

Point Sapin.

The past winter has been remarkable for three reasons. First, for its mildness and moderate fall of snow, thereby enabling us to get our wood and other hauling done. Secondly, for the amount of sickness and deaths which have prevailed during the past few months. In March we laid our highly esteemed and aged friend, Maxim Robichaud, to rest, and in April we followed to the last resting place the remains of Mr. Oliver Robichaud. Besides these two aged citizens, several children have also fallen victims to the grip. And thirdly, this season has witnessed the first magistrate's court held in this locality. Simon J. Mazerolle, Esq., and Simon Daigle, not being able to see eye to eye, had agreed to have the matter settled before His Honor Justice Robichaud, and after empanelling a jury consisting of Wm. James Kelly, "Nin" O'Leary, and Andrew Goinet, the matter was fully opened by Cyprian Vautour, Esq., who was acting on behalf of the defendant, while the plaintiff looked after his own case. Considerable testimony was brought forward on both sides, some of which was very contradictory. The different legal points were clearly elucidated by His Honor, and thus the jury had no trouble in finding a verdict for the defendant. The duties of constable were performed by Mr. Keady O'Leary. The conclusion arrived at seems to have given general satisfaction.

There are several of our inhabitants still very sick, including our postmaster, Joseph Robichaud, sr., Lama Daigle and Capt. John Gallant.

We notice Wm. Carter has been removed from the management of the lighthouse at Point Escuminac, and Kenneth McLennan appointed in his place.

Mr. Ambrose Williston is making his usual preparation for the lobster and salmon fishing. We observe a slight change in his officers this year.

Messrs A. & R. Loggie have a big gang repairing and making new traps.

James Edgar, Esq., is at the Sinclair & Jack factory in the interests of W. S. Loggie, Esq. Mr. Robert Stothart having the general oversight of the outside business.

We observe Messrs Goinet & Dujay have purchased the Eel River factory from W. S. Loggie for $500, and are busy getting it in order. They will operate 600 new traps. Mr. Goinet has been in this line for many years, and understands every branch of lobster fishing. During the past winter he has built something like 8 boats. He is a master builder. We hope they may succeed in their new undertaking.

Messrs R. & R. O'Leary are holding forth in the old Frank Myers factory. They have a large crew fitting up. They will run eight boats. Mr. R. O'Leary, jr., or more familiarly known as Dick, has the management at Sapin, while Richard, jr., will market the goods when packed. Part of their crew are from your town, they speak very highly of Sapin, and seem to enjoy themselves very much, more especially when they call at the post office. Messrs O'Leary applied for and received 50 acres at the Batiere, and, as nature seems to have done much toward making the Batiere a good place for a lobster packing factory, no doubt Messrs O'Leary will remove their buildings there this fall.

W. S. Loggie, Esq., is making 600 new traps and repairing the old ones. Mr. John Sinclair, of Chatham, is located at his shop. Geo. A. Fleiger, Esq., has the general management, and, being a veteran lobster packer, his goods have found a market in France and Germany. He has had thirty years experience in packing, &c., and seems to be well qualified to fill the position he now holds.

Ex-councillor O'Leary having an eye to business, has his factory located on his farm, thereby making the very red coat of the lobster drop a dime into his treasury. He will have 600 traps, and will have the renowned Jerry as boss fisherman.

Simon J. Mazerolle will enlarge somewhat from last year.

Fred Daigle has a fine new boat built, and will fish 300 traps.

Robert Gregan, Esq., has charge at the Gully. He will run seven boats.

Mr. James W. Loggie, of Chatham, occupies the position held last year by James Grierson.

It is reported John T. Holland, the heavyweight pugilist of St. Margarets, is on the police force. John will make an honest, sober and upright "cop."

During the past two weeks seven families and a number of young people have come back from the States.

All the knees, railway ties, bark, cord wood, &c., have been "seized," it is known positively that nearly all the seized lumber was cut on granted lands.

McLeod's mill is doing big work.

Betts' mill is running day and night.

Cameron's mill made a start and will probably do a fine season's work.

We understand Messrs. J. & T. Jardine will erect a new mill here shortly. It is not yet learned whether they have decided on the site.

Our merchants say that money is more plentiful and trade brisker than last year at this time.

The honorable title of J. P. has been conferred upon another young man in our midst. We trust he will use his influence to maintain better order than prevailed last summer.

LOYALIST.

Portland, Me.

Times are very dull here for the season as we generally have a goodly number of festivities after Easter. But so far our young people seem to be keeping very quiet. There is, however, some talk of a party in the near future.

We are very much pleased to hear that the Misses Alice and Annie Rainsborough have returned from the West. The absence of those young ladies made quite a void in our circle of N. B. friends.

Miss Katie Rainsborough has taken up a millinery business. Katie is one of the most deserving and popular young ladies, and we have not the least doubt but that she will be successful in her undertaking.

Miss Maggie Sutton, of South Nelson, intends visiting her old home the coming summer. We hope she will enjoy her well earned outing, but not stay too long, as her place cannot be filled.

Dame Rumor says that Mr. H. Welsh, intends visiting this city in the near future. Hennie is a general favorite with the young ladies, and will receive a hearty welcome.

From the above source, we also hear that Mr. Chas. Rainsborough, of St. Margarets, intends visiting his old home this summer.

TWIN SISTERS.

Mill Creek Notes.

Miss Lizzie Bowness, who was home visiting friends, has returned to Boston.

Miss Isabella Wheten is visiting here. Her many friends are pleased to see her.

Mr. Thomas Dixon lost a valuable Brown Stout horse.

Mr. Andrew Dixon has sold some fine beeves lately.

Mrs. James Stymeist, we learn, is recovering from her recent serious illness, under the skillful treatment of Doctor Olloqui.

Mr. Robert McDonald is busy gathering up his logs. His boom having broke, quite a number of them went adrift.

Mr. R. Bowness owns one of the largest Clydesdale mares in this settlement.

We are glad to learn that our friend, Charles Pollick, is recovering.

Mr. John Woods has bought a handsome horse from D. Warman; one of the fastest trotters in Molus River.

Mr. Robert Clarke has one of the finest Cleveland Bay colts in Kent County. William says it will be a goer.

Mr. Henry Hickey did some fine plowing on the 13th and 14th. This is the earliest turning of the soil in the settlement for a number of years.

Mr. David Dykeman has commenced seeding.

Clifton, Gloucester Co.

Spring is arriving slowly but surely. It will not be long until the farmers commence work.

Mr. John H. McGill, of Boston, arrived here on Saturday, 24th April.

Mrs. Lizzie A. Good, who has been visiting friends in Bathurst, has returned again.

Mrs. Arthur Jagoe is still very ill. Her daughter, Mrs. Geo. A. Knowles has been staying with her for the past month.

Mrs. Thomas Knowles, who has been very ill, is recovering.

The Misses Scott, who have been visiting friends in Bathurst, have returned.

Mr. Stephen O. Baker, of Amherst, arrived here on the 26th April.

Mr. Augustus Knowles, who has been in South Carolina for the past winter, has returned home. We hope to see more of the South Carolina boys soon.

Mr. John W. Jagoe cut his foot very badly with an axe while splitting wood.

To the Editor of The Review:—

In answer to the article put in your last issue, bearing date April the twenty-eighth last past, giving the rule of Stipendiary Magistrates' Court in the parish of Wellington and saying that at the hearing of the charge made against Maxime Basterache for setting fire to a school house in Black River before D. D. Landry, stipendiary magistrate a few weeks ago, the information was not produced when demanded.

In answer I beg to inform you that your celebrated informer has misinformed you and in future would advise him before he gives his information he had better ascertain the facts.

Ms. Basterache had been brought before me on the third day of March last past, and the complaint was dismissed as the plaintiff did not appear and no cause was shown. Mr. Basterache was never brought before me since, and at the time he was brought before me the information and warrant were furnished to the defendant's attorney, and he himself wrote summonses from the information to bring parties before the court as witnesses.

In future I would advise your celebrated informer to ascertain the facts, and not accept reports made by C. E. Johnny, or similar characters.

Yours very truly,
D. D. LANDRY.

Seven Years' Suffering.

GENTLEMEN,—I had suffered very much from inflammatory rheumatism, which through wrong treatment left ugly running sores on my hands and feet. With these I suffered for seven years, during which time I had neither shoe nor stocking on. I commenced using B. B. B. externally and internally, using the pills also and I can say now, that the sores are entirely cured, and have been for some time. I believe the bitters were the means of saving my life.

Boodling Among the Ancients in Modern Style.

Now it was, that after Prince Grabmuck had overcome his enemies, by the help of Lemuel the lawyer, and by scattering the shekels of the treasury among his enemies and also by reducing the tribute against those that did business in the north in the land of the stumps, that certain scribes in the "celestial city" did publish a flying roll (Gleaner), that went through the land written within and without the works of Prince Grabmuck; how that he did buy to the glory and well being of his pocket many chariot horses, and herds of cattle and sheep, which he did bring from a far country. And how also he did purchase for himself a friend, even By-ends, a captain among the Munites, with five hundred pieces of silver, and did make him a councillor.

And many other such things were written thereon. And these things did trouble the prince and his council, even Lemuel the lawyer, and Ichabod the dealer in hides and hemlock bark, and By-ends and Elishama the doctor of the law, and Longtung the scribe; for they said, "Behold, the people do read the flying roll, and they may arise up and remove us out of our places."

Moreover another matter hath arisen, which doth trouble the soul of the prince even the "School Question," which disturbeth the people of the north. For the Thompsontes and the Munites, they desire to instruct their children, in the way that seemeth right unto them.

But the public schools, having been deemed godless by the Munites, they devise a plan whereby they may take their sons and daughters from these godless places.

Now the prince desired greatly to do that which would please all the people concerned in this matter, so he removed himself to a little city in the north, and called unto himself both the Thompsontes and Munites, and said, "Show unto me now thy grievances, that I may judge between you;" and he said many pleasant words unto them, and he departed having done nothing, even as he had purposed. Howbeit, there is still much enmity concerning this matter, even unto this day.

Now the rest of the acts of Grabmuck, and the boodling that he did, behold, they are written in the flying roll.

Now, thus saith the prophet concerning thee, oh! prince:—Woe unto thee in that day which is to come (election day), for thine iniquities hath come up before the eyes of the people; and the Thompsontes shall gather together in judgment against thee and cast thee from thy throne, because thou hast made their burden heavier, and hast secretly assisted their enemies. And they shall do unto thee as was done unto the prince of the tribe of "La Francaise," (Quebec.) Likewise Lemuel, and Ichabod and all thy friends shall be removed out of their fat places, and the boodling shall no more reign in the land, saith the prophet.

The Lover's Lament.

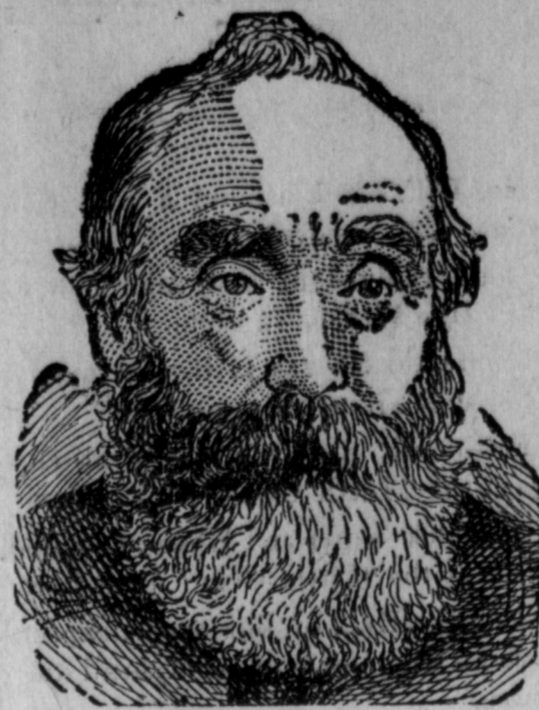

Your face is like a drooping flower,
Sweetheart!
I see you fading hour by hour,
Sweetheart!
Your rounded outlines waste away,
In vain I weep, in vain I pray,
What power Death's cruel hand can stay!
Sweetheart, Sweetheart!

National Base Ball Schedule.

A very neat pocket schedule of the National League Ball games for 1892 has been issued by the proprietors of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment as one of their "Pleasure Series." The schedule is arranged after the plan of the New England League Schedule, published last year by this same firm for which they own the copyright. It shows at a glance where each game for any day in the season is to be played. The price of this schedule is ten cents and ought to be obtainable of any news dealer. If not, by courtesy of the publishers, I. S. Johnson & Co., 22 Custom House St., Boston, Mass, the readers of this paper can obtain a copy by enclosing five cents in stamps with their address in an envelope, directed to Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, Boston, Mass. Everybody will want one for daily reference.
