THE WEATHER AND CROPS .- The weather during the past week has been all that could be desired for hay-making, and nearly all the hay has been got in in good condition. In the immediate vicinity of Richibucto the crop falls very little below the average, but up the rivers it does not other crops look well all over the county.

SCHOONER ON FIRE.—Captain William Malley's new schooner the Maggie Roach, last week, as she was lying at anchor at Kingston. The fire caught in the sails and the main sail was almost destroyed before it was discovered. It was put out before much damage was done to the hull and rigging. Captain Malley has provided her with a new set of sails.

THE SCHOOLS.—The schools will reopen next Monday. It is reported that Miss Chrystal, who has been in charge of the primary department for some years will not teach next term. The trustees have as yet, however, received no notice of her intention to resign. It is said she will be one of the principals in another and more important contract to be entered into next fall. Parents and Infant's Corded Waists, 2 pupils will hear with regret of her intention to leave.

Picnics.-Pienic excursions are of almost daily occurrence. Friday a party from Weldford drove to the Cape, and after spending the day in boating, bathing and feasting, they secured a house and got up a dance in the evening. On Tuesday a party from Richibucto chartered Geo. W. Robertson's steam tug for a trip up the river. The tug and scow in tow were crowded. The party went a short distance above the Main River bridge and spent a very pleasant day.

A MOVE IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION .-The recent fires in Buctouche have awakened the citizens to a sense of their insecure condition. At a public meeting held there on Tuesday evening of last week Messrs. B. H. Foley and Jas. D. Irving were appointed a committee to see what a fire engine and hose can be got for. The meeting was unanimous in favor of purchasing an engine and other fire extinguishing equipments and the organization of a volunteer fire company.

DIED AT DORCHESTER,-The body of Richard A. Palmer, eldest son of Mr. David Palmer, of Kingston, arrived on the K. N. R. train Saturday, in charge of Deputy Warden Ross. Deceased was 27 years of age. He had been on the Penitentiary staff four years and was last year appointed baker. The funeral which took place Sunday was very largely attended. His remains were interred in the Richibucto Cemetery. Rev. W. A. Cowperthwaite conducted the fune ral ser- 200. vices. Deceased was a soher, industrious young man, and leaves behind him a host of friends. About a year ago he was married to a niece of Deputy Warden Ross.

ST. MARY CHEESE FACTORY. - The St. Mary Creamery Company was organized last week, and it is expected the factory will be completed this fall and everything in readiness to begin operations next spring. Father Quellett has taken a great interest in the enterprise and to his enthusiastic energy is largely due the formation of the company. The promoters of the enterprise are Clement M. Cormier, Rev. L. Jas. Quellett, O. J. LeBlanc, Geo. B. Coates, Magloire A. Gironard, Louis H. Cor nier, Sigitroi S. Leget, Philip J. Melanson, W. H. LeBlanc, Thos. Roi, Maxime I. O.
