NUGGETS.

—Fresh sausages at W. W. Short's this week.

—The dog poisoner is at his work again.
Mr. Thomas Murray's dog was the latest victim.

—R. P. Doherty, D. D. S., will visit Kent County professionally this month.
For dates see adv.

—Richard Hebert's new hotel at Kingston is nearing completion, and promises to be one of the finest in the county.

—The grape vines at the residence of the late Malcolm McLean, at Jardineville, promise to give a fine yield this season.

—Visiting St. John, if you wish a hair cut, shave, or shampoo in the latest style of the art, call upon J. Pierce, No. 29 Dock St.

—J. A. Irving, Esq., of Buctouche, while at P. E. Island, purchased the trotting horse John M. This horse trotted in the late races at Kingston in the 2.38 class.

—A grand picnic in aid of St. Anne's church will be held on the R. C. church grounds in Kingston, on Wednesday and Thursday, the 16th and 17th of August.
See adv.

—Some of the noisy young people of the town have been enlivening the still night and disturbing the slumbers of their neighbours. Ta-ra-ra-boom-de-ay is their favorite tune.

—The Canada Gazette of last week contains the following appointment:—73rd "Northumberland" Battalion of Infantry, N. B.—No. 1 Company, Buctouche.— To be 2nd Lieutenant, provisionally: Frank Douglas Phinney, vice Isaac Trenholme, deceased to qualify.

—Will the "Wild West Show" show here to-day is the question. The town agreed to give them their license for five dollars and now demand $80, claiming that their agent misrepresented facts. How will we stop them, if they say they will show? Can our city marshal handle 50 cowboys with bronchos and lasses.—Enterprise.

—The school matter is giving rise to more trouble in Bathurst. A number of the Protestant ratepayers of the town refused to pay the district school tax assessed upon them, and last week Constable Vail, armed with excoactions, proceeded to enforce payment. He first seized a carriage belonging to Mr. Samuel Bishop, merchant, and afterwards levied on another belonging to Mr. Samuel Williamson, flour merchant. The amount of Mr.
Bishop's assessment is $48.00, that of Mr.
Williamson's $17.00. The matter will be carried before the courts.

—A Campbellton despatch to the Sun says:—For the past few weeks burglaries have been going on in town. W. A.
Mowat last Wednesday night, between six and nine o'clock, missed about eight dollars from his till. On Thursday night nearly forty dollars were taken. On Friday night Mr. Mowat watched in the store and captured the thieves. At about eleven o'clock he heard a noise in the cellar, and was just going to move on one side of the trap door to allow the thieves to come up when they evidently heard a noise or saw the glimmer of a lamp. They had raised the trap door and let it down in an instant. Mr. Mowat lifted it up and jumped in the cellar, and captured one of the trio, who proved to be Frank Leveque. He begged off, saying John Kelly had given him five dollars to go in, and told him how to get in. John Gallanter, another young lad who was with Leveque, escaped through the window and neither he nor Kelly have yet been captured. Leveque was handed over to Police-man Duncan and will be tried on Tuesday. Much sympathy is expressed for the parents of the young men, as they are honest, hard-working people, but the boys seemed to be determined to be bad. The fathers say they could do nothing with them.

At a meeting of the Grand Orange lodge Wednesday, N. Clark Wallace was re-elected grand master. Part of a resolution passed read thus:—"That we do place on record our contempt and disapproval of the course pursued by men calling themselves Orangemen in trying to make political capital out of the stand taken by the most worshipful the grand master." A resolution was passed favoring total abstinence among the members of the order.

Miss Lettie Huntley

Is the sister of Mr. W. S. Huntley of Cornland, N. Y., a well known carpenter and builder. Her frank statement below gives only the absolute truth concerning her illness and marvelous recovery by the aid of Hood's Sarsaparilla. She says:

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Dear Sir: Twelve years ago I began to have hemorrhages and four years ago became so low that the physicians told me

There Was No Hope

and I should soon die. I could not be moved from my bed. Under my face were napkins continually reddened with blood from my mouth. I could eat nothing and had no action of the bowels for a week. The doctors said the cause was ulcers in the stomach. At this time my mother said she wanted to make one more trial, and asked if I would take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I told her it would be

A Waste of Money but finding it would comfort her, I began taking it. In a few days the bloating began to subside. I seemed to feel a little stronger, but thought it only fancy. I was so weak I could only take ten drops of Sarsaparilla at first.

In two weeks I was able to sit up a few minutes every day. In a month I could walk across the room. One day I asked what they were to have for dinner, and said I wanted something hearty. My mother was so happy she cried. It was the

First Time I had Felt Hungry for Two Years

I kept on with Hood's Sarsaparilla and in six months was as well as ever in my life. It is now four years since I recovered, and I have not had a day's sickness since, nor any hemorrhage. It ever a human being thanked the good Lord on bonded knees it was I. I know that Hood's Sarsaparilla, and that alone, unquestionably saved my life.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Has done for her is worthy the highest com-dence."
