

LOCAL & GENERAL.

Death of Hon. O. S. Weeks. HALIFAX, Feb. 5.—O. S. Weeks, ex-M. P. died today.

Mr. Weeks was the son of Rev. Otto S. Weeks, a Church of England minister was born in Nova Scotia, educated there, read law with Hon. A. James, judge in equity and was called to the bar in 1854, when he commenced practice in Brooklin, Hants county, but soon after removed to Windsor the shire town. He was always identified with the liberal party; was attorney general in the Hill government in 1875-76, and represented Guysboro for some years in the assembly. After accepting the office of attorney general Mr. Weeks removed from Windsor to Halifax. In former years he occasionally came before the public as a lecturer on literary subjects and always with marked success. He excelled as a reciter of poetry and had a keen appreciation of the beauties of English literature. As a lawyer he had a widespread reputation. Mr. Weeks was about 62 years of age.

Supreme Court. Ex parte Long. Mr. Curry shows cause. C. A. Palmer supports motion. Rule absolute.

This was a motion for a writ certiorari, to quash an order made by Justices H. M. Ferguson and James Stothart, at Kingston in November last. The facts are briefly as follows: James Thompson brought an action against Captain Long, of the schooner "Minnie E. Moody," under the Canadian Shipping Act, to recover $110 wages due him as seaman on board Long's schooner. The articles under which he engaged as seaman, however, contained a stipulation, that he was to remain with Long one year, or until the schooner was laid up for the winter, at captain's option. Thompson, at the end of six months from the date of the articles, and before the schooner was laid up for the winter, left her and refused to return. Whereupon Long refused to pay him his wages. At the trial of the cause, before Justices Ferguson and Stothart, Mr. Sayre appeared for Thompson, and Mr. Carter for Captain Long. It was contended, on the part of Thompson, that the Shipping Act prohibited the entering into articles, by a sailor on board an ordinary coaster, for a longer period than six months. That, at the end of that period, Thompson had a right to his discharge, and could then sue for his wages. The justices held accordingly, and rendered a verdict against Long for $93 and costs, in all $105. The Supreme Court virtually reverses the justices' judgment.

PERSONAL MENTION. Messrs. James and Robert Patterson, of Kouchibouguac, were in town Saturday.

Mrs. K. B. Forbes is rallying from the effects of her recent illness.

La grippe and "Jack," W. S. Loggie's genial fish buyer had a tussle and, as usual in such cases, Jack came off second best.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Chesley Tait and Miss Gertie Evans, of Shediac, left on Thursday for Boston on a fortnight's vacation.

Mr. Fred. Robideau, editor of our valued contemporary, the Moniteur Acadicien, is seriously ill with la grippe.

Mr. John Robertson is up river rusticating, the guest of Mr. Hugh McGraw, who is suffering with la grippe.

Mr. David McLelland—a Kent county boy—is visiting his many friends in his old home. Mr. McL. has a lucrative position with Messrs. Sinclair & McDonald, railroad contractors, who are at present constructing a line at Cobourg, Ont.

Mrs. Wheten, who has been seriously ill, is somewhat improved under Doctor Ferguson's skillful treatment. The invalid's mother, Mrs. Vennor, arrived from Campbellton on Saturday and is staying with her.

That Mr. James F. Atkinson is improving will be welcome tidings to his many friends throughout the county.

Sheriff Wheten has been about for the last few days after an eighteen days siege of la grippe. He relates a harrowing tale of his experience while in the clutches of the grip microbe.

Mr. James Shea, of Main River, called on THE REVIEW on Monday, when in town.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O'Leary are both sick with la grippe.

Mrs. Traynor, of Campbellton, is visiting her mother and sister in Kingston, who are both very ill.

Mr. Alex. N. McKay, eldest son of Rev. N. McKay, and Mr. Walter H. White, of the Miramichi Telephone Co., Chatham, have gone west.

Miss Rosie and Lizzie O'Meara are home from the U. S. having been summoned to the death bed of their brother.

Mrs. T. Frecker is among those on whom the grip has taken a firm hold.

Misses Lizzie O'Donnell and Josie Murphy have left Wallham, Mass., and gone to Denver, Colorado.

Miss McRoberts was able to resume charge of her school on Monday last.

Mr. Charles Dickson, who has been ill for some time, is at his post again in J. D. B. McKenzie's drug store, Chatham. Mr. D. had an attack of typhoid fever.

YATSI'S CORSET. TRADE MARK. The Yatsi's Corset, owing to the peculiar diagonal elasticity of the cloth will fit the wearer perfectly the first time worn, no matter what her style of form is—either long or short waisted. The Yatsi's Corset does not stretch at the waist, requires no breaking in, fits comfortably the first time worn. As it gives to every portion of the wearer it will out-last any of the old style rigid Corsets. The Yatsi's Corset is made of the best materials, and being elastic, (without rubber or springs) is invaluable for invalids, as it cannot compress the vital parts of the body. They are recommended by the most celebrated physicians in all the leading cities. The Yatsi's Corset is the only one that the purchaser can wear ten days and then return and have the money refunded if not found to be the most perfect fitting, healthful and comfortable Corset ever worn. Sent to any address on receipt of price, $1.25.

LATE FR. BELLIVEAU

I have a beautiful cabinet photo of the late Father Belliveau, made from life, and was highly approved of by himself. Do not buy some of the poor copies that are being sold, but see that every picture bears my name printed in gold on the bottom. If you want a picture you also want a good portrait and faithful likeness, which you can get mailed to you, postage prepaid, by sending 25 cents in stamps to my address.

NOTICES.

—Wanted—a grippe microbe killer. —Sunday will be St. Valentine's day. —Read Mr. K. B. Forbes' new advertisement. —You're not "in it" if you haven't been "gripped." —To-morrow will be the 31st anniversary of Cold Friday. —Great auction sale at G. L. Sangster's store, Moncton. See advertisement. —Miss Bridget McCafferty, died at Bridgeport, Penq., on Thursday, aged 110. —Mr. Kenney, confectioner, of Chatham, was in town this week with a full line of his goods. —Remember that R. P. Doherty, D. D. S., visits Kent this month. Dates found in advertising columns.

—Rev. H. N. Baker, of Dorchester, was presented by the members of his congregation with a new sleigh robe. —The stallion Brown Stout, well known among stock breeders in Kent, died at McAnn's stables, Moncton, on Friday. —Mr. John McDonald is erecting a new summer hotel, on the site of the Point du Chene House, which was destroyed by fire. —The price paid by Mr. Jas. G. McDonald for the stallion Fitz-Maurice was $2,500.00, not $2,150.00, as stated last week. —Mr. John Fraser and his son-in-law, Mr. Dowling, of Chatham, were in town on Saturday purchasing smelts, which they hauled through to Chatham. —Mr. James Callendar, of Kouchibouguac, brought a fine lot of smelts to market the other day and found a ready sale for them at four cents per pound. Messrs. Robertson & Co. were the purchasers. —The Boston Globe is authority for the statement that Fred W. Steeves, better known among the pickpocket fraternity as "Pouchy," has been sentenced to five years in the penitentiary for picking pockets. Steeves is a Monctonian. —Messrs James and John Graham have contracted to manufacture a large quantity of lobster tins for Messrs J. & T. Jardine, and also for Robertson & Co. Messrs Graham are building a number of fishing boats and expect to operate extensively in the lobster fishery next season.

—Mr. John Maloney, is preparing for market a fine lot of square birch timber. He got from one tree five tons and fifteen feet. Mr. Crocker, Crown Land Surveyor, says it is the largest return he has ever seen from one tree. Mr. John Durant cut and manufactured the tree into timber. —Mr. Geo. Miner, one of the oldest residents of Shediac died suddenly of heart failure on Thursday morning. He went to bed feeling all right the night previous and awoke about four o'clock in the morning complaining of illness, dying half an hour later. He was the father of Mr. Geo. H. Miner late of Richibucto, and of Mrs. William Wood of Shediac. —Conductor Wm. Irving was painfully injured in the Newcastle yard on Friday. He was on top of a car of wood of which a flying shunt was being made. When the car struck another the stakes broke and the load of wood collapsed. In the fall Conductor Irving was severely shaken and badly bruised about the shoulders and chest.

—Moncton may be suffering from the depression now like other cities; but it's the liveliest town in the maritime provinces all the same! All travellers admit this. Monctonians have just reason to be confident in their city's future. There may be a dull season but it will boom again ere long.—Moncton Transcript. —A Miramichi man got into an altercation with an Acadian fisherman the other day in the rear of the New Kent Hotel. Their words ended in blows, and for a few seconds nothing could be seen but fragments of whiskers, teeth and smelts flying through the air. A couple of peace-loving citizens interfered and separated the combatants before any serious damage was done.

—Mr. Duncan McEachrane died very suddenly at the Harcourt House, Harcourt Station, on Saturday morning last. He had been complaining of feeling unwell for some time, but arose in the morning and partook of his breakfast seemingly much improved. He was shortly afterward seized with a faintness and died in about ten minutes. The deceased was about seventy years of age and unmarried.

—Fire started in the upper flat of the store of Mr. Cummins Bourque at Buctouche on Thursday evening, and it was burned to the ground, despite the efforts of the citizens to stay the progress of the fiery element. Mr. S. C. Weeks, who was in Buctouche at the time rendered heroic assistance. As there was quite a gale blowing, all deserve great praise for confining the fire to the building in which it originated. The store of Mr. A. D. Cormier, adjoining with some of the stock was slightly damaged. A goodly portion of Mr. Bourque's stock was saved in a damaged condition, and was insured in companies represented by Mr. D. R. Jack of St. John, who was in Buctouche this week adjusting the loss. The building was insured for $750 in the Commercial Union.

NUGGETS.

—A letter from "B" came to hand too late for this issue. —See advertisement auction sale at Mr. W. H. Crozier's residence on Saturday the 20th inst. Auctioneer James McDougall will conduct the sale. —Mrs. Collingwood Schriber, wife of the chief engineer of government railways, dropped dead in her drawing room at Ottawa on Monday afternoon. —A Brockton, Mass., paper informs its readers that "Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Newfoundland and Prince Edward Island form the so-called Maritime Provinces of the Dominion of Canada." —The new engine for the Kent Northern railway, which is a good one, reached here on Saturday, and was handed over to driver Harry McPhee. Harry is a skillful driver and it will take a pretty big snowbank to interrupt the traffic this winter. The engine was turned out by Messrs Fleming & Sons, St. John.

—A society called the Mayflower Assembly, Sons and Daughters of the Maritime Provinces, has been formed at Brockton, Mass. It is a social and benevolent order. We notice among the many names mentioned in a report of one of their meetings in a Brockton paper that that of Mr. Neil Currie, formerly of Kouchibouguac, figures prominently.

—A sad case is that of Mr. John Wright of Cochrane's point, Main River, who died on Thursday last. It appears that some neighbors on the opposite side of the river, missing the customary smoke from Wright's chimney and conjecturing that something was wrong with the occupant, who was a bachelor and lived a very secluded life, undertook to investigate, and found the poor man very ill, and lying on the bed in a helpless condition. Kind neighbors had him removed and administered to his wants, but the succor came too late. He had been lying in the above state for two days without any fire when discovered.

—A Brandon, Manitoba, correspondent writes:—No less than three weddings took place in this city on Wednesday evening, and in each case the groom happened to be connected with the railway service, and the young ladies were formerly of Kingston, Kent Co., N. B. Two of them took place in the Presbyterian church, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. A. Urquhart, and the other in St. Matthew's church, the Rev. Geo. Rogers being the officiating clergyman. In the former case, Mr. W. J. Smith, conductor on the G. N. W. C. trains took to himself a life partner in the person of Miss Cassie Hannay, and Mr. D. Laughton, of the C. P. R., was wedded to Miss Minnie McAlmon, and Mr. J. Hall, conductor on the C. P. R., united his destiny with that of Miss Nettie Hannay. The brides were given away by their father. The two Misses Hannay are daughters of Mr. J. S. Hannay, of the city police force. The brides were the recipients of many handsome and costly presents.
