

WONDER IN WELLAND!

A Representative Farmer Speaks.

MR. C. C. HAUN.

The following remarkable facts are fully certified to as being undeniably correct in every particular.

As will be seen from his letter, four physicians had attended him, and it was only after he had given up hope of cure that he decided to try Burdock Blood Bitters.

DEAR SIRS,—I think I have been one of the worst sufferers you have yet heard of, having been six years in the hands of four of our best doctors without obtaining permanent relief.

In this connection the following letter from T. Cummins, Esq., a leading druggist of Welland, Ont., speaks for itself.

GENTLEMEN,—I have been personally acquainted with Mr. C. C. Haun for the last 20 years, and have always found him a very reliable man.

THE KEeley GOLD CURE. Condemned by English Physicians. (London Lancet.)

The quarterly meeting of the Society for the Study of Inebriety was held on Tuesday afternoon at the rooms of the British Medical Society, 11 Chandos street, Cavendish square, W.

The president said that hitherto temperance reformers in this country had usually worked by straightforward and intelligent methods and had exercised that most valuable quality in reformers and everybody else—patience.

He wished, however, specially to refer—as circumstances had arisen to render this very necessary—to a so-called secret "cure" which was named the "double chloride of gold cure," to which allusion has already been made in the Lancet and other medical journals.

England; £110,000 of this—according to the circular he had seen—was to be given in cash and £40,000 in shares to the vendors. There was to be a commercial company for pushing the golden remedy similar to other companies with which they were familiar.

A distinguished analyst, a member of the great medical corporation in England—whose name the chairman was not at liberty to mention—had made a careful analysis of the so-called "bichloride of gold cure."

Death of Mr. Joseph Tweedie. Mr. Joseph Tweedie, one of our oldest, most widely known and respected citizens died at his home, in Chatham, on Tuesday morning at the age of seventy-nine years and six months.

August 8th.—The Women's Missionary Society in connection with the Methodist Church held their first public meeting to-night. It was one that will be long remembered.

Our blacksmith shop and carriage factory are doing good work. Customers are promptly attended to.

Tramps are causing some excitement here. One not far from answering the description of "Jim" was seen several times on Saturday.

Thomas Atkinson who has the contract of finishing the outside of the new Methodist church is pushing the work. Report says the Methodists intend to finish their church this fall.

No child will refuse to take McLean's Worm Syrup, pleasant and effectual.

K. D. C.—Owing to the rapid increase of trade and the demand for K. D. C. across the border, the K. D. C. company, limited, of New Glasgow, N. S., have opened offices at 127 State street, Boston, Mass., from which to supply their United States customers.
