THE RESULT.

The election is over and Mr. McInerney is returned to represent Kent in the Canadian Commons for the remainder of the present term. This result is what we worked for and expected, and we feel that this constituency has done itself honor in selecting Mr. McInerney. Notwithstanding the appeals to the Acadian voters of the county to vote for a candidate of their own nationality the result show that Mr. McInerney secured a fair share of the Acadian Conservative vote of the county. This, added to his English support was sufficient to give him a handsome majority. Mr. Johnson polled a larger vote than was generally conceded to him and in certain districts developed unexpected strength. Mr. LeBlanc appeared to be pretty well supplied with the resources of civilization and but for that he would no doubt have been behind Mr. Johnson.

Mr. McInerney has been a candidate in six previous election contests and on each occasion it has been his privilege to address the electors on declaration day as a defeated candidate. He has, however, persevered, and hence for the first time finds the verdict of the people in his favor. He is acknowledged to be one of the ablest young men in the province and unless we are very much mistaken he will be favorably heard from before he has been long at Ottawa.

THE NEW CABINET.

The work of Cabinet reconstruction which has been going on at Ottawa for the last few days has resulted as follows:

- Prime Minister and Minister of Justice—Sir John Thompson.
Minister of Public Works—Hon. J. A. Ouimet.
Minister of Trade and Commerce—Hon. Mackenzie Bowell.
Minister of Railways and Canals—Hon. John G. Haggart.
Minister of Militia—Hon. J. C. Patterson.
Minister of Agriculture—Hon. A. R. Angers.
Secretary of State—Hon. John Costigan.
Minister of Finance—Hon. George E. Foster.
Minister of Marine and Fisheries—Hon. C. H. Tupper.
Postmaster General—Sir Adolphe P. Caron.
Minister of the Interior—Hon. T. M. Daly.
President of the Council—Hon. W. B. Ives.
Without portfolios: Hon. Frank Smith, Sir John Abbott and Hon. John Carling.
Comptroller of Inland Revenue—John F. Wood, Brockville.
Comptroller of Customs—Clarke Wallace.
Solicitor General—John J. Curran.

When Mr. McInerney was defeated in his second election contest ten years ago, the St. John Sun declared that if he kept on gaining ground at the rate he was then doing he would be elected in 1892. It is not often the Sun gets left.

Mr. Hawke, of the Moncton Transcript addressed a meeting of the electors of Harcourt on Saturday evening in the interest of Mr. LeBlanc. On Tuesday evening the Harcourt poll stood as follows: McInerney 91, LeBlanc 16, Johnson 12.

Mr. Editor:

The political campaign is over and Kent has once more elected one of her most brilliant sons to the House of Commons.

Although we regret Mr. B. Johnson's defeat, we are, however much pleased to see the interests of our county in the hands of such an intelligent young man as G. V. McInerney. In joining the Conservative party, Mr. McInerney has shown that the interests of Kent must pass before party interests. Now, if Mr. McInerney keeps his pledges, we venture to predict to the "silver-tongued" young Irishman, many days of honor for himself and of great usefulness to the county of Kent.

Mr. McInerney has exhibited wonderful courage from the very first day he entered politics, and his strong perseverance has brought him at last to grand success.

If Mr. E. Johnson has been defeated we can blame Hon. O. J. LeBlanc for it. When Mr. LeBlanc cannot raise himself further, it seems his favorite pleasure to ruin his countrymen—a noble ambition, truly! Not able to do his damaging work alone, he calls to his assistance, from Quebec, one of Mr. Mercier's satellites, but happily to no effect whatever.

Again the defeat of our Westmorland friends at the local election, had something to do with this federal election. Rumor says that the man on whom we depended most in Mr. Johnson's election, contributed considerably to Mr. O. M. McLansou's unexpected defeat; Kent was therefore bound to judge for herself this time. We did not want the red and blue flag; we wanted a supporter of Sir John Thompson, and we took the best means of getting one, let him be French or Irish.

We were determined to strike Laurier and Mercier's missionaries in the face and we succeeded in doing so.

Let the Grit gentlemen from Quebec understand that we know as much about politics as they do. No doubt young Dechenes from L'Islet and his friends have helped us grand!

"Le vache est à l'eau domaine, la vache est à l'eau domdô!"

But the battle is over; let the sword go down in the sheath; let us all be good friends again, and God save the Queen. Dundas, 6th Dec. 1892.

Harcourt.

Many of the young men of this place and vicinity have gone to the woods—a dozen or more to the state of New Hampshire. We understand that our enterprising friend, Mr. T. McWilliams, of Mill Branch, has made arrangements for a good "cut" this winter. We are also glad to note that he has entirely recovered from the severe hurt he got not long since. Mr. McW. has been putting extensive repairs on his mill this fall, in fact he has entirely renovated it, replacing the gang for the latest pattern of rotary, and a new and more powerful wheel. An Ontario firm has contracted for the machinery, while Mr. R. H. Atkinson, of Harcourt, has superintended the repairs. When completed the mill will be one of the best mills in the county. Mr. Atkinson is a skillful machinist and is just now engaged in putting up a steam mill at Metapedia.

We understand that the Epworth League "at home," held in the Methodist parsonage last week was largely attended and very much enjoyed by the young people.

Miss Sterrick, of Trout Brook, has been seriously ill for the past two weeks, and her life is now despaired of.

Mr. Richmond Peters and family, of Smith's Corner, intend moving to Mortimore for the winter.

There are quite a number of persons in this vicinity somewhat indisposed through the effect of our somewhat protracted spell of dull weather.

Our townsfolk have been favored by frequent visits from political friends, and have been greatly enlightened in regard to political notions, and now all wait for the result, which, of course, your readers will hear before they see these notes.

Kingston Notes.

Mr. James Britain has the frame of a large carpenter shop and barn combined erected near his residence on water street.

Councillor David McAlmon brought over a handsome horse from P. E. Island last Saturday. Report says he is a trotter and that David is waiting for good ice to get away from all the horses around here.

Capt. Faulkner's family has moved into the house vacated by R. Campbell.

Mrs. E. M. Ferguson was very ill all last week. Dr. Doherty, her attending physician, considers her now out of danger.

Captain Malley has arrived with his schooner. He is getting her stripped for the winter.

James Burns, of South Branch, who was in Kingston to-day, says he intends doing a large lumber business in St. Anne this winter.

T. G. Dickinson had his horse "Garry" raffled last week. There were 86 tickets sold. No. 77, held by O. Smith, was the lucky number.

Mr. George Wilson has just completed orders for several fine sleighs. They are done in Mr. Wilson's best style.

Captain James Gordon has returned from a visit to St. John. December 7th, 1892.

Brockton, Mass.

To the Editor of The Review:

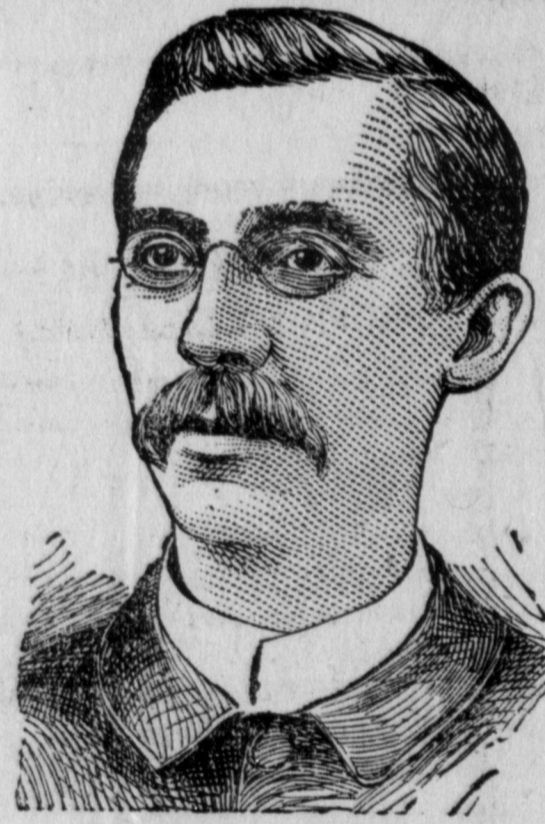

Nov. 28th, 1892.—In a recent issue of your paper I noticed an article taken from the St. John Globe, which states that among the innocents slaughtered in the recent election was Sockless Jerry Simpson in the second Kansas congressional district. I wish to correct that statement, as Mr. Simpson has been reelected to Congress on the people's party ticket, and the probabilities are he will have a seat in the United States Senate when the State Legislature meets. Why I take this interest is because he is a New Brunswicker and professes the true political faith.

A POPULIST.

Treat the Cows Kindly.

Cows are naturally of the mildest disposition of any four legged animal upon the farm, and they should be treated kindly and not abused by the milkers and drivers. The practice of sending a dog after them and allowing him to rush them into the milk yard, exhausted and excited, is a practice that will cost each year from ten to twenty-five pounds of butter for every cow milked. Drive the cows leisurely to and from the pasture. If you are in a hurry let the driver make double quick time to and from the field not accompanied by the cows. The throwing of stones, sticks or other missiles should be forbidden and the operation of milking should be done rapidly and with but little or no talking. Should a cow make a mistake or switch you unpleasantly during fly time don't speak so sharply as to startle her. In many herds there are often one or more cows which only a certain member of the family can milk. This indicates very plainly that some one is mild tempered, and understands the cow's disposition.

A box located at some accessible point should contain at all times a supply of salt. If salt is fed in heroic doses once or twice each week, the cows will then gorge themselves, causing derangement of the digestive organs. Milk should not be applied to the teats to reduce the power required in milking, for it does not, but most certainly adds filth to the milk obtained, and in cold weather the teats will become cracked and sore. All cows with a domineering nature and sharp horns should be dehorned. Brass ferrules at the tips of the horns lessen the danger but do not prevent the pushing and bruising of other cows.—Am. Ag.

Rev. William Hollinshead

Of Sparta, N. J., voluntarily says: "To Whom It May Concern: "Unasked I deem it my duty to a suffering humanity whose bodies and souls I would have healthy, to tell them of the value of Hood's Sarsaparilla. While living in Ohio one of my children was greatly

Afflicted With Boils having 30 on her limbs, and being unable to walk. I had heard of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and bought a bottle, half of which cured entirely. Two years after, another child was afflicted as badly. I used the other half bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla with like results. About four years after, the child first afflicted was again tormented like Job, and I bought a bottle (on Sunday at that) and again a cure. I gave some of the medicine to a poor woman and two children; they were helped as were mine. Through a testimonial sent to C. I. Hood & Co., inquiries came from all the country, asking if it was a 'bona fide' testimonial, and of course I wrote all that it was, and have the knowledge of Scores and Scores Of persons helped or cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Mild cases of rheumatism have yielded to it. Biliousness and bad liver have been corrected in my own family. This is the only patent medicine I have felt like praising. I speak not for C. I. Hood, but for the jobs who are impatient and are tormented beyond endurance. Nothing I know of will cleanse the blood, stimulate the liver, or clean the stomach so perfectly as
