JUDGE LANDRY'S LETTER.

We publish in another column a letter from Judge Landry, revising officer, in which he is inclined to dispute our statements concerning the Kingston electoral lists, and does not hesitate to inform us that we have willfully misrepresented the matter.

Assuming that Judge Landry is familiar with the provisions of the act, it is difficult to understand how he intends to "show conclusively" by the assessment roll that these names have no right to be on the list.

March, 4th—As I have not seen any news from this district in your columns for some time, I take the liberty of sending you these few items to let you know that we are still alive.

We regret that Judge Landry has taken offence at our remarks. We had no intention of charging him with any blame in the matter, nor do we think the language used can be so construed.

then, however, it would be as well to reserve judgment on the question of their qualification.

County Court opened at Dorchester last Tuesday. The most important business to come before the court is the trial of Mrs. Stevens, wife of H. T. Stevens, of the Moncton Times, on a charge of feloniously killing her adopted daughter, Mabel Glennie Hallet Stevens.

It is reported that should the grand jury at the opening of the court find a true bill against Mrs. Stevens, application will be made to postpone the trial for a few weeks until the provincial legislature has adjourned.

Benjamin Harrison's term of office as President of the United States, expired on the 4th inst., and Grover Cleveland was formally inaugurated as his successor.

The Electoral Lists.

You published over eighty names of persons who, you say, were entitled to vote in Kingston district at the last election; which names were not on the list. To give absolute proof of the falsity of your statement—as I believe can be given—I wrote to Richibucto for the assessment roll of 1891.

Yours truly, P. A. LANDRY, Revising Officer.

Feb. 28th, 1893.

The assessment roll of 1891 cannot be found on file in the secretary's office, but the assessment roll of 1892 made up only a short time after the last revision of the electoral lists, discloses the fact that upwards of seventy of the names published in our list possessed sufficient qualification to entitle them to be placed on the electoral lists.

Miss Janie English, is home from Boston but intends returning soon. She will be much missed in social gatherings here.

We have also had a visit from Mrs. S. Allanach. Mrs. Allanach went to Wisconsin some time ago but is likely soon to return as the climate does not agree with her, and she is in poor health.

Mrs. A. L. Mac visited her friend Mrs. J. Murray, last week.

The stores are doing a good business, except in the sale of buttons. The Arab peddlers are very thick, and they scoop in all that class of business.
