THE WORLD OVER.

George Francis Train has started on another trip around the world, which he proposes to complete in 55 days.

The clergy of Montreal, both Protestant and Roman Catholic, are moving against Sunday amusements.

Women who are fond of chewing gum should remember that the habit is sure to give an ugly twist to the mouth.

It is stated that during the past twenty years the late Mr. Barnum expended upward of $3,000,000 in newspaper advertisements.

The Swedish barque "Hilgo" has been wrecked at Renous Island, Nfld. The crew of fourteen, with the exception of one man, perished.

H. A. Archibald, of Hastings, N. S., recently refused an offer of $650 for a colt but six months old. The colt is from the best stock in the province.

Reports received from all parts of England show that the epidemic of influenza is still spreading. There are many cases of the disease in London.

A demand of assignment has been made upon Smith, Wade & Co., Quebec. Local banks are the principal creditors, and the liabilities will reach $600,000.

During the 49 years of his life the Prince of Wales has drawn $16,500,000 from the public treasury of Great Britain, and his debts, it is said, now amount to $8,000,000.

A tramp was fined $10 for being drunk at La Porte City, Iowa, the other day, pulled off his boots, and taking the money from a lot of greenbacks hidden there paid the fine.

A magistrate at Watkinsonville, Ga., received four silver dimes as a marriage fee last week. The bridegroom a youth of 18, said it was all he could afford. The bride was a widow of 40.

Two boys at Prairie du Chine, Wis., died a few days ago from excessive cigarette smoking. A post-mortem examination showed the presence of phosphorus, together with nicotine of the arsenical solution used in preparing wrappers.

John E. Owens, of Parkersburg, Iowa, on Thursday, purchased from H. L. and F. D. Stout the chestnut trotting colt Eolian, five weeks old, by Nutwood out of Alpha, paying $7,500. This is said to be the highest price ever paid for so young a colt.

George Kreamer's fireworks factory at Morrisania, N. Y., was burned on Saturday, an explosion of powder starting the fire. Four employes were burned to death in sight of the crowd assembled to watch the fire.

George Kreamer the proprietor was horribly burned, and it is feared, will die.

Miss Tressa Earing, of Trout Creek, Ont., undertook to take a lunch to her brother in the sugar-bush. Her long absence caused her father to follow, and he found her lying on the road in a shallow pool of water quite dead. It is supposed she fainted and fell forward on her face into the water.

A lady employed in the Tiffany jewelry house receives a salary of $2,500 for designing watch cases and lozenges, which are submitted to critical buyers. This young woman was a green country girl living on a farm up in the hills of Massachusetts ten years ago.

The late James Redpath believed himself the first person to put the verb "to boycott" in print. One night during one of his visits to Ireland, he sat writing a despatch to a New York paper, when suddenly he found himself at a loss for a word to express what was then happening to Captain Boycott. "Use Boycott's name as a verb," said a priest at his elbow and Redpath accepted the suggestion.

Judge Robinson, of Astoria, Ore., refused to naturalize five Italians a few days ago. They had first papers issued in New York in 1883. As they knew nothing of the constitution of the United States, the judge asked them if a war should arise between that nation and Italy if they would support the United States. After a conference the Italians declined to answer.

The priests and pastors of Moscow are overwhelmed with requests from Jews for baptism in order to avoid expulsion. The law prevents such conversions, except in the case of Lutherans and Catholics, and then permits conversions only in limited numbers. The flight of Jews continues. The expelled Jews are cruelly treated, being marched out of the city afoot chained in bands by the wrists. The Russians afterward pillage the shops and houses.

The late Hiram Hunt, of Robinson, Me., whose interment took place a few days ago, is said to have been the original "clock-maker" of "Sam Slick." Mr. Hunt, it is said, was selling clocks in Nova Scotia when he came under the notice of Judge Haliburton. He never cared for the notoriety which the Judge's book gave him, and disliked any allusion to it in his presence, we are told. Mr. Hunt was between 80 and 90 years of age when he died. He was a singularly smart man, and for many years was a prominent business man on the Maine side of the St. Croix.

THE REVIEW

THE AMERICAN FARMER, One year to one address for only One Dollar!

Two Papers for the Price of One. This extraordinary offer will only hold good for a short time.

'Kingstone!' Should sufficient patronage be offered, the trotting bred stallion "Kingstone" will be held for the service of good roading mares at "The Cedars," Kingston, from each Saturday at noon till Monday noon during the season, and at other places at stated times where his services may be required, which places will be hereafter made known through circulars.

"Kingstone" is sired by "Rysdyke (653)" and he by the founder of the great Hamiltonian family, viz., "Rysdyke's Hamiliton (10)"; "Rysdyke" the sire of "Kingstone" has six of his get in the 2.30 list, including "Clingstone" 2.14, nicknamed "The Demon" on account of his bull dog determination displayed in his several hard contested races. "Kingstone's" dam "Duchess of Kent" was by the imported thorough-bred "Aracan" and her eighteen years' service over all kinds of roads proved her a superior roadster.

Coupled with the right kind of mares the get of "Kingstone" should show a fair percentage of fast trotters, while all should be superior roadsters, having a sufficient amount of the stamina and fine bone of the thorough-bred, as he, "Kingstone," is half thorough-bred, sire and dam being each half.

Service fee $10.00 for the season, or $5 for single service. Be it known to all who it may concern "Life is too short to be spent in going to too or market behind an ox or mule team."

I. W. DOHERTY. "The Cedars," Kingston, April 20, 1891.

PEDIGREE

OF Trotting Stallion MYSTERIOUS STRANGER.

Foaled July, 1885, dappled brown and weighs 1175 lbs., stands 16 hands high. Sired by the noted stallion King Bird Jr., (better known as Call's King Bird); he by the imported King Bird; he by Winthrop Bush Messenger. Dam of Stranger was the noted Christopher mare; she by Morning Star; he by Old Saladin, an imported English thoroughbred. This horse's grand dam on both sides is Saladin. A glance at the above pedigree will convince anyone that breeding from this horse will insure a trotter almost every time. John McMannus, of Memramcook, owns one of his get for which he refused the neat sum of two hundred dollars when one year old, being the only one of his get in New Brunswick.

WILLIAM CLARK, Manager and owner.

Entire Horse MERIDIAN.

This celebrated trotting stallion (weight 1180; color, brown) was foaled in 1882. Sire Satellite, by Robert Bonner, by Hambletonian, Abdallah, by Mambrino, son of Imported Messenger. Meridian's dam, Belle Bashaw, by Long Island Bashaw, by Hawk Eye, by Long Island Black Hawk, by Andrew Jackson, by Young Bashaw, by imported Grand Bashaw. Will travel through the counties of Kent and Northumberland during the season of 1891.
