

Mill Creek Notes.

As I have not seen anything from this important part of the county lately, I feel it a duty to acquaint your readers with some of the happenings.

Mr. James Carruthers has returned after an extended trip to St. Anne. It is believed that the attraction there, is a buxom "widder," who lives in the "old white house that tops the long ascent."

The mud-diggers have all been taken ashore, having lifted a large quantity of the valuable fertilizer. Mr. Kinred hauled nearly six-hundred loads—the largest quantity hauled by any one farmer.

Mr. David Dykeman has the finest Clydesdale colt in the settlement. Mr. Thomas Dixon's comes next; Mr. D. has also a Polled Angus bull that's a picture. Mr. John McCully is preparing to build a new residence—cage for the bird, you know.

I'm sorry that Mr. Wm. James is going to leave us—going away with Mr. McGreggor, who leaves for the State of Maine shortly. It is also rumored that Mrs. James is going to Minnesota the coming summer; "Billy's" girl will surely feel lonely in his absence.

Mr. Hickey has the fastest horse in Mill Creek; the animal is somewhere in the two ninety class.

Mr. James Stymiest has a contract get-poles and stakes for Mr. Taylor, Kingston.

Mr. Thomas Dixon, who has been laid up so long with rheumatism, is able to be about again.

Owing to a protracted attack of the grip Mr. Peapody Stymiest has been unable to visit his traps, and Bruin roams unmolested in his forest home.

Mr. Michael Roberts lost a valuable mare lately.

Mr. Andrew Dixon made a visit up river lately—private business, of course.

Mr. Hugh McGraw has killed some fine beaves recently.

A mare belonging to James Dixon, is terribly afflicted with scratches.

Next to Mr. Hickey, Mr. R. Clarke has the fastest horse in the "Creek."

Mr. John Boness is entirely recovered from his recent attack of the grip.

I am sorry to hear that the venerable Mr. Pope has lost his hearing completely.

Mr. Chas. Wilson's housekeeper, is recovering from her late sickness.

It is rumored that Mr. Conn will work his extensive farm on a large scale next season.

That's all. T. & D.

Clifton, Gloucester Co.

Mrs. Arthur Jagoe is very ill. It is feared that she will not get better.

Mrs. E. B. Baker who had a very bad attack of la grippe is able to be out again.

Mr. Frank Lowe and his horse trainer, Richard Dempsey, are out with the colts very often of late. They are doing some very amusing if not instructive work.

It is said that some of our boys who were in the cypress swamps of South Carolina, are on their way home.

Our M. P. P.'s are going to get it hot for the stand they took on the direct tax question. They will need all their eloquence to set them right for the next election. Boss.

Buctouche Notes.

March 25, 1892.—It is some time since I have written to you about anything transpiring in our pretty little village and its vicinity. The times here, so far as money is concerned, have been very quiet no demand for potatoes, but three cars in all having been shipped, smelts a failure, oats in poor demand, it is to be hoped that with the opening of navigation, times will be somewhat brisker. There is a large quantity of lumber on hand ready for spring shipment.

The Messrs Irving and Coates have bought a large quantity of fine lumber the past season, which will also be manufactured at their mills this spring and summer.

One of Mr. Irving's men, Mr. Clovis J. White, met with what might have been a fatal accident the past week, in going to his work, with a double edged axe over his shoulder, he went to pass over an icy cradle hill when his feet went from under him, the axe sticking in the ice, and he falling, the back of his neck coming in contact with the edge of the axe, cutting a fearful gash. The wound was dressed by Dr. King. He is doing well at present and is out of danger.

Mr. C. Burke is about commencing to build a new store on the site of the one lately burned. It will be larger, and of a different style.

I yesterday went through the establishment of John A. Irving, Esq., ex-councillor, and I must say that I was agreeably surprised at all I saw. The store itself is handsomely fitted up, lighted with the most beautiful lamps, and supplied with four of the best show cases the city of Montreal could produce. The shelves well filled with all kinds and qualities of goods, which are sold at prices so low as to defy competition. Mr. Irving makes a specialty of boots and shoes, the stock of which he keeps on hand is supplied to him by the best known factories in the Dominion, and as he pays spot cash for this class of goods he can undersell any other person in trade. Mr. Irving undoubtedly has the finest establishment of its kind north of St. John. His salt, oats, and other stores are handy and very convenient for the purposes for which they are required.

Masters and mates are busily repairing and fixing up their schooners for the summer's work.

HYACK.

Ford's Mills.

March 28.—The Rev. F. A. Wightman held divine service here on Sunday morning; he is very much liked by all denominations.

Cupid has been in our midst and carried off one fair daughter. On Wednesday afternoon, (March 23), Miss Maggie McIntosh and Mr. Warren were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. W. McLeod, of the Presbyterian church. Immediately after tea the happy couple left for their home in St. Nicholas River. We extend our congratulations, and wish them every success in life.

Mrs. John McG. Powell is on a visit to Bathurst, attending the wedding of her brother, John J. Taylor. She will visit Jacques River before her return.

Leslie McWilliams is home from Sackville we are much pleased to hear of his attainments, and extend a welcome, as he is a prime favorite.

April 1.—Spring is here with its balmy winds and hot sun, and the snow is fast disappearing; winter has its many advantages but the beautiful spring tide is very welcome.

Mr. S. T. Powell is in rather poor health at present, and we sincerely hope the 'old gentleman' will soon recover.

Mrs. F. Golder is still confined to the house with her lame foot.

Some of our young men are talking of leaving this community, to seek their fortunes elsewhere; may success attend them.

The Episcopalians have been fortunate in securing the services of the Rev. Mr. Slipper, who has lately arrived here with his family from England.

Services every Sabbath at "the church" at Brown's Yard.

Harcourt Notes.

Spring seems to have come in good earnest, and sleighing is a thing of the past.

"Did they get married?" "Yes!" "No!" "What a pity the minister was away!" "What a pity the paternal ancestor arrived on the scene!" Conversation like this could be freely heard on Tuesday last. No they did not get married. They were sorry; and we were sorry; and no doubt the minister was sorry too. After some rather black looks the paternal ancestor returned home, and they returned home too. We wish the young people better success next time, and "dame rumor" says that next time will have taken place before your readers have these notes.

Most of our citizens were forcibly reminded of the fact when the first of April arrived. It is said that one young man received the intelligence by telegram.

We understand that Thos. Atkinson, Esq., has been awarded the contract for the finishing of the new Methodist church here. The work we understand is to be commenced at an early date.

Kouchibouguac.

Muddy streets. Miss Lizzie Mazerolle and Miss Maggie Gorman, of St. Louis, were in town last Friday, the guests of Mrs. Grogan.

Uncle Sam's territory is not a terrestrial paradise after all. Several of our boys are singing "Home, Sweet Home" while loafing around the villages on the Susquehanna. Every train brings back exodians from the United States who have paid for knowing the latter country is much inferior to ours. They are now sadder but wiser men and contented to live the rest of their lives under the dear old flag that braved a thousand years the battle and the breeze.

The hand of death has been very busy since winter began. Doctors and undertakers have done a brisk business. The number of well-known citizens who have passed away has been unusually large. Most of those who departed were well advanced in years, but some were of naturally robust natures. In some households where the darker shadow has not yet fallen there is still lingering illness.

Nearly all the gangs are out of the woods. It is needless to say that those who got under the influence of "evil spirits" were comparatively few.

The bay is clear of ice and the booming of the breakers again resounds from afar. The breaking of the boomers also makes some little excitement.

Wild geese are reported plentiful at Point Sabin.

A leap year ball is spoken of after Easter. The street commissioner should have the sidewalks repaired at once.

Cameron's mill will start in a few days. McLeod's mill is now ready for the season's work. She will begin sawing as soon as the first lumber reaches the boom.

John Pickett is home again, and looking hardy.

LOYALIST.

Dalhousie.

April 1st.—The mild weather still continues, and at the rate the snow is going now it will be all gone in a couple of weeks. The streets are nearly all bare, and the boys are having a great time playing ball, which is rather unusual sport for this time of year.

The horse races which were to have taken place on Thursday last week have been postponed till next Tuesday, owing to the storm which prevailed the day before, and spoiled the track. It is to be hoped that nothing will turn up to prevent them being held on that day, as the ice will not be safe to delay longer.

Mr. Wm. McIntyre has got back from New Richmond, where he has been shooting, but only got four geese and a few ducks, as it is too early in the season, and not many geese arrived yet.

Mr. Edward Elsliger has also gone down for the same purpose but we have not heard what luck he has had.

Mr. Hale, of the "Inch Arran House," has been here on business connected with the hotel, and announces that the prospects for the house are better than ever they have been. He will be back for good about the fifteenth of May, but the hotel will not open before the twentieth of June.

Mr. C. S. Cole, of Moncton, spent Friday and Saturday here soliciting orders for his firm.

We are glad to see Sheriff Phillips out again after his illness, and we hope the fine weather will prove so enticing as to keep him out.

A letter from Quebec announces that Capt. Dugal of the "Admiral" who left here very ill with la grippe is getting better, and expects to be down soon.

REX.

Cocagne.

We are going to have another store to our already long list. Mr. Melanson, M. P. P., of Shediac, has obtained the store lately occupied by Mr. Placid Cormier, of Cocagne River. It was brought down on the ice by Mr. William and Thomas Bourque, and is now ready to be put upon its foundations. We trust Mr. Melanson will meet with as good success in this as he has in former ventures.

Mr. Dominique Leger, who has the contract for building the extension to the wharf has already commenced operations with quite a large crew of men, and is pushing the work energetically; a number of teams are also engaged in hauling stones, which are used for ballast, of which four hundred yards are required. This is what has been needed for so long a time, and now we have it.

It is reported that three hundred men have been engaged in Moncton to work in the quarry at Notre Dame. This will be a boon to boarding houses.

DIXIE.

Escuminac Notes.

After a very pleasant winter the spring is here again.

Preparations are going on for the spring and summer fishing. A number of new boats are being built.

If the hauling of lumber is any indication, we will have quite a number of new buildings erected this summer.

Mr. Edwin Peters has again taken up his abode in Escuminac, after an absence of two years.

Our popular new teacher, Miss K. E. Porter, is likely to come up to the expectation of her friends, by becoming one of our best teachers.

Great hopes are entertained that the road from here to Point Sabin will be completed this season, and not too soon. The question has been asked, how is the road to Sabin and the road to the infernal regions alike? There don't appear to be any similarity, as the road to the said regions are said to be broad and smooth; not so with the Sabin road, which is crooked and narrow and muddy. The road to hades is paved with good intentions, so also, the new commissioner intends expanding five hundred dollars on the Sabin road this summer. Hence the resemblance.

THE REVIEW continues to be the popular paper here. The people know it to be the best on the North Shore.

Charlo Station.

April 1.—Mr. John McDonald, of Montreal, and wife are at the Bay Shore Hotel, Charlo on a short visit. He has favored the people with a lecture, taking for his subject, the Life and Times of Robert Burns. Notwithstanding the short notice given, a large audience assembled in the hotel to hear the gifted speaker describe in glowing language the characteristics of the Scottish poet. Several of his choicest poems were recited with charming elocution, in a voice just suited to the phraseology (as Mr. McDonald is a true blue Scotchman of fine personal appearance) and as he proceeded he awakened enthusiastic memories in the minds of several present, which burst forth in frequent expressions of admiration and as he concluded he was cheered to the echo. Mr. McDonald with his family has for years spent the summer months at Charlo, and in his angling rambles along the river has composed several amusing pieces of poetry which have won for him the appellation of "Poet Laureate of Charlo."

Future generations may see some genius describe the Life and Times of John McDonald; and we trust he shall do him the justice he has given the Poet Burns.

"August Flower"

Dyspepsia. There is a gentleman at Malden-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., named Captain A. G. Paris, who has written us a letter in which it is evident that he has made up his mind concerning some things, and this is what he says:

"I have used your preparation called August Flower in my family for seven or eight years. It is constantly in my house, and we consider it the best remedy for Indigestion, and Constipation we have ever used or known. My wife is troubled with Dyspepsia, and at times suffers very much after eating. The August Flower, however, relieves the difficulty. My wife frequently says to me when I am going to town, 'We are out of August Flower, and I think you had better get another bottle.' I am also troubled with Indigestion, and whenever I am, I take one or two teaspoonfuls before eating, for a day or two, and all trouble is removed."

"The proof of the pudding is in the eating." K. D. C. has been tried and tested and has proved itself to be the King of Medicines, the Greatest Cure of the Age, and the only Dyspepsia cure in the market.

BORN. FRASER.—At Richibucto, March 3, to the wife of George Fraser, a son. Weight 12 1/2 pounds.

DIED. COOK.—At Black Point, Restigouche, March 30th, 1892, Mrs. Daniel Cook, aged 58 years, much respected for her many excellent qualities.

RYAN.—Died at Fredericton, March 30th, the Hon. James Ryan, President of the Legislative Council in the 72nd year of his age.

CONNAUGHTON.—At Richibucto, April 3, Nellie May, only daughter of Capt. Wm. and Mary A. Connaughton, aged 7 years and 11 months.

Only a narrow mound of earth Sprinkled with violets white, But 'neath it somebody's darling Is hidden from mortal sight.

Only a plain white marble, The shrine of many a prayer, It bears but the one word, Nellie, But a mother's heart lies there.

Only a little tress of gold, And an empty little bed, Speak of a joy departed, Tell that Nellie is dead.

Arms reached out in vain longing, Grasp but the empty air, Only God knows our anguish, As we bow in voiceless prayer.

Ah, yes, each life has its only, Strive as we may to forget, Each heart is surely haunted By some phantom of regret.

Only the song of the angels Shall hush the murmur of grief; Only the calm of Heaven, Shall bring to our hearts relief.
