Editor Review:

DEAR SIR.—I notice in THE REVIEW of the 2nd inst., that Rover's religious feelings are somewhat aroused at seeing poor Joe laying crouched behind the Big Rock at the Bateau with his musket ready to pounce upon his prey on the Sabbath. Imagine Rover's righteous indignation, had he seen a saw the Medicine Man, take his dory on a beautiful Sunday afternoon and row off about 1/2 mile from shore and capture a goodly number of large mackerel. I agree with Rover in that what he saw on the Sabbath in question was not quite in keeping with the law as laid down by Moses, but sincerely hope he is not of the Pharisaical type.

Mr. Andre Goulet has a contract for six large fishing boats for W. S. Loggie, two for Messrs. R. & R. O'Leary and two for Messrs. Jennais & Dugas.

We are quite pleased to see material being hauled to the yard of our old friend, Capt. John Gallant. The captain intends fishing extensively in the early season, and later on, taking a trip to St. Peter's with small spars etc.

W. S. Loggie has erected a fine Cook House at his factory 26 x 22 feet, two stories high. There are no improvements going on at any of the other factories, except at Spruce point, where manager Robt. Stothart has made large additions to his factory. He intends measuring saws with Dicko next season.

Messrs. Goulet and Dugas left for Caraquez where they expect to get one of their boats which was lost in the late storm.

Mr. Fred O'Leary has done the grain threshing for the village very satisfactorily. King David is thinking of making a visit to Tracadie, when he gets through with his fall ploughing. He will combine business with pleasure, as he has a married daughter residing there.

Mr. Kelly has bought the Max Martin property at the shore and built a house on it, but there seems to be a hitch on the title so that there may be some difficulty in procuring a good deed.

We had a visit from Mr. Long. He is a welcome visitor to Sajoin.

Mr. Wm. McDermard is still here looking after the freezer.

Our people are generally speaking fairly well provided for the winter, and thus as the days grow shorter one can spend an evening in the cabin by the sea very profitably and with much interest, as the old captain brings up reminiscences of the past or penetrates into the future with that truly Acadian pathos and zeal, so becoming the age and experience of an old tar.

We miss the weekly visits of our friend Scotchman, John Potter, Esq.

Postmaster Daigle, has purchased a beautiful organ.

An event of more than passing interest took place here last week, in the marriage of Dennis Martin, Esq., of Lower Village, Northumberland County, and Mrs. Daigle, the young and handsome widow of the late Ammond Daigle, nee Miss Mary Robicheau, eldest daughter of Antoine Robicheau our acting magistrate. After the ceremony was over a large gathering of friends took place at the residence of the bride's father, and a beautiful dinner was partaken of, after which the guests drove to the groom's home, where a large number of friends had gathered. Dancing was the chief amusement, and was kept up in the good old style. Among the guests we noticed Ambrose Williston, Esq., who enjoyed himself very much and seemed quite young and lively.

An Excellent Remedy.

GENTLEMEN.—We have used Haggard's Pectoral Balsam in our house for over three years, and find it an excellent remedy for all forms of coughs and colds. In throat and lung troubles it affords instant relief.

Peters' Mills.

Nov. 8.—Since the death of "Jinney," current events have moved slowly along. The threshing mills have been assisting the farmers in preparing their harvests either for sale or home consumption, the yield of grain has been fairly satisfactory, with an abundant root crop.

On the evening of the 4th inst., a concert by the school children, under the superintendence of the teacher, (Miss Sarah J. Agnew) was held in the school house, and a pleasant evening was spent. The programme consisted of songs, dialogues, tableaux and recitations. The different parts were creditably rendered, clearly demonstrating the advantages of a liberal education as provided by the government.

Considerable building improvements have been made in the district, during the past year. Among which may be mentioned a large ell added to the before handsome residence of Squire Finnigan. Also the completion of a fine residence by Mr. Frank Brien, and many other improvements generally, showing that the people are contented and prosperous.

The music of the "damsel" is heard from morn till eve, and the proprietor is as happy as if he were an M. C. P.—Rog.

A Prompt Cure

GENTLEMEN.—Having suffered over two years with constipation, and the doctors not having helped me, I concluded to try B. B. B., and before I used one bottle I was cured. I can also recommend it for sick headache.

Acadville News.

News is getting scarce but still we must try and gather a few notes. I am very old but cannot be idle.

Mr. P. E. Gallant has a large contract for pulp wood. He has added a large warehouse to his premises.

Rev. J. M. Leveseur, of Paquetville, paid Father A. Berube a visit last week.

The wolves are getting quieter. They dare not come out in day time as the sun hurts their eyes, and don't come out at night without being well armed. They are not dangerous except at election times.

Mr. A. Pineau is laid up with rheumatism and is awaiting punishment for having published in the Moniteur Acadian that the presiding chairman cheated him of his election.

We have been visited by a constable and by Sheriff Wheten quite frequently lately. They were gathering evidence in the John M. Vautour case. OLD MAN.

Prevailing Sickness.

The most prevalent complaints at this season are rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat, inflammations and congestions. For all these and other painful troubles Haggard's Yellow Oil is the best internal and external remedy.

Bass River Notes.

As I have seen nothing from this place for some time I am beginning to think that our Bass River correspondent has left the country or climbed a tree. So I will endeavor to fill his place for the time.

Times are very dull around here. All the young men are away to the woods.

We are sorry to state that our friend Miss Bina Ward is about to leave us, and take up her abode in St. John. She will be much missed by all her friends here and in Molus River.

Mr. Horton has left here and purchased the farm on the road leading to Harcourt, lately owned by W. W. Pride.

Mrs. S. Buckingham is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Easter.

We are sorry to state that Mrs. James Campbell is very sick. We hope she may soon recover. JACK AND JOSE.

Just as Good.

Perhaps, but if just as good as Putnam's, is that not a very high recommendation for the original and best corn cure? Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. Refuse to accept any of the dangerous sore producing substitutes offered by greedy dealers who make larger profit and disregard the interests of consumers. Safe, painless, certain.

Kingston.

Nov. 13th—Mr. David McAlmon returned from P. E. I. on Thursday with a three year old horse which he bought there. He was accompanied by Mr. James Holton.

Miss Ella McAlmon returned last week from a visit to St. John and Moncton.

Miss Bertie Curran intends giving lessons in phonography to a class in Kingston.

The basket social and musical entertainment, Thanksgiving evening in aid of the new public hall, is expected to be a success. Miss Oloqui will have charge of the musical entertainment.

A dancing party was given at Capt. Wm. Malley's on Friday evening. A large number of guests were present and dancing was kept up until two in the morning. A supper was served at 12 o'clock.

Mr. Martin Lanigan has returned from a business trip to P. E. I.

Since Last September

I have not spent one day without intense suffering until I obtained a bottle of SCOTT'S CURE FOR RHEUMATISM. I have used part of my second bottle, and consider it the greatest cure for rheumatism ever discovered. I would recommend anyone to try it; who suffers as I did—I was unable to work, or even walk, and now enjoy better health than I have for years. Yours truly, E. B. GREEN, City Road, St. John.

Main River.

We have had very favorable weather for doing our fall ploughing.

A number of our young people have come home, some from visiting their friends and some from working abroad. Among the number we notice Miss Janie Betts has arrived home after spending a very enjoyable visit with her sister. A few intend going away again, some have already gone.

The "Witness."

The Montreal Witness is now offering the remainder of the present year free to new subscribers for next year as an encouragement to give that valuable paper a trial. The Witness, both Weekly and Daily, has, during the year, adopted what it declares to be the model form, with neat, small, convenient pages, being enabled, by the possession of one of the most complete printing presses ever built by the Hoes, of New York, to vary the number of pages at will. The paper enters the press at two places, on rolls broad or narrow as required, and the newspapers come out at lightning speed, folded, pasted and cut. Besides the improvement in form, there is a remarkable improvement in typography, the type being set by the wonderful Linotype machine which attains the speed of five men, and casts a new type face every time. The proprietors invite visitors to Montreal to see these machines. The picture element has so greatly developed in the Witness that it may now be fairly called an illustrated paper. The Witness has moved to the busiest corner in Montreal, the junction of Bleury and St. Peter Streets with Craig Street, and has a spacious building there which is in some respects as fine a newspaper office as is anywhere to be seen. The price of the Daily Witness is three dollars, and of the Weekly Witness one dollar, while the little pioneer paper the Messenger, costs only thirty cents.

He's a Crazy New York Lawyer.

TORONTO, Nov. 9.—The epidemic of cranks has struck Toronto. This morning a fashionably dressed man called at Mowat, Downey & Lantons' offices in the York Chambers and asked to see Sir Oliver Mowat. He stated that he wanted the premier to endorse and negotiate a draft upon Her Majesty the Queen for $20,000. The man seemed perfectly rational and was evidently out of his senses. He added he was a member of the Royal family. He was told to call around at 3 o'clock this afternoon and he would probably catch Sir Oliver in. He bowed majestically and left.

Prompt to the minute he re-appeared at the office again, but in the meanwhile the police had been notified and an officer was in waiting. He was taken to Police Headquarters and questioned by Inspector Archibald.

He gave the officer a card on which was written in a neat hand "A. E. Pfeiffer." He said that his home was in Buckingham Palace and that he was "born in wedlock to the royal family."

Suddenly he became sullen and refused to say any more. He was locked up and searched, when it was found that his name was George Henry Stokes, a New York criminal lawyer of some standing. A draft for $100,000 payable in three days to McGraw & Winnett, of the Queen's hotel, and drawn on Sir Henry Ponsonby, the Queen's private secretary, was also found in his possession. He had no weapons.
