Our one absorbing topic of conversation is the trial of "Buck" and "Jim," which commences on Tuesday next. Many visitors from afar are expected, together with 124 jurors who have been empanelled for the trial. "Jim" will not allow himself to be photographed, but puts out his tongue and makes all sorts of faces to prevent a true picture being taken. P. O. Carrol, who achieved notoriety by capturing him, intends getting a kodak at Halifax and thinks he can snap a shot at him.

Another attraction for Tuesday and Wednesday, is our Gun Club tournament. It being open to the Dominion, and shooters from all parts are expected. The committee in charge have put the grounds in complete order. New traps and pullers of the latest patterns have been received from New York. Tents and booths are being pitched for the accommodation of visitors. The citizens have presented a very handsome challenge cup to be shot for, and the club have added cash prizes to a number of the events. Besides the inanimate blue rocks, there will be a live pigeon shoot each day, which will be a good chance for wild fowl shooters to try their skill.

The Episcopal congregation intend holding their annual bazaar on Thursday, so that our little town, having been extremely quiet of late, intends upholding the old saying of "Feast or Famine," or the reverse, as the case may be, with regard to gaieties.

One of those interesting events in which "two hearts are made as one, two souls but with a single thought," took place at Trinity Church, St. John, on Wednesday evening, being the marriage of J. W. Y. Smith, one of our most popular and fascinating young gentlemen, and only son of Sir Albat J. Smith, to Miss Nellie Robinson, third daughter of the late W. B. Robinson, who was attired in a wedding gown of white satin and old honiton lace, with veil to match. The bride and groom left on the evening express for a trip through upper Canada. On the arrival of the train at Moncton many friends had gathered to offer congratulations, and as the train moved out strains were heard of "For he's a jolly good fellow."

The steamer Evangeline made her last trip to Moncton on Thursday, with a large excursion party from here and intermediate points.

A "side show," the principals being a hand organ owner and a harness maker, was "free for all" at "the corner" a few evenings ago.

Mrs. H. W. Palmer has returned from Shediac, though, I regret to say, in very poor health. Her daughter, Miss Nellie, returns to Mount Allison in a few days.

Several of our young ladies take advantage of Mount Allison's benefits by going over twice a week. Among these are Miss Hay, who goes for instrumental music, Miss Maud Hanington for painting and music, and Miss Lottie Wallace for painting.

Mrs. Shreve leaves in a few days for Boston. She will be accompanied by her daughter, Miss Laura, who goes to continue her studies in music.

Mrs. M. G. Teed, accompanied by her son Jack, also left for Boston last week.

Mrs. A. J. Peckman spent Sunday in Moncton.

Mrs. Brown, of Fredericton, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fairweather.

Mr. G. B. Fowler's many friends will regret to hear he has been seriously ill while spending his vacation, but hopes to return in a few days quite restored to health.

Judge and Mrs. Landry returned from their trip to the States on Saturday evening.

Mr. E. P. Allison, of Sackville, and Mr. W. W. Wells, of Moncton, spent Monday in town.

Mr. Macdougall, of the Merchants' Bank, Sackville, spent Wednesday in town.

Miss Holt, of St. John, has been visiting her sister, Misses Richard.

The Misses Wilbur, of Woodstock, who have been visiting Miss Edith Wilbur, returned on Thursday, Miss Edith accompanying them as far as St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Lane, who have been boarding since their marriage have gone to housekeeping.

Miss Sadie Forster has returned to Windsor to pursue her studies.

Mrs. R. A. Chapman, of Moncton, is visiting friends here. RAINBOW.
