A Great Sale.
One of the leading establishments of Moncton, Messrs. Fair & Co., announce in our advertising columns a great clearance sale of their entire stock of dry goods, shoes, etc., from which branches they propose retiring, preparatory to engaging in the wholesale business. The sale has been in progress only a few weeks and has been attended by a great rush of buyers. The firm being anxious to unload the stock as speedily as possible promise exceptional bargains to cash buyers. The stock to be disposed of is estimated to be fifteen thousand dollars in value.

Wellwood-McDermott
Sydney, C. B., July 8th.—A very pretty wedding took place this morning in the church of the Sacred Heart, when Mr. A. E. Wellwood, of the I. C. R., and Miss Minnie McDermott, of Welford, N. B., were united in wedlock. The church was handsomely decorated for the occasion, and music was furnished by the choir under the leadership of M. K. McDonald. The ceremony took place at 10 o'clock, long before that hour the church was crowded with people eager to catch a glimpse of the bride. Before the echo of the town clock striking ten died away, the great doors swung open and the bridal party passed up the aisle and took their places at the altar. The impressive marriage services were read by Rev. Father Quinn.

The bride wore a handsome suit of heliotrope and white satin, veil and orange blossoms. She was attended by Miss Ella Wellwood, who was prettily dressed in cream chaille and white lace. D. L. McDonald, of Halifax, acted as groomsmen. After the ceremony the party drove to the McLellan House, where the wedding feast was served, immediately after which Mr. and Mrs. Wellwood, accompanied by Miss Wellwood, left by steamer for Halifax and southern Nova Scotia, where they will spend a few weeks.

Mr. Wellwood is a native of N. B., and during his short stay in Sydney has gained a host of friends, who extend to him and his bride their warmest congratulations and best wishes for their future happiness.

LOGGIE & CO.

The Yatisi Corset, owing to the peculiar diagonal elasticity of the cloth will fit the wearer perfectly the first time worn, no matter what her style of form is—either long or short waisted.

The Yatisi Corset does not stretch at the waist, requires no breaking in, fits comfortably the first time worn. As it gives to every motion of the wearer it will out-last any of the old style rigid Corsets.

The Yatisi Corset is made of the best materials, and being elastic (without rubber or springs) is invaluable for invalids, as it cannot compress the vital parts of the body. They are recommended by the most celebrated physicians in all the leading cities.

The Yatisi Corset is the only one that the purchaser can wear ten days and then return and have the money refunded if not found to be the most perfect fitting, healthful and comfortable Corset ever worn.

Sent to any address on receipt of price, $1.25.

SUGGESTS.

—The Inch Arran is open and is crowded with guests from all parts of the world.

—A quantity of correspondence and other matter crowded out of this issue.

—Hon. Michal Adams, M. P., made his maiden speech in the House of Commons on Dominion day.

—Cholera morbus and diarrhoea yield to Johnson's Anodyne Liniment taken often internally.

—The Municipal Council of the County of Kent will meet for despatch of business on Tuesday next.

—A Chinaman in San Francisco bought a wife on time and has got himself into trouble by failing to pay the bill.

—Isaac Babineau had one of his fingers severed by the haul-up chain in McLeod's mill, at Kouchibouguac, last week.

—Philip Woods, Esq., proprietor of the Kent Hotel, took the telephone men for an outing to Buctouche on Sunday.

—R. P. Doherty, D. D. S., is now making the July trip through Kent. Dates for the different places can be found in advertising columns.

—Joseph Laper, a negro 107 years old, gave as a reason for trying to hang himself the other day that he had given up a hope of dying in the natural way.

—Miss Myra Power while entering Mr. Geo. V. McInerney's barn on Saturday slipped on the doorstep and broke her arm. Dr. Bourque dressed the fracture.

—Mackerel are reported to be more plentiful this season than for many years. It is said that upwards of ten thousand were brought into Buctouche the other day.

—The following "bull" culled from the speech of an American stump orator, would be hard to beat: "Whenever we look back upon the untrodden path of the future, we see everywhere the footprints of an Almighty hand!"

—Mr. James Flanagan's many friends in this section were pleased to learn that his talented young daughters—Zephy and May—were so successful in carrying off the honors they did at the recent Memramcook closing exercises.

—Father Richard's carding and grist mill at St. Charles was totally destroyed by fire on Monday morning. The fire was started by some matches igniting the wool while going through the carding machine. The matches had been accidentally dropped in the wool by some person. No insurance.

—The New Brunswick members, says the Sun, have all signed a memorial to the ministry recommending that branch railways, connected with the Intercolonial, be acquired or leased and operated with the main line, where this can be done on terms advantageous to the Government. No doubt this matter will receive serious attention.

—A Fredericton despatch says:—"Albert S. Brewer, Alfred Haines and R. R. Call, the arbitrators appointed by the Local Government on the claim of James Robinson and John O'Brien, of Northumberland, for old extras on the Miramichi bridge, have awarded Robinson and O'Brien $8,600 and interest from 1887, making in all over $10,000. This is the fruit of the Northumberland deal, and is regarded as a forerunner of the Kent election."

—The anniversary of the Brockton, Mass., Central Labor Union, which took place some time since, was an event looked forward to for some time, and Messrs. William A. Martin, William S. Bamford, Neil Currie and Charles A. Blandin the committee who had charge of the affair and reception of guests, deserve the greatest credit for their efforts, for the celebration was one that will not soon be forgotten, says a local paper. Mr. Neil Currie is a Kent County boy and THE REVIEW is glad to see him coming to the front.

—We take the following from a Brockton, Mass., paper of recent date. The following officers were elected at the meeting of the Sons and Daughters of the Maritime Provinces, at Ryder's Hall, last evening. They will be installed at the next meeting. Neil Currie, president; R. D. McNeil, vice president; F. E. Richardson, chaplain; Sadie Carroll, financial secretary; May Gillis, inside inside guard. One candidate was initiated. There will be a series of dialogues under the direction of Neil Currie, at the next meeting.

—The funeral of the late Rev. Father Harnett, of St. Anne, took place at Kingston, on Friday at ten o'clock. There was a large attendance, the church being crowded to overflowing, and the cortege from the residence of the church was large. Rev. Father Richard, of Rogersville, sang mass; Rev. Father Meahan, of Moncton officiated as deacon, and Rev. Father Langlais as sub-deacon. Rev. Father Meahan spoke briefly and eloquently of the deceased and his many virtues, and paid a tribute to the kindness of the people of St. Anne to their priest during his illness. Among the clergy present at the obsequies were Rev. Fathers Pelletier, of St. Louis; Legere, of Fox Creek; Michaud, of Buctouche; Cormier, of Cocagne; Ouellette, of St. Mary's; Ouellette, of Notre Dame; Bannon, of Richibucto; Hudon, of Richibucto Village.
