

LOCAL & GENERAL.

A Remarkable Case.

Three weeks ago while some boys at Middle Island, Main River, were playing on the ice, a lad named Percy Ellis, son of Mr. Edward Ellis, received a blow of a boat-hook on the head, the point entering the skull near the crown. The boat-hook was in the hands of a boy named McAuley who thought merely to frighten him. The lad fell senseless from the stroke and was removed to his home where the wound was dressed as well as possible. Next day Dr. Olloqui was sent for and upon examination discovered that the point had entered the brain to the distance of two inches and the brain oozing out of the fracture. The doctor probed the wound and extracted portions of fur from the lad's cap. It was thought at first that the boy could not recover, but under the doctor's skillful treatment he will come around all right. The lad's right arm is paralyzed from the effects of the stroke, but this, too, seems to be improv-

Kingston Notes.

The smelt fishing is at an end and few regret it. A poor season's work has been done, the fish being scarce and the price low, combined to make a poor season for the fishermen.

A large number of mud-diggers are already at work upon the river, employing a good many men and horses.

There are a great many idle men here at present. I think a good many of them are learning to make shoes.

I see C. C. C. here. His appointment to the office of returning officer seems to give general satisfaction.

Mr. Nathaniel Hutchinson, who has been seriously ill, is able to be about again.

Mr. James Porteous is also recovering. Still a large proportion of the inhabitants are sick with a disease resembling "grip."

I have not heard of the wedding for which the small boys have been making extensive preparations. Their preparations for the charivari may be in vain after all.

MEETINGS.

Lodge St. Andrew, No. 16, F. & A. M., meets Monday on or after full moon, in Masonic hall.

Richibucto Division, No. 42, S. of T., meets Wednesday evening in the Temperance hall.

The W. C. T. U. meets the first Wednesday in every month, at 3 p. m., at the President's, Mrs. John Thompson's.

Rev. F. A. Wightman will preach on Sabbath, 25th inst., as follows:—Methodist church, Mill Branch, 10.30; Welford, 6.30.

On Saturday evening next Rev. J. Seller will preach (roads permitting) at Pine Ridge, and on Sabbath at West Branch, 10.30; Kingston, 3; Richibucto, 7. Rev. Wm. Tennant on Friday evening at Smith's Mills, Saturday evening at Cocagne, and on Sabbath at Coatesville 10.30; Little River, 3; Buctouche, 7.

Political Notes.

Hon. Edward Blake has declined the nomination to represent East Durham in the Commons and, in a letter to his constituents, says he has determined to retire from political life.

Mr. Geo. F. Baird has accepted the Conservative nomination of Queens.

Col. Domville has accepted the Liberal nomination of Kings, and Hon. Peter Mitchell will be the Liberal standard bearer in Northumberland.

A political meeting will be held on Saturday next at Kingston for the purpose of talking over the situation in Kent.

It is sad to see a man like the Hon. Peter Mitchell, who has done so much for Northumberland, in this contest with the entire local press opposed to him. Did unrestricted reciprocity do it?

The St. John Liberal candidates are C. W. Weldon, J. V. Ellis and Thos. A. Rankine. Mr. Rankine is a new man in politics.

K. F. Burns' election in Gloucester is looked upon as sure. He will arrive home about the 21st.

The motto of Mr. Sayre's political friends this time is, "No surrender."

Mr. Mitchell has been tendered the Liberal nomination of Restigouche, but declined preferring to fight it out on his old battle ground.

Hon. O. J. LeBlanc is considering the advisability of trying conclusions with Dr. Leger.

There are many electors in Kent who would like to see Dr. Leger returned by acclamation owing to the peculiar circumstances surrounding his case.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Freeman of Richibucto is visiting Miss Florie Whalen and friends here.—Sussex Record.

E. B. Buckerfield, Welford, returned home last week.

We regret to state that Miss Maggie Wellwood, Welford, is very sick with inflammation of the lungs.

Henry W. Atkinson, son of Robert Atkinson, of Welford, is slowly recovering from a severe attack of illness.

Cocagne Items.

Dr. Leger has thus far been the first candidate to appear upon the scene and addressed the electorate of this parish here on the evening of the 13th inst. The Dr. dwelt at length and in an able manner with some of the leading questions of the day and will undoubtedly poll a large vote in this section.

Mr. C. J. Sayre remained here over night both while en route to and returning from Dorchester.

Mr. Fred Hebert has taken the contract for building a bridge over the Johnson Brook that lies midway between the Buctouche Portage and town.

The political atmosphere here as in other places is becoming greatly agitated. Our village statesmen, "a noisy gang," hold nightly meetings at "Dominicks," and while the followers of the "Grand Old Man" are numerically stronger than those of "Wilfred" yet the latter gets continued by dint of strong argument and "true grit to present a bold front. Cocagne would be a comparatively insignificant place indeed were it not for the "gritty element" of its composition, and small the place really is when we consider there is but a nice horse load of the "fault finders" all told. Of course, like "Browns cows," they all go to church in the "same sleigh," but the poor fellows were truly to be pitied when they got so lachrymose while leaving church last Sunday—well, the girls all laughed—they laughed too—but I must bring my letter to a close reminding them that this was not "upsetting the government." DIXIE.

The Ontario government has decided on issuing a proclamation offering a reward of $1,000 for information which may lead to the discovery and conviction of the murderer of John Heslop late clerk of the township of Ancaster, application will also be made to the Dominion to proclaim a full pardon to any party who should turn Queen's evidence other than the actual murderer.

The Governor General has made a demand on Mexico for the extradition of Jas N. Henry, of Chatham, Ont., now under arrest in the City of Mexico. Henry is wanted for defrauding the Bank of Montreal out of $20,000.

—A merry party, consisting of Miss Macmichael, of West Branch, Miss Swetman, of Mortimore, Messrs. John and Alexander Macmichael, of West Branch, and John G. Pride, of Welford Station, and others, was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Morton at Kent Junction on Monday evening.

—A REVIEW representative recently accepted an invitation from Mr. J. Y. Mersereau, Chatham's photographic artist, to visit his studio and witness a private exhibition of views of local scenery as thrown on the canvas by a very powerful scopiottion lately imported. The views represented places of interest in Chatham, Newcastle, and other parts of Northumberland County, as well as plans and buildings in Gloucester and Restigouche Counties, and were pronounced by those present to be equal to any imported views ever exhibited in Chatham. It may be stated that Mr. Mersereau manufactures his own views from negatives made mostly by himself. We learn he is shortly to give a public exhibition and we sincerely hope he will receive that liberal patronage his enterprise deserves. He will accept engagements from Sunday schools, temperance societies and others who may be desirous of providing an evening's entertainment having any worthy object in view.

—The American Register describes the store of a "dog modiste" in Paris. The sights were very amusing. The place was not so much a store as an establishment, with halls and rooms richly furnished. Ladies tripped in and out all day long, most of the visitors having with them pugs or terriers. The pet dogs were scattered through the rooms, each awaiting its turn. Many small mats and rugs were around the waxed floors, and every bit of carpeting of the kind was occupied by some pretty little creature. These dogs have various dresses. The robe used in the morning is a garment of dark blue cloth. It is called a paletot, and is lined with red flannel. From a leather collar little bells jingle as its wearer walks along. Sometimes a bunch of violets is fastened on the left shoulder of a dog. On very cold days the pet is clad in sealskin of the same pattern, the collar being in fur, mounted in silver.

The Russian authorities have caused a wholesale expulsion of Jews from Novgorod and its environs.

A young lady in Genesee county, Mich. who has just obtained $1,800 in a breach of promise suit has rewarded the chief witness by marrying him.

A Philadelphia clerk, who is somewhat smarter than his employer, was heard to remark the other day: "Thank Fortune, the boss has stopped advertising for the season. Now we will have a rest."

This is how a music-teacher a short distance from town advertises her instructive capability—"A lady from the dark blue Rhine, fam'd for its bright and sparkling wine, skill'd in sweet music's heavenly art, desires instruction to impart."

John Mitchell, an employe of the railway department at Halifax, met with a frightful death in an elevator Thursday afternoon. The steamer Damara was being loaded with a cargo of grain. Mitchell was engaged oiling three great cog-wheels and was drawn into the machinery, mangled frightfully and instantly killed. He was only married the previous night.

The London World says a battle between homoeopathy and allopathy has raged over the sick bed of Princess Henrietta of Flanders similar to that which occurred at Disraeli's last illness. An eminent homoeopathist was called in consultation the eminent orthodox doctors refused to meet him. A young military doctor was therefore summoned from the country.
