PHILIP WAS VICTORIOUS.—There is no longer any dispute between the Collector of Customs and the proprietor of the Commercial Hotel, as to which owns the fastest horse. HARCOURT DIVISION.—It has been some time since I have seen anything in the columns of THE REVIEW from Harcourt Division. Probably some are thinking the temperance people of Harcourt are becoming less energetic in the cause; but I assure you this is not the case.

During the present quarter our Division has been prospering greatly, and a number of new members have been added to the roll. At our last session three new members took the pledge, and on the same evening the sisters entertained the Division in a very enjoyable manner.

The following programme was successfully carried out:—Recitation, "A plea to Fathers," Sister Ingram; Recitation, "A temperance girl's song," Sister L. Campbell; Song, "Don't drink my boy tonight," Sister E. T. Wathen; Recitation, "Work for the cause of Temperance," Sister L. Humphrey; Recitation, "A mother's story," Sister Addie Atkinson.

INTERMISSION. Recitation, "Aunt Tabitha," Sister Smith; Reading, "Matrimony in Wyoming," Sister Trinda Wathen; Song, "Under the old apple tree," Sister Atkinson; Reading "Lily," Sister Marion Wathen.

A very pleasant half-hour was spent during the intermission, when a number of the sisters served refreshments, consisting of syrup, cake etc.

All seemed well pleased with the evening's entertainment, and after a hearty vote of thanks had been tendered to the sisters, the Division adjourned.

PRESENTATION TO REV. J. S. ALLEN.—A number of the friends of the Rev. J. S. Allen invaded the Methodist parsonage last Monday evening and presented him with a purse containing $71.00 accompanied with the following address: To Rev. J. S. Allen, Pastor of the Methodist Church, Richibucto.

We, the undersigned being desirous of rendering you some slight testimonial expressive of the esteem in which you are held by the citizens of this community, and as an evidence of our appreciation of your ministerial labors among us, have much pleasure in presenting you with this token of our admiration of the elevated, consistent and true christian spirit which has invariably characterized your association with your fellow citizens since your advent among us.

We extend our best wishes to your partner in life and to all the members of your family, and earnestly hope that you may all enjoy the inestimable blessings of health, happiness, and prosperity.

The address was signed by a large number of the citizens of Richibucto of all denominations.

Mr. Allen was taken completely by surprise. He made a suitable reply, expressing his thanks for the kind feelings entertained by the people of Richibucto towards him and his family, and trusted he would continue to merit their regard.

The guests were pleasantly entertained with music, etc., and a very enjoyable evening was spent.
