THE GOTHENBURG SYSTEM IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

The liquor question, it would seem by the numerous devices resorted to to regulate or destroy the traffic, is assuming an importance which must soon bring to a settlement the question whether intoxicating liquors are to be looked upon as a legitimate beverage upon the sale of which no restrictions should be placed, or forever frowned down upon as an evil which should not be permitted to exist. There are very few who will not concede that the open and unrestricted sale of liquor as a beverage, is an evil which must soon be met and dealt with, but when the question of the remedy is presented, there is a great diversity of opinion. Local option which permits the inhabitants of a certain locality to deal with the question among themselves, and regulate or prohibit the sale in their own locality, has often been put forward as a solution of the question. It has again and again been tried, but so far without effecting the desired object. High license has also its advocates, while the more progressive temperance workers will not be satisfied with anything short of pure and unadulterated prohibition.

Among the many devices for regulating the traffic the state of South Carolina has stepped out and beyond the ordinary means suggested and made it one of the institutions of the state, to be regulated, cared for and operated by appointed state officers the same as the finances of the state, or any other department of official administration. According to law, the whole liquor deal passed into the hands of the state officers on the first day of July instant, the government furnishing the beverages, establishing places for its sale and appointing bar-tenders to dispense the liquor to customers.

This system is a modification of the system introduced in Sweden several years ago known as the "Gothenburg system" by which the trade was taken charge of and liquors dispensed by the municipalities. Statistics show that this law has worked well in Sweden, the sale of liquors since its introduction having decreased fully fifty per cent. The business is similarly managed in some parts of Russia also, but there the effects have been decidedly mischievous. The main object of the law, however, in Russia is not to limit the sale of liquor as a beverage, but rather to increase it, and thus increase the revenues arising from its sale. The drinking habit is accordingly encouraged there in every possible way, and it would be unfair to cite the case of Russia as an argument against the system. The people of South Carolina, in general, including a majority of the liquor dealers, have shown a disposition to obey the law and give it a fair trial. A number of the liquor dealers have, however, determined to fight it and one of the state judges has delivered a judgment declaring it unconstitutional. It is to be hoped that the higher courts will reverse this judgment, that an opportunity may be given to the friends of the cause of temperance to test the operation of the Gothenburg system in America.

SILVER MEN ANGRY.

Intense excitement and indignation rife in Colorado and other silver states over the proposal of Congress to repeal the Sherman silver law. Colorado is the leading mining state of the west, silver being the chief and in some sections the only product. A further fall in the value of silver means the closing of all the silver mines and the entire collapse of many of the mountain towns and villages. Under such conditions it is little wonder the people are excited, and threats of rebellion loud and deep are heard on all sides. At a state silver convention held in Denver last week inflammatory speeches were made and open threats of secession freely indulged in. Governor Wait opened a most violent speech with the following words:—"The demonization act of 1873 was secret and fraudulent—the conduct of the masses will be open and violent. If it is true that the United States is unable to carry out its economic and governmental policy under our own constitution and laws without the direction or consent of foreign powers, if we are only a province of European monarchs, then we need another revolution, another appeal to arms and to the God of hosts. No banker, no broker, no usurer, and, least of all, no peddling politician, has it in his power to compromise this tremendous issue. War has begun. It is the same war which must always be raised against oppression to preserve the liberties of man. Our weapons are argument and the ballot—a free ballot and a fair count —and if the money power shall attempt to sustain its usurpation by the 'strong hand' we will meet that issue, when it is forced upon us, for it is better that blood should flow to the horses' bridles, rather than our national liberties should be destroyed."

The Home Rule Bill is being rapidly pushed through committee, cloture being resorted to to close discussion on every clause. The "in and out" sub-section of the ninth clause, by which Irish members in the Imperial Parliament were permitted to vote on Irish affairs only, was withdrawn. The proposed system threatened to give rise to infinite complication and confusion, and Mr. Gladstone yielding to the demand of the Radicals, abandoned the scheme. Under the bill as it now stands, the eighty Irish members to be retained in Parliament, will have rights fully equal to those given British members.

The past week has been a great week for horsemen and lovers of horse racing. The races of last week were probably the most successful in the history of the Kingston track. The only regrettable feature of the occasion was the open and unlawful sale of intoxicating liquor in the bushes near the park. We do not know who the vendors were, but the park authorities owe it to the public to take steps to prevent such violations of the law in future by finding out who the offenders are and reporting them to the inspector.

This is to certify that I have suffered with Rheumatism for three years. I tried all kinds of medicines, but of no use. I purchased one bottle of SCOTT'S CURE FOR RHEUMATISM, and it cured me. I am pleased to recommend it to the public as a sure cure for Rheumatism. W. M. A. DAVIS.

The Races.

The races on the Kingston track Thursday were attended by fully fifteen hundred people. The day was cool and all that could be desired for horse-racing. The track was, however, heavy and sandy owing to the dry weather of late.

Everything passed off to the satisfaction of contestants as well as spectators and the management of the track certainly deserves a great deal of credit for what they have done in the way of encouraging legitimate sport. There was not a hitch or an unpleasantness of any sort, barring a fine of $2 imposed upon one of the drivers for cutting into another's position.

There was a warm fight for first place in the 2.38 class between the Moncton horse, Sir John and the P. E. Island horse John M. Sir John won the first heat, but he appeared to be quite unmanageable in the second heat and was accorded last place, John M. being first. John M. also captured the third heat, but Sir John came to the front again, winning the fourth and fifth heats and the race.

The following is a summary of this race:—

Sir John (Albright), F. Thibideau, Moncton..... 1 3 2 1 1 John M. (Dean Swift), W. B. Bowness, P. E. Island..... 3 1 1 3 2 Daring Dan (Messenger Boy), W. A. Nelson, Sackville..... 2 2 3 2 3 Time, 2.44, 2.46, 2.44, 2.45, 2.46.

The 2.50 class was a very pretty race and was also hotly contested by the leaders. The second heat was about as pretty a fight as anything that has ever been seen on a provincial track between horses of this class. The two leaders, Delahunt's Morris and Hebert's Billy Wallace, went around almost neck and neck the entire mile. Morris having a slight advantage until the home stretch was reached, when he went up and Billy Wallace shot under the wire a short distance in advance. Several of the other heats were very hotly contested, Country Girl making it exceedingly interesting for the leaders. Six heats were necessary to decide this race, two of the horses being ruled out after the fifth heat as they had not taken a place, leaving the last heat between the three leaders.

This race resulted as follows:—

Morris (Sandy Morris), J. P. Delahunt, Moncton..... 1 2 1 5 2 1 Billy Wallace (Sir William Wallace), R. Hebert, Kingston..... 2 1 4 1 4 3 Country Girl (Grey Chester), J. Richardson, Sackville... 3 4 2 2 1 2 Fannie L. (St. Lawrence), C.P. Atkinson, Newcastle.. 5 3 5 3 3 John C. (McKenzie's Albright), R. Johnson, Long River, P. E. I..... 4 5 3 4 5 Time, 2.50, 2.48, 2.50, 2.53, 2.52, 2.54.

In the county race, open to all horses owned in the county of Kent that had never won money on the track, there were only two entries. Mr. Basil J. Johnson's mare "Annie J." surprised many, as it was thought she could not get over the track in less time than 3 minutes. She, however, took the first heat in 2.54 and trotted the other two heats in less than 2.50.

The race resulted as follows:—

Sir William Wallace, Jas. McLellan, Galloway..... 2 1 Annie J. (Black Warrior), Basil Johnson, St. Louis..... 1 2 2 Time, 2.54, 2.49, 2.47.

The judges were W. A. Brennan, Summerside, Sheriff Wheten, Richibucto, D. M. Wilbur, Moncton; distance judge, William Jardine, Kingston; timers, Geo. Godkin, Summerside and Dr. Ferguson, Kingston; clerks, R. A. Irving, Moncton.
