The Parting of the Ways.
Wilkins and Watkins were college chums and close friends. They had been hard students and had taken little out door exercise. When they shook hands and said good-bye, at the end of their college career, the were in impaired health.
Both had dyspepsia, liver troubles and troublesome coughs.

Wilkins had plenty of Money, and decided to travel for his health. Watkins was poor. "I must go to work for my living," said he, "but I'll try the remedy that Robinson talks so much about—Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery." In less than two years Wilkins came home in his coffin, Watkins, now in the prime of life, is a bank president, rich and respected, and weighs 200 pounds. "The 'Golden Medical Discovery' saved my life at a critical time," he often says. "Oh, if poor Wilkins had only tried it!" For weak lungs, spitting of blood, all lingering coughs and consumption in its early stages, it is an unequalled remedy.
