A PROTEST.

A meeting was held at Buctouche last week to consider the question of filing a petition against the return of Mr. McInerney. We do not know what conclusion was arrived at, or what was done at the meeting, but if Mr. LeBlanc and his friends believe that unfair means were used to elect Mr. McInerney, as they allege, the trial of an election petition would afford them an excellent opportunity to investigate the matter and show up the misdoings of Mr. McInerney's supporters. It has been openly charged both from the public platform and through the press, that Mr. McInerney secured his election by means of the grossest fraud. It is alleged that no less than $4000 was spent to elect him; that official ballot-papers were used outside the polls by his friends; that the ballot-papers of illiterate voters were fraudulently and improperly marked by the deputy returning officers; and that all manner of fraud was resorted to by the returning officer and his deputies to secure the election. There is no way in which these charges can be more fully and fairly enquired into than through a judicial investigation before an election judge. It would afford to Mr. McInerney an opportunity, too, to expose the political methods of his opponents. By all means let a petition be filed.

ELECTION ECHOES.

We are informed that on Sunday of last week Mr. LeBlanc addressed the electors of St. Mary at the parish chapel. In the course of his speech he took occasion to inform them that the Acadians had been cheated of a representative, and that the election of Mr. McInerney must be petitioned against. Is Mr. LeBlanc a better Acadian now than he was two years ago when he supported Mr. McInerney against Dr. Legere, or is he now crying out simply because he happens to be the Acadian who has suffered defeat?

It is reported that Mr. Johnson in addressing the Acadians of Buctouche on the Sunday following the election, informed them that the English at Richibucto had insulted the Acadians of the county by flying the French flag below the Union Jack on declaration day. We sincerely trust the report may not be true. Mr. Johnson is a young man and although he has encountered defeat in his first attempt to enter public life he may have occasion to again ask the support of the electors of Kent. He will not improve his prospects by circulating false reports intended to arouse race prejudices.

The gentleman who visited Harcourt on the 6th instant in the interest of Mr. LeBlanc went home that evening a poorer if not a wiser man. It is said he had control of the LeBlanc fund at that poll. During the day he did what he imagined to be some good work, and in the evening before the ballots were counted boasted that he had secured at least forty votes for his favorite in that district. A resident of Harcourt offered to bet him $50.00 that LeBlanc would not get more than half that number of votes at that poll. The bet was promptly accepted. When the ballots were counted and it was learned that LeBlanc had received only 19 votes, a sad and disappointed man wended his way from the polling booth to the hotel. He had not much to say but the few exclamations he let drop would not bear repetition. Nothing annoys a man more than to learn that he has paid for goods which have not been delivered.

This was Mr. McInerney's

seventh contest for dominion and provincial honors, and this is his first election. Mr. McInerney is one of the ablest public speakers in New Brunswick. He is likewise one of the best informed of our public men. In the Commons he will be a credit to New Brunswick, and an ornament to parliament.—Gleaner.

A NEW SCHOOL INSPECTOR.

A telegram from Fredericton announces that Mr. F. B. Meagher, of the Collegiate School in that city, has been appointed school inspector, in the place of Mr. E. L. O'Brien. A petition was in circulation in this county some time ago, praying that Mr. Pius Michaud, of Buctouche be given the appointment. The petition was signed by a large number of our citizens and we understand a reply was received from the attorney-general intimating that Mr. Michaud would receive the appointment. Mr. Michaud is a young man who has lately completed a course at the provincial normal school, and would, we believe, make a competent and efficient inspector. In the bye election here last year, Mr. Blair sought to pose as the friend of the Acadians. Mr. Labllois, in his celebrated circular, told his compatriots that their laws, language, and customs would be in great danger if Mr. Blair were not sustained. Now, when an opportunity is offered the government to do justice to the Acadians by bestowing a school inspectorship on one of their number, they are passed over, and the vacancy is filled by the appointment of an Irishman. Mr. Meagher, is we believe, an excellent teacher and in every way fitted to fulfill the duties of the office. Mr. Michaud is no doubt equally well qualified. It will now be in order for the Cuvier, Evangeline, and the Acadian friends of Mr. Blair in Westmorland to condemn the government for depriving the 60,000 Acadians in the province of a school inspectorship.

Brunswick, Maine.

To the Editor of The Review: Promptly this morning we received your telegram containing the news of George V. McInerney's election to represent Kent in the Commons at Ottawa. Although separated by distance we feel that we are with you in heart and spirit and would rejoice the more if we were present to join you in extending our warmest congratulations to our old friend Mr. McInerney. We have always felt and believed that the day would come when Kent would in such a manner acknowledge the great intellect, political ability and sound judgment of her son whom she has just honored. Her action in bestowing the loftiest position in the political arena on one of her own gifted sons will redound to her credit in years to come, and while our pen is in our hand, we have much pleasure in thanking you Mr. Editor for your generous and manly support of Kent's boy, George V. McInerney; and we dare to express the hope that the record of our Kent boy will be such that, when the people of Kent are called upon to pronounce their verdict on his public actions as your representative, they will more than double his present majority. In forwarding this tribute of our praise to you we believe we are doing no more than justice to our Kent boy, George V. McInerney.

Dec. 7th, 1892.

Harcourt, N. B.

Dec. 19th, 1892.—The unusually mild weather, which has continued so long, has at last given place to something like genuine winter. But unless some more of the "beautiful" comes very soon, we will have a green Xmas, which of course will make things dull. The Royal Remedy Co. have been holding forth in the Town Hall for the last week, giving comic entertainments and selling medicines. We would judge, by the wonderful remedial qualities claimed for their medicines, that if there are any sick folk in this vicinity during the next four months it will be, because, they failed to make purchases. They attracted quite a number of our citizens, some out of curiosity to see the miracles of healing performed on their afflicted friends. Whether their medicine be good or bad they treated their audiences to some rather clever acrobatic performances and some fine banjo music. They left on Monday for Richibucto, and no doubt the citizens will take advantage of their presence, and fortify themselves against all disease.

Rev. J. D. Murray, of Red Bank, preached in the Presbyterian church, on Sabbath morning last.

Rev. F. A. and Mrs. Wightman spent last week with their parishioners at Coal

Branch and vicinity, holding meetings as well as visiting their friends.

Mr. Frank Kenney of Lorne settlement, left last week for New Hampshire, where he expects to spend the winter.

"August Flower"

Mr. Lorenzo F. Sleeper is very well known to the citizens of Appleton, Me., and neighborhood. He says: "Eight years ago I was taken sick, and suffered as no one but a dyspeptic can. I then began taking August Flower. At that time I was a great sufferer. Everything I ate distressed me so that I had to throw it up. Then in a few moments that horrid distress would come on and I would have to eat and suffer again. I took a little of your medicine, and felt much better, and after taking a little more August Flower my dyspepsia disappeared, and since that time I have never had the first sign of it. I can eat anything without the least fear of distress. I wish all that are afflicted with that terrible disease or the troubles caused by it would try August Flower, as I am satisfied there is no medicine equal to it."
