smouldered. I stood for a moment lister - transverse rod, the ends of the latter rod ing-there was not the faintest sound being secured in the outer ends of long without or within the house; and then a rods or levers pivoted at the inner or strange instinct for which I have never lower ends on the roof of a barn at each been able to account led me straight to the side. On the rod carrying the tripping lever is a support for a pulley, and a rope fastened to the rod extends downward. under a pulley of the head block of a hay fork, thence through the forked end of the tripping lever, over a pulley, and inward over another pulley, and down to the barn floor, where it passes under a pulley mounted to turn in suitable bearings, and is extended to be attached to a pulling gear for a horse or other hoisting power. When the fork is inserted in the hay, and the rope is pulled, the fork rises with its load until the head block strikes the tripping lever, a further pull causing the side rods or levers to swing upward and inward and swinging upward the central pivoted arm. When the operator now backs up the horse, or releases the pull on the rope the hay may be placed were desired, the weight of the parts causing the levers to swing outward again into the normal position for raising a load. This device can also be readily applied to a number of stacking poles set in the usual manner on the ground, and fastened together near their upper ends.

The State of the Lungs.

To ascertain the state of the lungs, draw in as much breath as you conveniently can; then, with a watch before you, count the seconds in a slow audiable voice, without drawing in more breath. The number of seconds as long as possible thus counted during the single breath gives a healthy or diseased. In a consumptive the time does not exceed ten and frelungs are sound the time will range as I raised her in my arms, and laid her high as from twenty to thirty-five seconds.

The Many

Remarkable cures of Catarrh effected by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla are conclusive proofs that this loathsome and dangerous disease is one of the blood, needing only this searching and powerful alterative to thoroughly eradicate it.

"I have suffered for years from catarrh, which was so severe that it destroyed my appetite and weakened my system. None of the remedies I took afforded me any relief, until I used Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I began to take this medicine last spring, and am now entirely free from that disgusting disease. My appetite has returned, and I am once more strong and healthy." - Susan L. W. Cook, 909 Albany street, Boston Highlands. Boston, Mass.

"My son -- now fifteen years of age -- was troubled for a long time with catarrh, in its worst form, through the effects of which his blood became poisoned. About a year ago he began using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, has taken seven bottles of it, and is now entirely well."-D. P. Kerr, Big Spring, Ohio.

"I was cured of a long-standing catarrh by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla." - James J. Dougher, Company G., 13th Infantry, Fort Wingate, N. M.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. Sold by Druggists. $1, six $5. Worth $5 a bottle.

Robertson

& Givan.

Opposite Post Office, Moncton.

-HEADQUARTERS FOR-

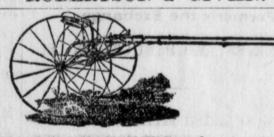

BUILDERS' HARDWARE,

GLASS, PAINTS,

OILS, PUTTY,

LOW PRICES.

ROBERTSON & GIVAN.

MOODY THRESHERS and CIRCULAR WOOD CUTTERS PLOUGHS a Specialty-full line of extra rgans, SLEIGHS. STRAW CUTTERS.

Parties wishing to purchase for cash or on time should not fail to call on JOHN HUCHES. Kingston, Kent Co, Sept. 23, 1890.

Always Insure Your Property

CENIX INSURANCE COMPANY,

-OF-HARTFORD, CONN.

Statement January 1st, 1890-Cash Capital. Reserve for Unadjusted Losses, Reserve for Re-Insurance, -

254,523 43 1,749,245 41 1,301,235 39 Total Assets, $5,305,004 23

J. D. PHINNEY, Agent, Richibucto. FOR SALE.

Valuable Mill and Farm Property at Cameron's Mills, Kent Co., N. B.

The subscriber wishes to dispose of his Water Power Gang Mill, and Shingle Machine, which are in perfect running order. Also, One Hundred Acres of Land. Thirty acres of which are in a good state of cultivation.

There is a good Dwelling House, Barns, and other Buildings on the premises, all of which are shingled, painted and in * good state of repair.

All the property is well fenced.

For further particulars apply on the premises or communicate with JOHN A. CAMERON, Cameron's Mills, Kent Co., N. B.

November 20, 1890. (im) The following are the most important items of the THIRTIETH

> ANNUAL STATEMENT OF THE

LIFE

Outstanding Assurance Dec. 31, 1889, $631,016,666 New Assurance Written in 1889, 175,264,100 Premium Income in 1889, Interest and Other Income, Total Income. Payments to Policy holders,

Assets, Liabilities (4 per cent.)

Ratio of Assets to Liabilities. 127 per cent.

107,150,309 84,329,235

Of the Life Assurance Companies of the world THE EQUITABLE has for ten years transacted the largest annual new business (in 1889, $175,-264,100); for ten years held the largest 4 per cent. surplus (December, 1889, $22,821,074); for four years held the largest outstanding business (December, 1889, $631,016,666); while its superior finerally strength is shown by its high ratio of Assurance and attempts is shown by its high ratio of Assurance and the strength is shown by its high ratio of Assurance and the strength is shown by its high ratio of Assurance and the strength is shown by its high ratio of Assurance and the strength is shown by its high ratio of Assurance and the strength is shown by its high ratio of Assurance and the strength is shown by its high ratio of Assurance and the strength is shown by its high ratio of Assurance and the strength is shown by its high ratio of Assurance and the strength is shown by its high ratio of Assurance and the strength is shown by its high ratio of Assurance and the strength is shown by its high ratio of Assurance and the strength is shown by its high ratio of Assurance and the strength is shown by its high ratio of Assurance and the strength is supplied to the strength in the strength in the strength is supplied to the strength in the strength in the strength is supplied to the strength in the strength ancial strength is shown by its high ratio of Assets to Liabilities, 127 per cent.

Free Tontine Policies.

Bonds combining investment with Assurance.

For information address—
EDWARDS & FIELDING,
Managers for the Maritime Provinces,
Box 158, Halifax, N. S., or:
Special Agent GEO. REED, Moneton, N. B., or:
Local Agents—Moneton, J. E MASTERS;
Chatham, F. R. MORRISON.

MIRAMICHI

MARBLE, FREESTONE & GRANITE WORKS

Monuments, Headstones, Tablets, Mantels &

Table-Tops, Carden Vases, Etc., Etc. CUT STONE of all descriptions furnished to

A large stock of marble always on hand. J. H. LAWLOR & CO.

CHATHAM, N. B.

Richard Sullivan &

WHOLESALE

WINE & SPIRIT

MERCHANTS,

IMPORTERS AND DEALERS IN

Tens, Tobaccos and Cigars,

54 DOCK STREET, ST. JOHN, N. B. BONDED WAREHOUSE No. 8.

James S. Wry

MANUFACTURER OF

KINGSTON, KENT CO., N. B.

CARRIAGES.

Carts. Trucks. Sleighs, &c.

Carriages Painted and Repaired at Shorten Pictures Framed in all styles. CASKETS AND COFFINS, all sizes, constantly on hand. Burial Robes in Brown and White. CARPENTERS' TOOLS. FURNITURE. U-SPRING STOCK-R.

R Parlor Suits U

R Bookcases, U

U HOUSE FURNITURE. R FURNITURE

Bedroom Sets in Walnut, Ash, Ebony.

BUSTIN & JOHNSON.

MAIN ST., MONCTON.

Daily Mail

And Passenger Stage leaves Weldford Station, I. C. R., for Richibucto, via Bass River and Kingston, on arrival of the St. John, Halifax and Quebec Express Trains. Sundays excepted.

Returning-leaves Richibucto at 4.00 p. m., local, and arrives at Weldford Station in time to connect with night express trains going North and South.

Good Livery Stable in connection. L. J. WATHEN,

King St., Weldford, I. C. R., Kent County.

WESTMORLAND Marble Works.

T. F. SHERARD & SON, Dealers in Monuments, Tablets, Headstones. Cemetery work of every description neatly executed. Orders promptly filled.

MONCTON, N. B. v(ug31ui)

YEARS IN THE PARISH OF RICHIBUCTO, HARNESS AND

My eye is not yet dim nor my strength abated.

COLLAR MAKING.

use the best of Stock. My work has been Itested and not found wanting. am very busy.

I request the owners of horses to keep me Considering the quality I verily believe my Harness the cheapest in the market.

warrant my collars.

THE "B. LAURANCE" SPECTACLES

EYEGLASSES $22,821,074 Ground scientifically from clear and pure

Pebble, or optical glass especially manufactured for the purpose, they are without exception best adapted to restore the ravages of age, and to retain perfect vision; they are especially recommended by the most eminent of the Faculty Every pair fitted on scientific principles and guaranteed to give perfect vision where no actual disease of the eye exists, or can be exchanged free of charge within twelve months.

RICHIBUCTO, N. B.

W. A. Maclaren, Druggist, AGENT,