

FAREWELL ADDRESS.

To Mrs. J. Thompson, President of the Loyal Temperance Legion. It having become known that Mrs. J. Thompson, the president of the Loyal Temperance Legion, was about to leave Richibucto, a number of her friends met in the Temperance hall on Monday evening, the 18th May, in connection with the meeting of the Legion, to express their feelings of deep regret at her departure.

Rev. J. S. Sells and J. D. Phinney, Esq., M. P. P., each spoke feelingly of the severance of the tie which so closely connected Mrs. Thompson with all the reforms in her native town, whether religious, moral, or social. The ladies of the W. C. T. Union also presented her with the following.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: The ladies associated with you in the work of the Richibucto branches of the Women's Christian Temperance Union and Temperance Legion, have heard with deep regret of your intended removal from this place, in which you have spent the years of a useful and active life, and they cannot permit you to leave without expressing to you their appreciation of the earnest interest you have ever taken in all efforts to advance the religious, moral, or social prosperity of our community.

We have particularly learned to admire your sound but kindly judgment, as President, in the management of the association above named—a large portion of the responsibility and active work of which has fallen upon you, and we readily recognize the fact that a large portion of the success that has attended our labors has been the result of your prudent tact and thoughtful management.

We are sadly reminded that the family affliction through which you have recently passed has severed the strongest tie that bound you to your native place, and that in seeking a home with your children in a distant city you are simply following the dictates of a mother's heart, and we sincerely pray that you may find with them the solace in your remaining years, which you doubtless feel you now need.

We bid you adieu with sad hearts, feeling that we are losing a true and tried friend and earnest Christian worker, and fervently pray that God may bless you and yours and keep you in his loving care throughout the years that are to come. We remain, dear Mrs. Thompson, Your sincere friends and co-workers,

- Mrs. J. SELLER, Cor. Sec.

" W. A. BLACK, do.,
" W. WHITE, do.,
Miss A. H. TAYLOR, Rec. Sec.,
Mrs. W. J. SMITH, Treasurer,
" FANNY OSTLE, Auditor,
Mrs. FRECKER, Member,
Miss BETHIA PHINNEY, "
Mrs. J. P. BELL, "
Miss EMMA C. MUDGE, "
Mrs. JOHN STEVENSON, "
Miss LIZZIE POTTER, " Mrs. W. ROBERTSON, "

The address was read by J. D. Phinney, M. P. P. Mrs. Thompson was much surprised, and so overcome by the kind words of the ladies with whom she had been associated that she was unable to give expression to her feelings, so she asked H. T. Colpitts, principal of the grammar school, to say a few words in reply. He felt sure that while Mrs. Thompson justly deserved the kind words that had been tendered her, yet she had not been working for then but for the present and future good of every child with whom she came in contact.

While she was glad to know that her efforts were appreciated by her co-workers, yet she could say that she worked not for the praise of men but because she felt it her duty to labor in the vineyard of her Lord and Master.

Rev. Mr. Hackenley also bore testimony to the "works of faith and labors of love" that had characterized her history during his acquaintance, and expressed his deep regret at her proposed removal from our midst. Mrs. Thompson leaves behind her many warm friends who will long remember her zeal in the cause of temperance, and her deep interest in the welfare of the children, and who will be well pleased to hear of her good health and general prosperity away from her native land.

him with a handsome ring with cat's eye setting.

To Mr. Andrew J. Gorman. DEAR SIR,—Your many friends and acquaintances in Amherst have learned with unfeigned regret that you propose very shortly to sever your connection with the Lamy Hotel to accept a similar position of trust in the neighboring city of Moncton. Those of them who have just heard the unexpected news cannot allow the present opportunity to pass without presenting to you this formal expression of their appreciation of your gentlemanly and courteous bearing during the years you have so well filled your present position, and expressing the sincere hope that the success which has attended your efforts to please the patrons of "The Lamy" and your ability to make and retain friends may, and we know they will, continue with you in the new and responsible situation you have been called upon to fill. As some slight token of their good will and sincerity, they desire your acceptance of the accompanying ring adding the hope that while new ties will be formed and new friendships made, the old will not infrequently have a place in your memory.

We are, dear sir, Very sincerely yours, Wm. B. Ganong, C. S. McLeod, C. A. McQueen, L. R. McLaren, J. K. Howard, Jas. R. Sealey, B. C. Munro, Jas. Dalton, J. M. Lusby, T. S. Rogers, F. G. Hall, C. C. Black, J. B. Barnaby, W. G. Dobson, Amos Purdy, J. V. Bourque. Amherst, May 14.

Mr. Gorman, in reply, expressed his regret at leaving the town. He had made many friends here and become attached to the town. He, however, was not going far and would always be glad to see his friends should they at any time be in Moncton. He thanked them kindly for the welcome they had given him that evening.

Editor of The Review: Your correspondent "Observer" evidently wishes to make capital against the Government by criticizing some minor appointments lately made. How different things would be if poor little "Observer" had the recommending of men to the favor of "the powers that be." We are glad to see the Government begin distinguishing between its friends and its enemies, and trust the course now adopted may be continued. "Observer," who has had the loan of a few blue books from somebody—perhaps they were mailed to him, free, from Fredericton by one of the "blind guides and unprophetic nebos,"—in trying to make a point against Justice Woods' appointment, states that no licensee can be a J. P., and then very innocently admits that Mr. Woods is not a licensee. The license inspector can tell anybody who wants to know that Philip Woods, J. P., is not a licensee. While "Observer" and his friends fatten at the Ottawa crib, surely it does seem selfish to every good staunch supporter of the local Government the few favors that come from Fredericton. Mr. Woods could not be made a returning officer or a Q. C., so he had bestowed on him the honorable degree of J. P.

Mr. Bailey will, no doubt, be well prepared to receive and hand over all marriage license fees, as he is a very good temperance man there cannot be much said against him on the liquor license business. Mr. Burns will make an excellent Parish Court Commissioner for Welford and will doubtless sustain his late respected father's reputation for fairness, intelligence and impartiality in the trial of all suits which may come before him. Mr. Robert Brown was a good Commissioner, but having joined the exodus, his place had to be filled. Mr. W. W. Pride and Mr. McCrae will be no dishonor to the bench of magistrates. Many less worthy have been appointed, "Observer" himself may be a J. P. Poor little "Observer" must be hard up for an attack on the Government, he should keep his powder dry until the election comes. He can then, no doubt, make every school house in Kent ring with his fierce denunciations of Blair. Until that time, like Demosthenes, he had better fill his mouth with pebbles, that we may understand what he says when we do hear him. NEXT.

Fords' Mills. Mr. T. MacWilliams, our enterprising young farmer and millowner, has his mill in full operation employing about 16 men.

The rain, the sun, and the south wind are weaving a carpet of green for the old earth down here. The farmers are putting in potatoes and wheat, and should the east wind, our old spring foe, forget to come, farming will be well advanced before June 1st. Arbor day was observed here by the pupils and teacher planting trees and cleaning and leveling school grounds. The trees planted were dedicated as follows: Pine, dedicated by Ernest Cail to the Queen; juniper, Ernest MacWilliams, Gov. Gen.; spruce, Cecil Austen, Lieut. Gov.; cedar, Harrison MacWilliams, Board of Education; maple, Mary Cail, Chief Sup't; hemlock, Fred McWilliams, Rev. Mr. Warman; white birch, Alma Thompson, Rev. Mr. MacLeod; willow, Gussie McWilliams, Rev. Mr. Wigham; poplar, Emily Cail, Trustees; cedar, Mary Carruthers, Sir John A. MacDonald; birch, Agnes Cail, Dr. Keith; haccataca, Frank MacWilliams, Dr. Leger, M. P.; hemlock, Lizzie Cail, Inspector; maple, Teacher, Canada; poplar, Mina Pyne, Teacher and wife. CORRES.

Election Card! To the Electors of the County of Kent, GENTLEMEN:—O. J. LeBlanc, M. P. P., having accepted a nomination for the late election for the Commons, his seat in the House of Assembly has thereby become vacant and you will soon be again called upon to elect a member to represent you at Fredericton.

The large vote (1203) which I received at the election in January, 1890, (when I was comparatively unknown in some sections of the County) with the solicitations and encouragements I have lately had from a very large number of you, induce me to again offer you my services. I have since that election continued to represent my own parish (St. Marys) at the Municipal Board, and have been honoured with an unanimous election as Warden of the Council, I have therefore become more intimately acquainted with the business and people of the County, and have confidence that I can faithfully serve your interests in the higher position to which I aspire.

If honored with a majority of your votes my chief aim will be to advance the interests of my native County, and for this purpose I will be prepared to favor all legislation, no matter by whom introduced which in my judgment may tend in the direction.

Your local wants with reference to roads and bridges shall not be overlooked by me, and I will do my utmost to secure for Kent a fair share of public money. I therefore solicit the active support of all who so generously assisted me in my former contest, as well as all others who are are now willing to trust the representation of the County in my hands.

I will endeavor to make a thorough canvass of the County, and trust to have the pleasure of explaining my views to a large number of the electors. Again soliciting your votes and support I am, gentlemen, Your obedient servant, JOHN B. GOGAIN. St. Mary's March 10, 1891.
