A Cure for Dyspepsia.

In investigating the cause of this prevalent complaint it is found to rest principally in wrong action of the stomach and impurity of the blood. These exciting causes are easily removed by the regulating, purifying tonic and digestive effects of Burdock Blood Bitters, hence the success of B. B. B. in curing dyspepsia in any form, no matter of how long standing or how severe it may be.

Donahoe's Magazine for June.

Donahoe's Magazine for June is as bright and cheery as the month of roses in which it comes forth. It is particularly rich in valuable and entertaining features and adds additional emphasis to its claims as a monthly periodical of the very highest rank. A striking paper in the number is one contributed by Professor N. S. Shaler of Harvard University, dealing with "The Undiscovered Mineral Wealth of the World," and the other striking features are: "Catholicity in the Maritime Provinces (illustrated)," by John Boden; "Thirty years of Ireland's Battle" (Part II.) by Hon. John F. Finerty; "Irish Writers in London," by Eugene Davis; "A Bit of Homespun," by Herbert M. Sylvester; "In American Studies," by Henry Austin; "The School of the Future," by Rev. Joseph V. Tracey, and "Where Columbus is Buried," (illustrated) by Richard H. Clarke, L. L. D. The poetry of the number is contributed by James Jeffrey Roche, W. D. Kelley, J. C., and Charles S. O'Neill, while the regular departments are exceptionally bright, timely and interesting. It is a grand number of a grand publication. Donahoe's Magazine Co., Publishers, Boston, Mass.

Very Much Pleased.

SIRS,—I am very much pleased with the effects of Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. Our family has been greatly troubled with severe colds, pains in the chest, etc., and have been promptly relieved by this valuable medicine which we willingly recommend.

An Elopement with a Contractor's Wife.

CONCORD, May 24.—The talk of the town today is over the elopement of Joseph Cook, fireman for W. Doherty & Co., with Mrs. Robert Stevens, wife of B. Stevens of A. Stevens & Son, builders and contractors. They both took the late train from here on Saturday evening for Port Huron, and so far nothing has been heard of the runaway pair.

Cook leaves a wife and six children and Mrs. Stevens leaves one but took one with her.

Great indignation is expressed against the unnatural pair, but more especially against Cook, who just before leaving, it is said, deliberately forced from his eldest son of 16 his monthly wages, with which he had just reached home, and this is the only money he seems to have had with him.

Altogether Disappeared.

DEAR SIRS,—About three months ago I was nearly wild with headaches. I started taking B. B. B. and took two bottles and my headaches have disappeared altogether now. I think it a grand medicine.

A Fashionable Catastrophe.

"How did you enjoy the dog show, Maud?"
"Not at all. My dear, sweet, lovely little Fido was eaten up by a horrid big brute of a St. Bernard."
"Dear me! How did it happen?"
"They said it was because Fido looked so much like a sausage."—Harper's Bazar.

Three Practical Points.

Three practical points: 1st. Burdock Blood Bitters cures dyspepsia by acting promptly on the stomach, liver and bowels. 2nd. Burdock Blood Bitters cures bad blood by the same specific action combined with its alterative and purifying powers. 3rd. Burdock Blood Bitters cures all diseases arising from the two first named, such as constipation, headache, biliousness, dizziness, scurfiness, etc., by removing their cause as shown and proved in thousands of indisputably recorded cases.

Beautiful Simplicity of Acadia.

The Acadians of Canada with whom the poet Longfellow felt so deep a sympathy have suffered much in the years gone by both for their religion and their loved La Belle France. In Nova Scotia and in Eastern New Brunswick their villages are a distinct feature of the land. The people are quiet and deeply religious, living in themselves and by themselves. The shadow of their great sadness seems to lie over them still. They are mistrustful—and not without excellent reason—of the great world that lies beyond their village boundaries and are content in their pastoral pursuits to pass away the years. The men clothe themselves in homespun made of flax they grow, the women dress in the simplest of plain black gowns woven by themselves, with a deep snow-white collar falling half-way to their shoulders which seems to intensify the color of the costume.

The traveller who enters the valleys in which they dwell may well believe himself in pleasant France. Morning, noon and night the Angelus is chimed from the belfry of the church, which is never absent, however poor the community. It matters not where the Acadian may be—at work in the field or the shop, at home or by the roadside—at the first sound of the bell the head is bowed and bowed and the Angelus piously said. On great feast days such as Corpus Christi, the Blessed Eucharist is carried in public procession through the main road of the village or the chief street of the town, about whose sides in reverent homage kneel the simple peasants. No man can see these scenes and not feel his heart touched with the faith of the Acadian.—John Boden, in Donahoe's Magazine for June.

To Get at the Facts.

Regarding Hood's Sarsaparilla, ask the people who take this medicine, or read the testimonials often published in this paper. They will certainly convince you that Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses unequalled merit, and that HOOD'S CURES.

Hood's Pills cure constipation by restoring the peristaltic action of the alimentary canal. They are the best family cathartic.

Sad Fate of a Kitten.

Aunt—"What became of the kitten you had when I was here before?"
Little niece (in surprise) why, don't you know?"

"I haven't heard a word. Was she poisoned?"

"No, aunt."

"Drowned?"

"Oh, no."

"Stolen?"

"No, indeed."

"Hurt in any way?"

"No."

"Well, I can't guess. What became of her?"

"She grew into a cat."

Their Name is Legion.

There is no lack of so-called cures for the common ailment known as corns. The vegetable, animal, and mineral kingdoms have been ransacked for cures. It is a simple matter to remove corns without pain, for if you will go to any druggist or medicine dealer and buy a bottle of Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor and apply it as directed the thing is done. Get "Putnam's," and no other.

Political Proverbs.

Patriots air hard to satisfy.
Taxation is a necessary evil.
No party is cleaner than the men in it.
There must be glory in a government job.

The Industrious Beaver ain't after an office.
Mighty few men air really bigger than their offices.

Wimmen air too onest ever to besharp politishuns.
Perfeshunal patriots don't do much fit-in' in war times.

Politishuns ain't long choosin' between God and mammon.

Dear Island, Me.

Dear Sir,—This is to certify that I have had the Rheumatism so, by times, I could not walk. By chance I received a bottle of SCOTT'S CURE FOR RHEUMATISM. I have not been so free from pain in five years, and wish you every success with Scott's Cure.

yours respectfully,

ELMER E. WARREN.

Stick to the Farm.

There is no calling on earth that is so staple as agriculture. It is true that agriculture is more successful when other pursuits are prosperous, but the farmer will move on in the even tenor of his way no matter what occurs. It is true, when times are depressed he will be short of money, but as long as seedtime and harvest pursue each other, he will have an abundance to live on. But it is not so with most other callings. When periods and seasons of depression come it is a battle for existence. They have no store-houses full of produce like the farmer upon which can subsist. Then who would not be a farmer and live on the fat of the land whether he made money or not?
