Cocagne.

AUGUST 27.—A man named Casey, a resident of Cocagne Island, met death here last week while under the influence of liquor. Deceased came across Wednesday morning on business, and falling in with a number of friends began drinking. He drank heavily all day, but being unaccustomed to the bar-rooms was much affected, the result of which was that he fell into a drunken stupor from which he did not recover until a few minutes previous to his death on Friday morning. An inquest was held over the remains on Saturday, and a verdict returned in accordance with the above facts.

AUGUST 28.—Mr. J. P. Caie, of THE REVIEW, was in town last week in the interests of the paper. Report says that Mr. Caie has succeeded in obtaining many new subscribers for THE REVIEW, and that his visit to the surrounding parishes has, from a business standard, been a marked success.

Our farmers are busy harvesting just now.

Considerable damage was done by the late storm. It was a genuine "wild north-easter." Fishing, smacks, broken scows and the remains of small bridges are scattered all along the coast.

And who so free from emotion as not to pity the proprietor of the Phantom? Sans, "Capt. Jack," cargo, money, "sans everything" in fact, except the Phantom herself, the heroine of an interesting little drama. Are you still under the "Union Jack?"

Preparations are in order for repairing the bridge. Gov't. Engineer Haines is expected shortly. A large quantity of flooring is already wharfed, and most of the cedar has been rafted to the spot. As the expenditures to be put upon the structure are heavy, our carpenters and laborers anticipated a profitable season's work.

Miss Emma Brooks is visiting friends in Boston.

Mr. Gordon Johnstone, of Notre Dame, has also left again for "Modern Athens," accompanied, as usual, by the best wishes of the community; while Mr. Geo. Bateman, another prominent gentleman, has taken his departure for Winnipeg.

How to Judge a Horse's Age.

The foal is born with twelve grinders. When four front teeth have made their appearance the foal is twelve days old, and when the next four assert themselves its age will be about twenty-eight days. The corner teeth make their first appearance when the foal is eight months old, and these latter attain the height of the front teeth at the age of a year. The two-year-olds have the kernel—the dark substance in the middle of the crowd—ground out of all the front teeth. In the third year the middle front of the teeth are shifted, and when three years old these are substituted by the permanent (or horse) teeth, which are larger and more yellow than their predecessors. The next teeth are shifted in the fourth year, and the corner teeth in the fifth, giving place to the permanent nippers. At five years of age a horse has forty teeth, of which twenty-four are grinders, far back in the jaw, with which we have little to do. But, be it remembered, horses invariably have tushes, which mares very rarely do. Before the age of six is arrived at the tush is full grown, and has a slight groove on its internal surface (which generally disappears with age, the tush itself becoming more round and blunt), and at six the kernel, or mark, is worn out of the middle front teeth. There will still be a different color in the centre of the tooth. The tushes have now attained their full growth, being nearly or quite an inch in length, convex without, concave within, tending to a point and the extremity somewhat curved. Now, or perhaps some months before, the horse may be said to have a perfect mouth. At seven years the mark as described, is very nearly worn out of the four centre nippers, and fast wearing away in the corner teeth, especially in mares, but the black mark still remains in the centre of the tooth, and is not completely filled up until the animal is eight years old. As he gets on past seven the bridle teeth begin to wear away. At eight the kernel has entirely disappeared from all the lower nippers. It is said to be "past mark of mouth." There are indications, however, after this age, which will enable a very shrewd observer to guess very closely at a horse's age, but none can be relied upon by observers.—Ex.

Dyspepsia Cured.

GENTLEMEN,—I was troubled with dyspepsia for about four years. I noticed an advertisement of Burdock Blood Bitters so I started to use it and soon found that there was nothing to equal it. It took just three bottles to effect a perfect cure in my case.

A Ghastly Tragedy.

GRAND FALLS, N. B., Aug. 31.—At an early hour Tuesday morning the people here were startled to hear that a murder had been committed in Drummond at a place called Theriault's mill, about eight miles east of here. Various reports of the affair were quickly in circulation and it was soon learned that a row took place during the night at a wedding which was being celebrated at the residence of Baptiste Theriault, the owner of the mill, his son having been married the day before. It was first reported that Thomas W. Mockler of the Price settlement was shot, and afterwards it was said that his death was caused by means of some other weapon. Upon learning of the affair, Coronor Wilson of this place started for scene of the murder. Theriault's mill is situated at Little Salmon river, and the only buildings in the immediate vicinity of the mill are those of Theriault. Upon reaching the mill quite a large number of persons were there all discussing the sad event. Young Mockler was killed in the new unfinished residence of the Theriaults which is located on a hill a short distance from the mill. The house has at present only two apartments down stairs presented an awful appearance. The floors were covered with debris of all kinds. Stoves, furniture, dishes and numerous other articles were strewn about the place everywhere, all smashed to pieces, and the floors and walls of the house in many places covered with blood and pieces of human flesh. The fearful condition of the dwelling bore painful evidence of the struggle of the night before.

Doctors Wade and Chouinard of this place were ordered to make a post mortem examination, and the result of the same goes to show that beyond a doubt the deceased was shot. His body as it lay on the floor in the main part of the house presented a ghastly appearance. The top of the skull was entirely empty of brains, portions of which were found on the floor and on the wall to the left of the body and on the ceiling immediately above where the body lay. The doctors discovered several shots in the skull and in portion of the brains on the floor and on the wall where it had adhered. Theriault was examined and he admitted that he went to his mill, obtained his gun, loaded it at the house with shot, and then deliberately fired it at Mockler and his companions through an open window into the room where they were. Theriault is now in the lock-up here.

GENERAL NEWS.

Our national game without Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, to rub the heroes? Impossible!

The late storm was very severe in all parts of the United States. On the Atlantic coast telegraphic communication was so interrupted that news from points south of Washington is very meagre. It is reported that property in South Carolina and Georgia is damaged to the extent of over one million dollars. The damage to crops is especially severe in the south of Maine and Connecticut. A number of new, unoccupied houses in Brooklyn, N. Y., were demolished.

After the grip, when you are weak and "played out," Hood's Sarsaparilla will restore your health and strength.

President Van Horne and General Passenger Agent McNicoll, of the Canadian Pacific Railway, against whom indictments were found by the U. S. Circuit Court at Tacoma, Washington, last month for violation of the interstate law, appeared before the United States Commissioner, and gave bonds for $1000 each for their appearance at Tacoma on November 16.

Do you realize the importance of a healthy stomach, now that cholera threatens? K. D. C. acts as a cholera preventive, by restoring the stomach to healthy action.

A sad drowning accident occurred at Springhill Mines. A young man named John McLeod, about 17 years of age, and son of widow McLeod, was evidently playing on a raft on the artificial pond beside the west slope. The lad must have fallen in and got entangled at the bottom, as the greatest difficulty was experienced in extricating his body from the bottom of the pond. The place where the young fellow was drowned is quite near the public road and has no railing around it. A short time ago another young lad was drowned in the company's reservoir and dam, and thus two young lives have paid tribute to the present unsatisfactory water supply at Springhill.

Physicians in cholera districts state that where there is no indigestion there will be no cholera. K. D. C. will cure your indigestion and make you cholera-proof.

John F. Powell, of Fort Lawrence, a young man in very prosperous circumstances and of excellent reputation, met with a sad accident one evening last week, resulting in his death at noon to-day. He was standing on a load of oats which were being drawn from off the marsh on his own farm when one of the wheels of the cart went into the ditch, throwing him off. He struck the ground with his head, dislocating the vertebrae of the neck. His father, John Powell, who saw the accident, went to his assistance, and in answer to him deceased said: "I have received my death blow." He leaves a wife, daughter of Rufus Oulton, of Baie Verte, and one infant son.

Those suffering from indigestion are the first to be attacked by cholera. K. D. C. is the Greatest Cure of the age for indigestion. It is the best cholera preventive.

Capt. Nysteen of the Norwegian bark Cormorant, at Chatham, N. B., reports that on Saturday, 22nd July last, between one and two o'clock a.m., in the Channel, Portland light bearing N. N. W. 1/4 W. and Anvil point light N. E. by N. which is on the starboard tack, he was in collision with an unknown vessel, a barquentine, which vessel was plainly seen, but kept her course till collision was unavoidable. The bowsprit of the Cormorant passed between the mizzen and mainmast of the other vessel and struck her on the quarter. Some of her spars fell down. After seeing that the Cormorant, which is an iron vessel, had received no damage, Capt. Nysteen looked for the other vessel, but could not find her in the dark. The Cormorant waited till daylight, but could see no sign of her, and proceeded on its course.

Get rid of your indigestion before the threatened outbreak of cholera. K. D. C. will cure the worst form of indigestion. It will prevent cholera.

A horrible accident happened at Wood-slee, Ont., Wednesday. A young man named William Walker was handling a revolver, when it discharged, the bullet striking his mother in the right eye, killing her instantly. Walker and his mother were over at the latter's parents, named Perkins, when the former got the revolver that was on the shelf. He kept pulling the trigger, never thinking that one of the chambers was loaded, his mother standing close by. The bullet passed clean through her head. The Walkers are very respectable people, the young man being a tailor by trade. He has become insane over the act, and has to be watched for fear of taking his own life.

Hundreds of ladies in ill health have been or are being restored to health and strength by the use of Hawker's Tonic. It has become the great and popular family remedy.

A great sensation has burst upon the lower Ottawa valley by the announcement that L. J. Amede Papineau, son of the late Hon. Louis Joseph Papineau, the famous orator of '37, and the instigator of the rebellion, had publicly broken away from the Roman Catholic faith and joined the Presbyterian creed. Mr. Papineau has notified the parish priest in writing that he was no longer a member of the church. Mr. Papineau, in his notice, declares that he is opposed to the construction of a new church as contemplated, on the ground that it is not necessary, and that it is only placing an additional burden upon the tithe-payers. He protests against the power given cures of thus imposing a new church upon the people, and declares that the only practical way he has of protesting, according to the law of the province, is by a solemn declaration that he belongs to another faith. It will be remembered that Papineau, the elder, died without the sacraments of the mother church, and was not in consequence buried in consecrated ground.

HAWKER'S LIVER PILLS cure all stomach ills. They assist digestion, regulate the bowels and liver, tone the stomach and purify the blood.

A mob of unemployed laborers in Denver, Col., Thursday morning visited the scene of the North sewer now building, and drove out of the trench 75 men who were working eight hours at $1.20 a day. The men in the ditch were willing to work for that price, but the mob, with cries of "No starvation wages in free America," forced them to quit. Contractor Hindry suspended all work for the day and has demanded protection for his men from the authorities. Later the mob drove off the laborers at work on the Capital Hill sewer.

Ward off the Cholera by getting your system in healthy working condition. Hawker's Nerve and Stomach Tonic, with a course also of Hawker's Pills will excite every organ of the body to healthy action and afford the surest safeguard against disease.

The Catholic school commissioners of Montreal demand an investigation into the way the Christian Brother's School is conducted. The brothers are allowed by the Government $800 per year for each teacher but sabbat this and engage lay teachers at a yearly salary of $250, making the difference. The money passes through the hands of the school commissioners who refuse to pay it in future, unless the Christian Brothers do the teaching themselves.
