A Word from Clifton, N. B. APRIL 21.—In the last issue of THE REVIEW, I noticed a paragraph stating that the correspondents from Clifton, Stonehaven, and New Brandon, had given up altogether, or else they were benumbed, and would thaw out again when the warm weather came.

And now a word about the weather. In the first place we are having very cold weather for the time of year. But I am glad to say that the ice has made a start, and is fast disappearing.

Mr. Richard Peters of Canobie, is busily engaged in sawing lumber. We notice that he has got a whistle on his mill now.

Mr. Edward A. Jagoe, is erecting a new building on his estate. He is also to be congratulated on the birth of a daughter.

We are sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Andy Salter of Pokeshaw. The family have our deepest sympathy in their bereavement.

We notice that Mr. Wm. Knowles has invented a new kind of wood cutter, which is accomplishing wonders. "What next Mr. Knowles?"

Miss Jennie Scott has gone to visit friends in Boston, Mass.

Mr. Geo. Peters has returned from Maine where he has been working in the lumber woods for the past winter.

I will now close with kind regards to Connie, and hope we shall hear from him in the near future.

GRACE DARLING.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsvalley, Ind., says: "I had been in a distressing condition for three years from Nervousness, Weakness of the Stomach, Dyspepsia and Indigestion until my health was gone. I bought one bottle of South American Nerve, which did me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life."

I consider it the grandest medicine in the world. A trial bottle will convince you. For sale by W. W. Short, druggist.

Bass River. MAY 1.—We have had some fine weather lately, and the farmers are beginning to think about getting to work to prepare their ground for seed.

The water is very low in the streams, and lumbermen are having a hard time getting their logs down. We are in hopes of soon getting rain to help them out.

Mrs. Farrer fell and broke her arm some time ago. It was more than a month before a doctor was called, and things began to look serious for her.

Under Dr. Keith's treatment, however, she has lately been improving.

Wm. Campbell of Bass River, cut some logs last winter on the very ground he cleared and cropped many years ago. It has since grown up again.

Some of the logs measured 11 inches at the top end. Mr. Campbell is 85 years of age, but he is able to do a fair share of work yet.

Patrick McLeary is foreman and filer for Mr. E. Walker this spring. He is popular with the men, keeps his saws in good order, and does his work well.

St. John, N. B. March 30th, 1893. E. G. Scovil, Esq. Agents for Pelee Island Wine Co.

Dear Sir, This is to certify that I have made a Chemical Analysis of the following wines, put up by the "Pelee Island Vineyard and Wine Co.," viz: "St. Augustine," "Sweet Catawba," and "Concord."

I find these wines to be pure and unadulterated, and of such a composition that they may be used with safety and advantage by persons who require a mild tonic to assist digestion.

As compared with other wines put up in Canada, the Pelee Island Wines are undoubtedly the best in the market. I remain, yours, etc. W. F. BEST, Government Analytical Chemist.
