THE WORLD OVER.

A commercial traveller of Amherst who became infatuated with a servant girl, has left the country, and his family in destitute circumstances.

At Point la Priddy colliery, near Lan-wit, Wales, Friday, the firing of a shot in the mine brought down a portion of the roof, killing ten men and fatally injuring a number of others.

On Friday the body of Robert Turber, aged 60, an ex-soldier, was found floating in Halifax harbor. He was seen earlier in the day, and it is supposed he fell off a wharf.

Probably the oldest marriage ever celebrated in Fredericton was solemnized Wednesday evening by Rev. J. Shenton.
The parties were Samuel Kitchen of Carleton Co., and widow Howell of that city.
The groom is seventy-five and his bride is entering on her seventy-seventh summer.

A cat in a Kentville drug store Sunday night got herself into a serious scrape.
There were some trout flies hanging in window, and her catship while sampling them got herself suspended, in which position she was found in the morning. The window trimmings were sadly disordered.

Advises from Zanzibar state that on the northern shore of Lake Tanganyika only ruined villages and the corpses of natives half devoured by wild beasts are left to attest to the raids made by Arab slave dealers. A peaceful population of 10,000 persons had succumbed to the barbarous cruelties of Arabs or fled to the forests.

For several years past a gentleman in Nashua, N. H., has been in the habit of taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla to tone up his system preparatory to the heated term.
He finds that this medicine relieves the tired feeling so prevalent during spring and early summer.

A terrible case of suicide is reported from near the village of Cainsville, Ont.
David Irvine, an aged farm laborer, was told by his employer, Mr. D. Whiting, to go back to the house as he was too old to do hard work in the fields. The remark seemed to prey upon Irvine's mind, for when next discovered he was seated in a chair in the barn, having hacked away at both arms with a knife until he had lled to death. Deceased was 75 years old. He had always received the utmost kindness from his employer, and it is supposed that thinking himself of no further use, he took this horrible means of ending his existence.

Slight derangements of the stomach and bowels may often be corrected by taking only one of Ayer's Pills. Through not having the Pills at hand, your disorder increases, and a regular fit of sickness follows. "For the want of a nail the shoe was lost," etc.

An elephant, being unwell, was given some whiskey while passing through Lis-burn for Belfast. Immediately the animal broke loose and ran about in all directions.

ferent counties in Ireland. Then crossing into Scotland we have a good look at its most beautiful features, continuing through Europe to Rome, our homeward journey, passing Marseilles in the Mediterranean and Gibraltar, whence we sail across the Atlantic to our home on the shores of the broad Dominion. In all two hours of most enjoyable travel. The story will be told by Mr. L. O. Armstrong.
Admission 25 and 35 cents.

lar, illustrated magazine, the AMERICAN FARMER, published at Cleveland, Ohio, and read by farmers in all parts of the U.
S. and Canada, by which that great publication will be mailed direct, FREE, to the address of any of our subscribers who will pay up all arrears on subscriptions and one year in advance from date, and to any new subscribers who will pay one year in advance. This is a grand opportunity to obtain a first-class farm journal free. The AMERICAN FARMER is a 16-page illustrated journal, of national circulation, which ranks among the leading agricultural papers. Its highest purpose is the elevation and ennobling of Agriculture through the higher and broader education of men and women engaged in its pursuits.
The regular subscription price of the AMERICAN FARMER is $1.00 per year.
IT COSTS YOU NOTHING. From any one number ideas can be obtained that will be worth thrice the subscription to you or members of your household

"Kingstone!"

Should sufficient patronage be offered, the trotting bred stallion "Kingstone" will be held for the service of good roading mares at "The Cedars," Kingston, from each Saturday at noon till Monday noon during the season, and at other places at stated times where his services may be required, which places will be hereafter made known through circulars.
"Kingstone" is sired by "Rysdyke (653)" and he by the founder of the great Hamiltonian family, viz. "Rysdyke's Hamilton (10)"; "Rysdyke" the sire of "Kings-stone" has six of his get in the 2,30 list, including "Clingstone" 2,14, nicknamed "The Demon" on account of his bull dog determination displayed in his several hard contested races. "Kingstone's" dam "Duchess of Kent" was by the imported thorough-bred "Aracan" and her eighteen years' service over all kinds of roads proved her a superior roadster.

Coupled with the right kind of mares the get of "Kingstone" should show a fair percentage of fast trotters, while all should be superior roadsters, having a sufficient amount of the stamina and fine bone of the thorough-bred, as he, "King-stone," is half thorough-bred, sire and dam being each half.

Service fee $10.00 for the season, or $5 for single service. Be it known to all who it may concern "Life is too short to be spent in going to mill or market behind an ox or mule team."
I. W. DOHERTY.
"The Cedars," Kingston, April 20, 1891.

PEDIGREE
—OF—
Trotting Stallion
MYSTERIOUS
STRANGER.

Foaled July, 1885, dappled brown and weighs 1175 lbs., stands 16 hands high.
Sired by the noted stallion King Bird Jr., (better known as Call's King Bird); he by the imported King Bird; he by Winthrop Bush Messenger. Dam of Stranger was the noted Christopher mare; she by Morning Star; he by Old Aladin, an imported thorough-bred. This horse's grand dam on both sides is Sala-din. A glance at the above pedigree will convince anyone that breeding from this horse will insure a trotter almost every time. John McManus, of Memramcook, owns one of his get for which he refused the neat sum of two hundred dollars when one year old, being the only one of his get in New Brunswick.
