Duelling. In France it has until lately been the rule that a gentleman to whom an insulting epithet was applied by another, who might reasonably be supposed to be a gentleman, must challenge the insultor to fight a duel.

The Proverbs of Abram. My son, attend to the precepts of thy father, who has been there and knows just how it is himself, therefore is he able to give thee wise council, and thy mother will likely explain to thee whose examples to follow.

Advertising in a Hymn Book. A poor congregation found itself badly in want of hymn books. The clergyman applied to a firm and asked to be supplied at the church rates.

"Drunk, by Jove!" Dr. Fordyce sometimes drank a good deal at dinner. He was summoned one evening to see a lady patient when he was more than "half sees over."

A Bright Boy. "I have heard many bright sayings of children," a lady remarked recently, "but am sure that the palm in this line must be given to a small boy living not many miles from Beacon street, for it proves the sense of humor is developed at the age of 4 years."

After the Grip. And after typhoid fever, diphtheria, pneumonia, or other prostrating diseases, Hood's Sarsaparilla is just what is needed to restore the strength and vigor so much desired, and expel all poisons from the blood.

White Swellings. appeared on various parts of my body, and for eleven years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed six years.

I Became Discouraged. "I went to Chicago to visit a sister, as it was thought a change of air and scene might do me good. But I was confined to my bed most of the time."

Up and Out of Doors. To make a long story short, I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for a year, when I had become so fully released from the chains of disease that I took a position with the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since that time have not lost a single day on account of sickness.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. for it has been a great blessing to me, and to my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous. I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of all medicines.

Napoleon's Bad Shot. The recent loss of an eye by Prince Christian von Schleswig Holstein, through the bad aim of his brother-in-law attempting to shoot a bird, recalls some similar misfortunes.

The well that is being bored at Wheeling, Pa., in the interest of science, has reached the depth of three-fourths of a mile. Progress is being made at the rate of about ten feet a day.

A man named Alfred Lusignau was trampled to death on the street at Montreal on Thursday by a drove of cattle he was taking to the abattoir.

A skating race recently took place in the Parsboro rink in which five young ladies contested. Miss Jennie Gibson was the winner, with Miss Johana Roberts a close second.

William A. Lehr of Kendallville, Ind., says Hood's Sarsaparilla is King of Medicines and His Cure Was Almost a Miracle.

"C. L. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. Gentlemen: When I was 14 years of age I was confined to my bed for several months by an attack of rheumatism, and when I had partially recovered I did not have the use of my legs, so that I had to go on crutches. About a year later, Scrofulin, in the form of

"I went to Chicago to visit a sister, as it was thought a change of air and scene might do me good. But I was confined to my bed most of the time. I was so impressed with the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla in cases similar to mine that I decided to try it. So a bottle was bought, and to my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better. This strengthened my faith in the medicine, and in a short time I was
