The Jewish Exodus.

PARIS, May 27.—Baron Hirsch, in an interview to-day in regard to his plans for the amelioration of the condition of the Hebrews in Russia, said:

"The measures now enforced against the Hebrews in Russia are equivalent to a wholesale expulsion of the race from the Russian empire. The fact does not appear to me to be altogether a misfortune, for the worst thing that could happen the Russian Hebrews would be to continue for an indefinite period the wretched existence which they have hitherto led.

"The only means of improving their condition is to transport them to other countries, where they may enjoy the same rights as the people among whom they live. While we are filled with horror at the atrocities committed, let us hope to derive from them some advantage for the unfortunate victims of oppression and facilitate their expatriation which is their only means of salvation.

"The Russian government is persuaded that the Hebrews ought not to be tolerated within the limits of the empire, and that their presence there is literally a desecration of the soil of that country. This conviction does not arise merely from antipathies, but is based on religious belief.

"The treatment which the Hebrews of Russia are now subjected to is such as to excite the indignant reprobation of the entire civilized world. People against whom there is no shadow of reproach have been aroused from their beds at night, and have been driven with whips from their dwellings, loaded with chains and plunged into the deepest misery. Women, girls and children have been expelled from their homes and compelled to wander for days and nights in cemeteries, famishing for want of food and exposed to all the inclemency of the Russian climate. Hebrew women have given birth to children while lying in open fields, and have there died from exposure and the want of medical attendance.

"There are two ways of alleviating the miserable lot of the Russian Hebrews.

"The first is to acquit the Czar with the truth in regard to the cruelties which are perpetrated daily in his country and in his name. If the Czar was fully aware of the facts in connection with the treatment which his Hebrew subjects are forced to endure, I am certain he would not hesitate to stop the barbarity complained of, and while maintaining, if necessary, the government's policy in regard to the expulsion of the Hebrews, he would order the application of this policy to be made in both a humane and a gradual manner.

"Secondly, some order and method should be established in the expatriation of the Hebrews from Russia. If the Russian government wants to get rid of 5,000,000 Hebrews let it allow many people, who, like myself, are prepared to make the greatest sacrifice in their behalf, to save them from the privations, hardships, discomforts and sickness which naturally attend wholesale and disorganized expulsion.

"Otherwise it is impossible to get rid of the Hebrews without slaughtering them. Perhaps the Czar, who, with religious zeal, combines a sincere spirit of integrity and justice, will take the initiative in granting the Hebrews time to gradually and quietly leave the Russian empire and seek their fortunes in distant countries, where they will be more welcome than they are in Russia.

"For instance, as a suggestion only, let the period of, say, 20 years be fixed upon as the time in which all Hebrews must leave Russia, and let it be determined that a certain number of Hebrews must leave that country annually. But, on the other hand let the Russian Hebrews be left in peaceful possession of their present homes until the hour fixed upon for their departure for other lands. If the Czar would order the adoption of these or similar measures, those who are interested in the Hebrews will provide the funds necessary to convey the annual batch of expelled emigrants to countries where they can find new homes."

Letter from Mrs. John Thompson to her Friends in Richibucto.

To the Ladies of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, to the Division of the Sons of Temperance, to the children of the Loyal Temperance Legion, and to all my dear friends in Richibucto.

Through the medium of THE REVIEW and the kindness of its gentlemanly proprietors, I take this means for returning you my gratitude for the numerous expressions of kindness so cordially extended to me in the meetings of these societies, in your offices and homes, on the streets, and at the railway station just before leaving my native town.

I shall ever remember your kind words, sisters of the W. C. T. Union. They will stimulate me to greater efforts in the future. I trust we will all remember the obligations and responsibilities we are under with regard to the training of the youth committed to our charge, you, in Richibucto, I, where my lot may be cast. I am conscious that discouragements meet you on every hand, but don't give up, "the greater the cross, the brighter the crown."

To you, members of the Sons of Temperance, I will not soon forget your parting words of appreciation and good will at the fraternal meeting of your Division a few nights before I left. You have a noble work to do. May you prove workmen worthy of the cause in which you are engaged, and may God bless and prosper you in all your good deliberations.

I thank you, children of the Loyal Temperance Legion, for the acts of kindness you have manifested in my behalf on different occasions. I will remember you through all the changing scenes of life, and I want you not to forget yourselves. I would say with the poet

"To thine own self be true;
And it must follow as the day the night,
Thou canst not then be false to any man."

Dare to do right! Dare to be true! This great world will soon be entrusted to the keeping of the boys and girls of to-day, so gird on the armor, prepare for the conflict and victory must be yours.

To all my dear friends in Richibucto I tender the free-will offerings of a thankful heart. I will to the close of life remember you for your deeds of kindness and acts of love, and let all remember that

"Little deeds of kindness,
Little acts of love,
Makes this earth an Eden
Like the Eden above."

Now I must say farewell. May God be with you till we meet again, is the prayer of your friend,

MRS. JOHN THOMPSON.

"Kingstone!"

Should sufficient patronage be offered, the trotting bred stallion "Kingstone" will be held for the service of good roading mares at "The Cedars," Kingston, from each Saturday at noon till Monday noon during the season, and at other places at stated times where his services may be required, which places will be hereafter made known through circulars.

"Kingstone" is sired by "Rysdyke (653)" and he by the founder of the great Hamiltonian family, viz., "Rysdyke's Hamiltion (10)"; "Rysdyke" the sire of "Kingstone" has six of his get in the 2.30 list, including "Clingstone" 2.14, nicknamed "The Demon" on account of his bull dog determination displayed in his several hard contested races. "Kingstone's" dam "Duchess of Kent" was by the imported thorough-bred "Aracan" and her eighteen years' service over all kinds of roads proved her a superior roadster.

Coupled with the right kind of mares the get of "Kingstone" should show a fair percentage of fast trotters, while all should be superior roadsters, having a sufficient amount of the stamina and fine bone of the thorough-bred, as he, "Kingstone," is half thorough-bred, sire and dam being each half.

Service fee $10.00 for the season, or $5 for single service. Be it known to all who it may concern "Life is too short to be spent in going to mill or market behind an ox or mule team."

PEDIGREE

—OF—

Trotting Stallion

MYSTERIOUS

STRANGER.

Foaled July, 1885, dappled brown and weighs 1175 lbs., stands 16 hands high. Sired by the noted stallion King Bird Jr., (better known as Call's King Bird); he by the imported King Bird; he by Winthrop Bush Messenger. Dam of Stranger was the noted Christopher mare; she by Morning Star; he by Old Saladin, an imported English thoroughbred. This horse's grand dam on both sides is Saladin. A glance at the above pedigree will convince anyone that breeding from this horse will insure a trotter almost every time. John McMannus, of Memramcook, owns one of his get for which he refused the neat sum of two hundred dollars when one year old, being the only one of his get in New Brunswick.

WILLIAM CLARK,
Manager and owner.

Entire Horse

MERIDIAN.

Registered in 5th Volume Wallace's American Trotting Register.

This celebrated trotting stallion (weight 1180; color, brown) was foaled in 1882. Sire Satellite, by Robert Bonner, by Hambletonian, Abdallah, by Mambrino, son of Imported Messenger. Meridian's dam, Belle Bashaw, by Long Island Bashaw, by Hawk Eye, by Long Island Black Hawk, by Andrew Jackson, by Young Bashaw, by imported Grand Bashaw. Will travel through the counties of Kent and Northumberland during the season of 1891.

Terms for season, $10.
