The most complicated watches, clocks, and jewellery repaired and guaranteed.
W. R. GOULD, Chatham.

Rare Generosity.
A St. John architect is preparing plans for a second Methodist church in Moncton, which it is reported is to be constructed and furnished with a pipe organ by Mr. Geo. R. Sangster at his sole expense. Mr. Sangster donated $500 to the new Y. M. C. A. building.

Singular Death.
Mr. James Glendenning, of Shediac, died some days ago of a stomach derangement which the doctors could not understand. A post-mortem examination was held and the cause was discovered to be the pit ova plum, which had become imbedded in the tissues of the stomach.

Strange Accident.
A sad accident occurred on Monday at the house of George Gorham at the lower end of Butternut Ridge. A young lad named Long, thirteen years of age, a son of John Long, of the Rapids, Queens county was strangled to death in a peculiar way. Mr. Gorham had been away and came home just before dark. He lifted a clothes line in the yard with a pole to drive his team under, and after putting his team up went into the house. After a time the lad was missed, and a search was instituted; he was found in the yard dead, sitting on the ground with the clothes line twisted about his neck. Dr. Price said he thought it was possible the boy had been playing with the rope and his foot had slipped on the ice, and the sudden tightening of the rope about his wind pipe had cut off his breath and killed him instantly.—Sussex Record.

The April number of the Canadian Live Stock and Farm Journal (published by the J. E. Bryant Co., Ltd., 58 Bay street, Toronto) is profusely illustrated. Murietta, Esq., Wadhurst, Eng.; an engraving of the grand Clydesdale stallion "Energy" is also given, as well as portraits of Mr. R. Miller, Jr., president of the Dominion Sheepbreeders Association, and Mr. Wm. Smith, president of the Canadian Clydesdale Association. The report of the late Provincial Stallion Show is given at full length, and the several articles on the care and breeding of horses, cattle, and swine, especially appropriate to the season, should be read by all farmers.

Obituary.
George R. Bailey, who died at his residence, at Weldford, April 1st of congestion of the brain, was thirty-two years of age, and leaves a wife and three children together with a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their deplorable loss. George R. Bailey was a man who will be greatly missed both in religious and social circles; his death has cast a gloom over the entire community. His illness was of short duration, which he bore with calm resignation to the will of God, whom he served with true Christian love and obedience, ever looking unto his Heavenly home, and when told by his kind physician that he could not possibly recover, he replied in the same calm manner in which he lived that if it was the will of God to take him he was willing to go and be with Christ; then turning to his devoted wife and children kissed them all good-bye together with his mother, sister and other relatives who were around his bed and after lingering a few hours passed to his heavenly home. His remains were interred in the Weldford burying ground, beside those of his little daughter who died in April, 1890.—Com.

The 15 year old son of Philip Riddell, a printer in the Halifax Herald office, shot himself dead Saturday morning in bed. He had bought a revolver the night before with eight cartridges and loaded one of the chambers. He took the weapon to bed with him, and in the morning about 6 o'clock awakened up and was joyfully examining it. He seemed to have forgotten about the loaded chamber, for the poor boy pulled the trigger and sent a bullet crashing into his brain.

THE WORLD OVER.

Messrs. McKelvey and McNulty of St. John, recently shipped sixty anchors to Vancouver, B. C.
Three voters travelled all the way from California to Kingston to vote for the Grand Old Man.

Many people who pride themselves on their blue blood would be far happier with pure blood; but, while we cannot choose our ancestors, fortunately by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, we can transmit pure blood to our posterity.—Adv't.

Ballington Booth, the Salvationist, on Sunday, in Baltimore, said he had been through the New York slums disguised as a ruffian. They would soon equal the worst parts of "Darkest England."

The C. P. R. has completed an arrangement by which it gains an entry into New York, the New York Central agreeing to give the C. P. R. the use of its road for freight and passenger trains.

MRS. ROBINSON, Hopewell Corner, writes: Dear Sir, I have used your British Liniment for one year, and must say it surpasses all the Liniments I have ever used for Sore Throat, Lame Back, Pains in the Side, and all complaints for which a Liniment is needed. I had a pain in my side so bad that I had to give up work. I gave my side a good bathing with your Liniment and it gave me immediate relief so that in twenty minutes I was able to go about my work.
