THE I. C. R.

The Moncton Transcript supports the candidature of Mr. LeBlanc in this county, because, we presume, it believes him to be a Liberal, although Mr. LeBlanc himself announces that he is a "modified Liberal"—whatever that may mean. Amongst other reasons urged by the Transcript why the electors should vote for its candidate is the very funny one that Mr. LeBlanc will be instrumental in preventing the transfer of the Intercolonial Railway to the Canadian Pacific Company.

The grit organ overlooks the fact that if Mr. LeBlanc should happen to be elected he will find himself associated on the opposition side of the House, with the party whose principal organs and whose leading supporters are now most strenuously and most persistently urging the sale of the I. C. R. to the Canadian Pacific Company.

The leading Liberal organ, the Toronto Globe, has thrown its influence strongly in that direction, while the St. John Telegraph, owned by C. W. Weldon—the leader of the Liberal party in this Province, and the solicitor of the C. P. R.—does not allow a week to pass without a labored article approving and urging the sale of the road.

If the electors of Kent want to express their disapproval of the proposal of the Globe and Telegraph to sell the I. C. R., let them cast their votes for a candidate in sympathy with the government—and against Mr. LeBlanc.

"LIVE AND LET LIVE."

The Minister of Inland Revenue, Honorable John Costigan, was deservedly complimented by his personal friends and admirers by a banquet tendered him at the Victoria Hotel, St. John, last week.

It was attended by Sir Leonard Tilley, Judge Fraser, Judge King, Judge Tuck, Judge Landry, K. F. Burns, M. P., Senator Poirier and other prominent gentlemen from all parts of the province, who joined in good words and kind wishes for the popular guest of the evening.

Mr. Costigan, in reply to the toast of his health, delivered a speech, in which he made a very appropriate and timely reference to the good feeling that has hitherto prevailed amongst all classes and creeds in this province, and expressed the wish that whatever animosities might be aroused in particular localities by designing politicians, the great body of the people of our fair province would continue to live in amity and good-fellowship. The country is broad enough for all, and all could adopt the policy and the motto which had influenced him in his public life—"Live and let live."

The sentiment met with the hearty approval of the company, and, we believe, will find an answer in the great heart of the people generally.

We have had occasion to denounce the attempt made by Mr. Blair and his colleague in the government, Mr. Labladio, to arouse religious animosities and prejudices in this county, and we certainly cannot approve of similar tactics on the part of their opponents, unless they may be excused on the doubtful ground that in politics it is necessary to "fight fire with fire."

It is, unfortunately, too true that Mr. Blair's political methods in this and other respects have led to retaliation along the same lines, and it may be that he may yet find himself "hoist with his own petard."

There is another application of the "live and let live" policy, however, which we think, can very appropriately be made in this county at the present time.

An attempt is, we regret to say, being made in the Acadian press, and in canvasses throughout the county, to arouse the so-called national feeling amongst our Acadian fellow-citizens, and rally them to vote at the approaching election for an Acadian representative—irrespective of the qualifications of the candidate, or the interests of the county.

A writer in the last issue of the Moniteur Acadien, in a long and labored appeal addressed "To the Acadian Electors of Kent," says: "I hope, I desire, and my object in writing these lines is, to sound the tocsin of union, and of fidelity to the national flag."

We desire, in the strongest terms, to express our disapproval of such appeals. They are calculated to arouse a sentiment which should not exist in this country. Our "flag" is the Canadian flag, and the interests of our people are one and the same. We do not know of any public interests in this county which could not, if the electors so willed it, be as well guarded and conserved by a capable English representative as by an Acadian.

It is true that for some years a large number of the English-speaking voters in this county have seen fit to give their support to the Acadian Conservative candidate, and to that support the election of these representatives has been largely due, but it does not follow that these electors will consider themselves called upon to support every Acadian candidate who may be presented to them, and of whose qualifications for the position they may entertain serious doubts, or who they may consider utterly unfitted to represent the county in the Dominion Parliament.

Appeals of the nature we have referred to are not calculated to enlist the sympathy or secure the votes of English electors for Mr. Basil Johnson, and the writers, in our judgment, pay but a poor compliment to the intelligence of the great body of the French electors, many of whom, from what we know and can learn, are resolved to vote for the candidate who they believe has the qualifications, the ability and the determination to work for the good of the county and the general interest of the people, treating all nationalities fairly and well. We believe that in this election their votes will be cast for Mr. McInerney.

Buctouche.

DEAR SIR:—We have not yet had a public meeting here at which the candidates have given their views to the people. Their cards are, however, posted, and their opinions can be fairly got at from them.

There are a number of Liberals and a number of Conservatives here, and the largest number are men who have no set political opinions. I find that the general run of public sentiment is that the government should be supported at this election, and that we should have a man able and not afraid to state, on the floors of the House, the many ways in which the county has been neglected. Many of our voters are convinced that Geo. McInerney is such a man, and don't be surprised if we give him a rousing good support in this quarter.

We feel it our duty, readers of REVIEW, to correct the errors that have appeared in the paper for the last few weeks. In the first place our new station which was to have been a large and roomy building has not as yet been tendered for; and in reference to our rapidly growing village, we would be pleased if your correspondent would, in his next correspondence, say in what way our village is growing, as in our opinion we think it is progressing very slowly and if our little village has no appearance of improvement until the station is built we fear the improvement will come late.

Mr. John Buckley, of Rogersville, is recovering, and we have hopes of seeing him in his good health again.

Mr. H. L. Dwyer is in the lumber business this winter, getting out railroad ties and pulp wood; but we have not heard the exact distance from the I. C. R. to his camp.

Mr. Henry Doiron, of Acadieville, has returned home from Hyde Park, Mass., looking hale and hearty.

It has been reported that George H. Perry received a package containing tickets for the new station, but to our great disappointment it consisted of a large cheese.

Mrs. William McPherson and her nephew, Master Fred W. Johnston, who left for Medford, Wis., last spring returned home a few weeks ago, thinking there is no place like home.

Among the arrivals of last week were Mr. Collins, of St. John, Mr. J. Meloney, of Rogersville, Mrs. Frederick Bashtor and her daughter Miss Sarah Bashtor, and Miss Morton, of Kent Junction.

Mr. A. Rushton's front lot has been overflowed with water for some time.

The heavy rains of last week prevent driving, as the roads are in a dreadful condition.

Mrs. Philip Richard who was dangerously ill has recovered through the skillful treatment of Dr. Pidgeon.

Mr. Geo. McLeod has reopened his lumber business in Acadieville for the winter. It will be of great benefit to the place.

We are happy to hear that Mrs. Fred Johnston, who was to leave for Boston, has decided to remain in our midst.

We are sorry to say that our much esteemed teacher, Miss Maggie LeBlanc, is to leave us to return to her home, where she will remain for the winter.

Mr. Michael Woods has begun his constant trips, and we wish him success.

Mr. B. F. Wetmore is still amongst us. Mr. Jas. Desmond, who has been suffering from a severe cold, is recovering.

Election is the chief conversation, and we sincerely hope and trust that G. V. McInerney will gain the victory.

We will not sign our names as constant reader of THE REVIEW as it would be false, for we have lots of time to read other papers.

A CLEVER COMPANY.

McDougall Settlement.

Nov. 22.—Mr. E. Teed who has been for the last four years lumbering in the wild West and Rockies has returned home. He brought with him a great variety of furs, the animals having all been trapped by himself, consisting of Wolverines, wolves, coyotes, grey foxes, etc.

There has been no service in the church here since Rev. Mr. McNabb's departure, 3 weeks ago.

Mr. C. McDougall is putting in a new mill dam, and if the open weather continues for three or four weeks he will have it completed.

The farmers are nearly all through with their plowing, the weather of late being very favorable.

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.

Symptoms—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia. WONDER IN WELLAND!

A Representative Farmer Speaks.

MR. C. C. HAUN.

The following remarkable facts are fully certified to as being undeniably correct in every particular. Mr. Haun is well known in the vicinity, having resided here over fifty years, and is highly respected as a man of the strictest honor, whose word is as good as his bond.

As will be seen from his letter, four physicians had attended him, and it was only after he had given up hope of cure that he decided to try Burdock Blood Bitters on the recommendation of a neighbor who had been cured of a similar disease by its use. Mr. Haun writes as follows:

"Dear Sirs,—I think I have been one of the worst sufferers you have yet heard of, having been six years in the hands of four of our best doctors without obtaining permanent relief, but continually growing worse, until almost beyond hope of recovery. I tried your Bitters and got relief in a few days. Every organ of my body was deranged, the liver enlarged, hardened and torpid, the heart and digestive organs seriously deranged, a large abscess in my back, followed by paralysis of the right leg, in fact the lower half of my body was entirely useless. After using Burdock Blood Bitters for a few days the abscess burst, discharging fully five quarts of pus in two hours. I felt as if I had received a shock from a powerful battery. My recovery after this was steady and the cure permanent, seeing that for the four years since I have had as good health as ever I had. I still take an occasional bottle, not that I need it but because I wish to keep my system in perfect working order. I can think of no more remarkable case than what I have myself passed through, and no words can express my thankfulness for such perfect recovery."

C. C. HAUN, Welland P.O.

In this connection the following letter from T. Cummes, Esq., a leading druggist of Welland, Ont., speaks for itself: Me-srs. T. Milburn & Co., Toronto.

GENTLEMEN,—I have been personally acquainted with Mr. C. C. Haun for the last 20 years, and have always found him a very reliable man. You may place the utmost confidence in anything he says with regard to your medicine. He has on many occasions within the last four years told me that it was marvellous the way the Burdock Blood Bitters had cured him, and that he now felt as able to do a day's work as he ever felt in his life. Although quite well he still takes some B. B. occasionally, as he says, to keep him in perfect health.

Yours truly, THOMAS CUMMES, Welland, Ont.

The steadily increasing sale of B. B., the length of time it has been before the people, and the fact that it cures to stay cured, attest the sterling merit of this monarch of medicines, the people's favorite blood purifier, tonic and regulator.

JOHN A. KIMBALL.

Neuralgia of the Heart! Chronic Dyspepsia! Awful Constipation! Rheumatism!

CURED BY GRODER'S SYRUP

SAINT JOHN, N. B., October 11, 1892.

To THE GROCER DISPENSARY CO., LTD. Gentlemen: I, John A. Kimball, of the City of St. John, in the Province of New Brunswick, shoemaker, do solemnly declare that:

I cannot speak in too high praise of the wonders that Groder's Botanic Dyspepsia Syrup has worked in my case. It is an act of justice as well as an duty for me to tell the public through you just what your remedy has done for me. I am 45 years of age. My life during the past 23 years has NEVER BEEN FREE FROM SUFFERING UNTIL NOW. Since I began to take GRODER'S SYRUP I AM FREE FROM CHRONIC NEURALGIA OF THE HEART OF 20 YEARS' STANDING AND ENTIRELY DISAPPEARED. My distress from SEVERE CONSTIPATION has been an unending torture for the past ten years, but your remedy is fast restoring healthy action of the stomach and bowels. RHEUMATISM of long-standing has ceased to trouble me. I am no longer a gloomy, melancholy dyspeptic. There is NO ACHE or pain in any part of my body. My food digests readily and causes me no distress whatever. Your medicine is the first of the hundreds I have tried that has given me any relief. I am ready to answer any inquiry concerning this statement, for I firmly believe in Groder's Syrup and desire other sufferers to obtain help as I have.

It will cure them as it has cured me. And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of the "Act respecting extra-judicial oaths."

Done and declared at the City of St. John, in the Province of New Brunswick, this 11th day of October, A. D. 1892.
