SUPREME COURT.—Before the Supreme Court at Fredericton Tuesday a common motion was made in the case of Wm. A. Maclaren vs. The Guardian Fire and Life Assurance Co., of London, England. This cause arises out of the burning of the drug store of Mr. Maclaren here last February.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The September Circuit Court opened here on Tuesday of last week, Judge Hanington presiding. Two addresses were presented to His Honor, this being his first appearance here as Judge. The address of the grand jury was published last week. The barristers also presented him with an address.

The following was the docket:— 1 Macle D. Richard vs. Dosithe Casey, Phinney & Carter for plaintiff; Geo. V. McInerney for defendant.

2 Richard et al vs. Wm. Main, E. Girouard for plaintiff; C. J. Sayre for defendant.

3 Elizabeth LeBlanc vs. Wm. Wheten, sheriff. Phinney and Carter for plaintiff; Geo. V. McInerney for defendant.

The first case tried was Richard vs. Casey. This was an action of trespass to land and resulted in a verdict for defendant.

In Richard et al vs. Main a jury was impanelled and the cause begun. On the second day, however, an adjournment was asked on the ground that defendant was sick with measles and would be unable to appear as a witness on his own behalf. His Honor adjourned the circuit till November, when this case will be concluded.

SCOTT ACT SUSTAINED.—The election in Northumberland on Thursday resulted in a victory for the Scott Act forces, the act being sustained by a couple of hundred majority. The vote was as follows:

Table with 2 columns: For Act, Against. Rows include Chatham, Blackbrook, Ludlow, Derby, Newcastle, Douglastown, Lower Newcastle, Lower Nelson, Blackville, Blissfield, Hardwick, Rogersville, Glenelg, Whitneyville, Oak Point, Upper Nelson.

Pine Ridge Pickings.

Potato digging has begun, and it is the worst job on our farm. We will be glad when it is over. The crop is not a large one.

Our friends Mr. Matthew Sullivan and Miss Bell McEachern are now one. We all wish them well. The boys gave them a good chivaori. How the cowbells did jingle.

Whitney and Cail are cleaning out the barns again this year. Oh! but you should hear them talk about the election.

C. C. C. was around lately, we knew there was an election coming. He said Phinney and John B. Goguen were going to be elected for the local. The people out here all think Charlie knows a thing or two, and I guess they are all going for Phinney and Goguen.

Molus River Notes.

Our summer and our summer visitors are both gone, and the moonlight meetings at the corner are things of the past.

Our school is vacant as our popular teacher, Miss Graham, resigned her charge, to study for a higher license. The school was in a highly satisfactory condition under her management and the attendance very good. We all miss her lively manner and pleasant company, but wish her success to get up higher.

Geo. E. Warman is out with his men threshing and is making things hum.

Johnston Warman is also doing great work.

The men are all talking election, and the women go about dancing. Oh! my! the ministers do go on because we girls love to dance. But we dance the same.

They say here they will all vote for J. D. Phinney, and as C. C. C. is so strong for Goguen they will all help him out. We don't know Goguen, but we know C. C. C. and we can't go back on him.

TO THE Electors of the County of Kent.

GENTLEMEN:—The Legislature of this province has, for reasons which has not yet been made public, been dissolved by the Government two years before the expiry of the term for which the assembly was elected, and it is announced that a general election of members to represent the electorate at Fredericton will be called on immediately.

Nomination is fixed for Saturday the 15th, and polling for Saturday the 22nd October.

Rumors of an intended dissolution have been current for some weeks, and I have as opportunity offered, consulted with many of you, and in consequence of the solicitations and encouragement I have received, have decided to again be a candidate for the representation of the county which has on two former occasions honored me with its confidence and support.

You are familiar with my position, my votes and my views expressed in the Legislature and reported in the public press, since I have been a member of the House of Assembly. Whether these have in all instances met with your approval or not, I cannot say, but while I hope this is the case—one thing I can fairly claim, and that is that I have endeavored faithfully to discharge the responsible trust reposed in me, and to do no discredit to my native county, whose people I was privileged to represent.

My conduct in the past will, I trust, afford some guarantee of my course in the future, should you again repose your confidence in me.

While I have had, and still retain pronounced opinions on public questions, I have on all occasions sought, and if re-elected, will again seek to promote such legislation as will, in my judgement, best secure the interest of the province in general and my own county in particular.

The time prior to the election is unusually brief, but I propose calling public meetings and addressing as many of you as I can meet, upon the questions which have arisen during the past two years, and may be expected to arise in the near future, in connection with our provincial politics.

I will also see as many of you personally, as I can, but it will be impossible for me to meet you all. I would ask all who may now be favorable to my election, to do what they fairly can to advance my candidature—with the assurance that I will, if elected, endeavor fairly to represent the mixed electorate of this fine county, irrespective of creed or nationality.

I have the honor to be Your obedient servant, J. D. PHINNEY. Richibucto, October 1, 1892.

—"The Question Answered" is the name of K. Bezanon's new advertisement in another column. He believes that advertising pays and he also believes that it pays the people to read his advertisement.

—John McCarthy, of Chatham a middle-aged bachelor, who possessed considerable property and lived alone, was taken home at 12 o'clock last Thursday night drunk. Friday morning his body was found in the boom at the Muirhead foundry wharf in a few inches of water. It is supposed that he went to that quarter of the town in search of a drink, rolled off a somewhat steep bank at the roadside at that point, blundered into the water, fell down and was drowned.

—An injunction order was obtained from Judge Palmer by Mr. R. Barry Smith restraining the assignee of Wm. Brown, late of the Commercial Hotel, Moncton, from interfering with Messrs. Albert C. Jones and Thomas L. Bourke in the sale of the property of the hotel. It seems that Brown assigned to John B. Kennedy, and that Jones and Bourke seized the property under bills of sale, when the assignee, under the direction of Mr. Geo. P. Thomas, his attorney, turned Jones out of possession, and refused to let him have the property to sell.—St John Telegraph.

—The W. C. T. U. after a cessation of three months, again resumed their meetings at the residence of Mrs. Ossel on September 21st '92.
