

Death in Gloves.

Danger lies hidden in everything, even the dainty little gloves of feminine adoration, which seem so very harmless, but which may very seriously threaten health and even life itself.

Weldford Notes.

July 27, 1891.—A number of our citizens are leaving town to enjoy the refreshing breeze of the seaside, while others are returning from "the States" and other places to spend their vacation at home.

Mr. Everett Thompson of New York is here visiting friends. Mr. Thompson was formerly an I. C. R. telegraph operator; but is now employed in the same capacity for a New York daily newspaper.

Mr. Otty Bailey is spending his vacation with friends in Richibucto and Kingston.

Local Paper Preference.

The great preference that is manifested for the local newspaper, says Editor Bolles, of the New Milford (Conn.) Gazette, may be explained in one sentence: In the metropolitan paper the reader has only a general interest; in the local paper he has a personal interest.

Awfully Awful.

If the ladies can not be induced to discontinue their barbarous misapplication of the words, "awful" and "awfully," it will behoove future lexicographers to change the dictionary definition so that it will conform to the customary employment of these words.

Golden Rules.

The original Baron Rothschild, the founder of the great line of bankers, is said to have kept the following business maxims placarded upon his walls. They might at least be read and heeded in a good many modern business houses with profit: "Carefully examine every detail of your business. Be prompt in everything. Take time to consider and then decide quickly. Do not go forward. Bear troubles patiently. Be brave in the struggle of life. Maintain your integrity as a sacred thing. Never tell business lies. Make no useless acquaintances. Never try to appear anything more than you are. Pay your debts promptly. Learn how to risk money at the right moment. Shun strong liquor. Employ your time well. Do not reckon upon chance. Be polite to everybody. Never be discouraged. Then work hard and you will be certain to succeed."

Cocagne.

July 27, 1891.—Mr. S. E. McManus, of Buctouche, has had considerable trouble in getting his bridge timber around to Shediac. When off Cocagne harbor, a heavy breeze sprung up, which scattered the logs in all directions. Mr. McManus and his men, with the assistance of a second crew from the Cape, have succeeded, however, in collecting all but fifty pieces or so, and will probably be ready for sea in a few days.

Since the bridge has broken down, the "free ferry" has been launched, and seems to be giving general satisfaction, under the able management of Messrs Chapman and Newell.

Mr. Lucas' many friend will regret to hear that he has been confined to his room for the past few days.

Miss Connors and Mr. Rosby, of Tignish, are here, the guests of Mr. Edgar Lucas.

A number of folks from across the border have been here of late visiting friends and relations, prominent among the many being Mr. and Mrs. Burk, of Gardiner, Me., and Mr. and Mrs. Daigle, of Lynn, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. Theriault, of Waltham, Mass. The first named couple have lately returned, while the latter have, in company with Mrs. Rogers, taken a trip to the Island with Capt. White.

Messrs Jermain and Albert Gogan, two of our most enterprising farmers, have had their houses, barns, and outbuildings tastefully painted, which adds much to the beauty of the buildings, as well as to their surroundings in general.

Every mother should see that their children get McLean's Worm Syrup when needed.—Adv't.

A member of one Maine firm that handles 37 million of spruce this season says, "For the next ten years the bulk of the spruce timber in Maine will be made into pulp. Spruce makes tougher paper than poplar and we have lots of it growing in the State. Yes, pulp will be the leading product of Maine for the next ten years."

Election Card!

To the Electors of the County of Kent, GENTLEMEN:—

O. J. LeBlanc, M. P. P., having accepted a nomination for the late election for the Commons, his seat in the House of Assembly has thereby become vacant and you will soon be again called upon to elect a member to represent you at Fredericton.

The large vote (1203) which I received at the election in January, 1890, (when I was comparatively unknown in some sections of the County) with the solicitations and encouragements I have lately had from a very large number of you, induce me to again offer you my services. I have since that election continued to represent my own parish (St Marys) at the Municipal Board, and have been honoured with an unanimous election as Warden of the Council, I have therefore become more intimately acquainted with the business and people of the County, and have confidence that I can faithfully serve your interests in the higher position to which I aspire.

If honored with a majority of your votes my chief aim will be to advance the interests of my native County, and for this purpose I will be prepared to favor all legislation, no matter by whom introduced which in my judgment may tend in the direction.

Your local wants with reference to roads and bridges shall not be overlooked by me, and I will do my utmost to secure for Kent a fair share of public money.

I therefore solicit the active support of all who so generously assisted me in my former contest, as well as all others who are now willing to trust the representation of the County in my hands.

I will endeavor to make a thorough canvass of the County, and trust to have the pleasure of explaining my views to a large number of the electors.

Again soliciting your votes and support I am, gentlemen, Your obedient servant, JOHN B. GOGAIN. St. Mary's March 10, 1891.
