

LOCAL & GENERAL.

No Rum to Indians.
The following has been issued from the department of Indian affairs at Ottawa:—
Notice is hereby given that any person selling or giving, directly or indirectly, any kind of intoxicating liquor to Indians, either on or off their reserves, will be prosecuted with the utmost rigor of the law, being liable to a fine of $300 and six months imprisonment. One-half the fine imposed is payable to the informer.
L. VANKOUGHNET,
Deputy of the Supt. General of Indian Affairs.

Appointed Queen's Council.
The following have been appointed Queen's Counsel for New Brunswick: Hon. A. G. Blair, Hon. Wm. Pugsley, Hon. Jas. Mitchell, Geo. F. Gregory, Jas. A. Vanwart, Charles Doherty, Silas Alward, M. P. P., J. Gordon Forbes, I. Allen Jack, Daniel Jordan, A. A. Stockton, M. P. P., Hon. Michael Adams, J. D. Phinney, M. P. P., A. O. Earle, Chas. A. Palmer and W. W. Wells. The Nova Scotia appointments are Thos. Chesley, of Bridgetown, Seymour Gourley, of Truro, and Charles Smith, of Amherst. The only addition for Prince Edward Island is Hon. Neil McLeod, of Charlottetown.

Kingston Notes.
On a recent afternoon an exciting race took place here between "Gray Sam," a speedy gelding, and a hard shell belonging to a prominent merchant. The course was from the bridge down to a point near Jardine's wharf—a distance of 1/4 mile. The fee was slushy which naturally impeded the progress of the gray; but the wind was blowing about 30 miles an hour which greatly enhanced the velocity of the hard shell. The shell got the start and at first left the horse, but the latter was by the aid of a huge whip forced to do his "speedy utmost," and he soon gained on the shell, which playfully stopped until its owner jumped out of the sleigh to pick it up when as if gaining new vigor from the rest, it bounded off with increased speed. The owner, however, who seemed to be a sprinter of no mean order, overtook the hat after a race of about one hundred yards and gracefully falling upon it held it there till the horse came up. Time 1 m. 20 sec. The proprietor of that shell will back it against any other hat in this county.

Some of our fishermen who had moved down to the beaches, being enticed thither by the glowing fish stories that had been circulated, are returning home, sadder and wiser men.

There is a good deal of sickness here, principally among children. Mrs. James Porteous who has been very ill of paralysis of the brain, is said to be slowly recovering. Mr. Nathaniel Hutchinson is down with some disease resembling "la grippe." Mrs. Hutchinson, who was in Nova Scotia has been sent for.

A number of our citizens are preparing to leave for Western Canada and the Western States. Our village will soon resemble a fruit tree after being swept by an October gale—all the ripe, luscious fruit blown away, and nothing left but the green and dry withered ones.

One of our citizens who made a flying visit out west, visited in the course of three weeks, nearly every place of importance between Florida and Alaska. This sounds like the answer the boy gave Neptune when that god came up over the bow with his tarbucket and mop, and asked the boy whether he had ever crossed the Equator before. The boy said he had—"Once on a voyage from New York to Glasgow; we called at St Helena for water."

Daring Escape.
BOSTON, Jan. 29.—Henry Garfield, serving a four year term from October 13th, 1890, in the state prison at Charlestown, for breaking and entering, escaped from that institution early this morning. He was employed in a picture frame shop and with tools from this department he cut his way through the brick work of his cell into the attic of the building. Thence crawled through the ventilator to the roof. He had torn up blankets and made a rope with which he successfully descended from the roof to the yard. He entered the store via a transom and dressed himself in the clothes intended for a prisoner discharged to-day. He took a section rope with a hook on one end and with it scaled the outer wall, making good his escape. A very natural looking dummy was found in his bed later.

A Salutary Law.
The laws of Denmark contain, amongst various other wise provisions, one which it would probably be as difficult to find in the criminal code of other nations as in our own common law or any statute amending the same. It provides a penalty for that especially revolting form of cruelty which consists in allowing a fellow-creature to perish without extending to him a helping hand. A mere act of omission in certain cases is indictable. "Whoever has refused," says the Danish law, "to help another person in mortal danger, when he could have done so without peril to his own life, and that person has perished in consequence, is liable to either imprisonment or fine."

At Nashville, Tenn., during a snowstorm on Saturday, countless numbers of small fish fell. They resembled carp.

The wolf scare has again made itself manifest in the northern part of the State of Maine and in New Brunswick, but many of the hunters and those well acquainted with the wood doubt if the animals which have been seen are wolves. Reports that have been received from the upper St. John waters are to the effect that wolves have made their appearance in that section, and are following the trail of deer.

—The K. N. R. people are having a hard time this winter, but they are doing well under the circumstances.

—We wish our correspondents would endeavor to mail their favors so as to reach this office not later than Tuesday.

—The K. N. R. train did not make connections on Tuesday. It only succeeded in getting as far as Kingston station.

—The man who writes an anonymous letter to a newspaper generally loses his time, ink, paper, postage stamp, and his self respect—if he ever had any.

—Messrs. A. & R. Loggie intend putting up small smelts in oil for sardines. It would be strange, indeed, if they would not make as good Sardines as Eastport herring.

—One of Mortimore's sports shot a very fine moose within three or four miles of the factory a few days ago. The moose had been chased by different parties for two days and at last was brought to a halt by the unerring shot of Mr. Beattie.

—We note with pleasure that Mr. Phinney continues to improve, having been out driving on two or three occasions during the week. This will be good news to all, as we can ill afford to part with men of Mr. Phinney's stamp.

—Frank Wheten son of Ephraim Wheten of Weldford, who left here about two months ago to work in the woods in the State of Maine was killed by a falling tree. His remains were brought home Tuesday. Jas. Stewart of Bass River accompanied the remains.

—The Union Hotel, Newcastle, lately managed by Mrs. Desmond, is now run by Mr. H. R. Murray, late of the Rogersville House, he having purchased the establishment from Mrs. Desmond. Mr. and Mrs. Murray being experienced in the hotel business will no doubt draw a large share of patronage.

—A donation party was held at the Methodist parsonage, Richibucto, last Monday evening. A presentation was made amounting in all to $24.00. The Rev. J. Seller briefly thanked the friends for this expression of their kindness and good will. The day following the friends of Kingston sent in a donation amounting to $9.00.

—A correspondent writing to the Globe says: I notice in the London Times of the 15th ult. that a consignment of tea from the Gallebodi estate, Ceylon, was sold by auction at the London commercial tea salesrooms, Mincing Lane, on the 13th ult., for eighty-seven shillings sterling per pound, and I further notice in the London Times of the 16th ult. that the same consignment was afterwards re-sold by Messrs. Whitworth, Hillyard & Wade at one hundred and ten shillings, or twenty-seven dollars per pound. The tea is described as being a bright gold color.

—The social and dance held in the Masonic hall Tuesday was a very pleasant affair. Messrs. Phinney and Ferguson and Senator Cochrane, of Macleod, N. W. T., were the committee. Everyone was happy and even the commercial men seemed to forget the storm that was raging outside and vied with the local boys in the evenings enjoyment. A collation was indulged in about 12 o'clock after which Inspector E. L. O'Brien made a speech, announcing that owing to the inclemency of the weather a number were prevented from being present and the management had decided to repeat the social next Monday evening. Mr. Chas. Weeks made a very efficient floor manager.

—"P. T." writing from Swan River, Minn., under recent date, says: "There are a number of your young men out here helping us this winter, and great lads they are too. The Walker boys, Al and Abe Dixon, Dug Clark and James Cail, the latter I'm sure his folks wouldn't know. He must weigh fifty pounds more now than when he got here, if he keeps on adding to his weight he will soon be classed with the great men of the country and the pineries will no longer know him. Al Dixon is a great hunter, when not at work he shoulders his gun and starts to find a deer or moose. He hasn't found one yet."
