Well, the snow has disappeared, and farmers are busy making preparations to get seed in the ground. The weather has been very backward of late. Travelling is bad.

War has been declared on the canine tribe around here, and there is scarcely anything left to bark. If dog-poisoning were punishable with death, there would be one person less in this neighborhood.

Great preparations are being made for gaspereaux fishing, which will begin soon.
A number of new men are going into the business. Messrs. F. F. Barry and T.

A Monkey Story.

BIRMGHAMTON, N. Y., May 19.—Barnum & Bailey's $5,000 gorilla created considerable excitement here Monday. While the workmen were at dinner the brute forced the door of his cage from the hinges, and jumping out he made for the dressing-rooms, which were occupied by two ladies.
The frightened women ran screaming from the tent, and the big monkey escaped into the open air. The people immediately scattered in every direction. The growling beast finally took his stand near a barn where several of the canvas men tried to capture him, but were badly injured. His Portuguese keeper finally arrived, and after kissing and hugging him with joy, the gorilla readily accompanied him to his cage. He would not enter, however, until an elephant, of which he stands in mortal fear, was brought in.
