

LOCAL NEWS.

TEA-MEETING.—The ladies of the Presbyterian Congregation of Mill Branch, held a tea meeting and apron sale at the grove, McWilliam's corner, Wednesday.

THE WEATHER.—The intense heat of last week was followed Sunday and Monday by the heaviest rain storm that has visited us for some time. Last Thursday was the hottest day experienced here for years. At noon the thermometer reached 103° in the shade. On Friday it did not get above 96° in Richibucto, though in Kingston it went up to 100°.

FOREST FIRES.—Forest fires did great damage in the county last week. A fire near Adamsville Station, on the I. C. R., burned a large part of the surrounding district. Three buildings were destroyed. A quantity of lumber and bark near the station was burned, and it was with great difficulty that the station was saved. The loading platform was destroyed.

A SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR.—A Bass River correspondent writes as follows:—“However well informed ‘Paul’ and ‘Laz’ may be in other matters, they are not correct in their statements regarding the bazaar and festival held by the ladies of Bass River. We consider the affair highly successful, as over $91.00 was cleared, instead of $45.00 as reported by them.”

SUMMARY EJECTMENT.—An action brought by Marie Maillet to dispossess Theophile LeBlanc of the store and premises now in the latter's possession at Richibucto Village, under the provisions of the Landlord and Tenant act, came up for hearing before Justices Wm. A. Black and James McDougall, Monday. When the case was called, the parties announced that they had reached a settlement.

HEAVY THUNDER STORM.—Buctouche was visited by a very heavy thunder and lightning storm Monday morning. Several telegraph posts on the south side of the river were shattered by the lightning, leaving the wires hanging in a tangled condition. The dwelling house of Mr. Charles Sheridan at Little River, and the new Catholic church at St. Paul, were also struck. The latter was badly shattered.

A FREE TRIP TO THE KINGSTON PICNIC, WEDNESDAY, AUG. 23RD.—Geo. W. Robertson's steam yacht Calluna will leave public wharf, Richibucto, for Kingston picnic at 11 o'clock, a. m., arriving at Kingston, 11.45, will leave same evening at 5 o'clock, arriving in Kingston at 5.45; returning will leave Kingston at 7.30, arriving at Richibucto, 8.15. The St. Louis Brass Band will be in attendance and all should embrace this opportunity of having a good day's sport. For further particulars see advertisement in this issue.

ANOTHER BURGLARY.—Richard Hebert's hotel and bar were raided last Thursday night and twenty dollars in cash stolen from the till. Mr. Hebert was away at the time and it is supposed the thief concealed himself in the house before it was locked for the night, and after securing the money unlocked the door from the inside and made his escape without being heard. Suspicion pointed to one Cyrille Renaud, of Buctouche, as the guilty party, and a warrant was issued by Stipendiary Magistrate Richardson for his arrest. He has, however, so far managed to keep clear of the constables and is still at large.

AT CHAMBERS.—Before Judge King, at St. John, Thursday, an application in the case of Charles McManus vs. W. F. Ferguson and T. LeBlanc, of Moncton, was heard. The case was brought by McManus for alleged false imprisonment, and afterwards abandoned. The defendants thereupon obtained a rule for costs, and issued an attachment for the same. McManus, when arrested gave notice of disclosure, and the present application is to set aside this notice on the ground that the provisions of the confined debtors act do not apply where the party is arrested under an attachment for contempt for nonpayment of costs. The argument will take place to-day (Thursday).

MATRIMONIAL.—The American and British flags were flying over a tent on the lawn at Mr. James Brown's residence Wedford, on Tuesday, in honor of the union of representatives of the two nations. Mr. George T. Shannon, (of the Boston Manufacturing Co.) and Miss Nellie Bremner were the contracting parties. Rev. Neil McKay, assisted by Rev. Mr. Steven, officiated with the easy grace of one who had previously married fifteen hundred couples, this being Mr. McKay's estimate of his work in this line. The couple stood under an artistic canopy in the beautifully decorated parlor of Mr. Brown's residence while the ceremony was in progress. The bride looked lovely in pearl gray and heliotrope. She had a large number of handsome presents. After the wedding breakfast, which was prolonged till noon, the happy couple took the train for St. John enroute to their Boston home under a fusillade that covered them and the car floor with rice. Mr. Shannon is a fine specimen of Boston's bright young men of business and deserves the prize he has carried away from New Brunswick.—World.

FOR SALE AT SHORT'S DRUG STORE.

—Whew! wasn't it hot? —The store of A. J. Chenard, at Carquet, was burned last week. —Diphtheria is at present quite prevalent in St. John, and most of the cases known are dangerous ones. —Spring medicine and Hood's Sarsaparilla are synonymous terms, so popular is this great medicine at this season. —Sale of household furniture at the residence of Mr. Roderick Gilli, Jardineville, next Saturday at 2 o'clock. —Big day at Kingston, Aug. 23rd, picnic in aid of new Public Hall, plenty of sport and a grand dancing pavilion. —Remember the grand picnic in the R. C. church grounds in Kingston, on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. —Nelson Theriault, a shingle Sawyer in Alexander's mill, Campbellton, had a finger cut off by the saw Thursday afternoon. —A young man by the name of Albert was drowned Saturday in Burchill's boom, Nelson, while passing from one raft to another. —The St. Louis brass band will be in attendance at the Kingston picnic in aid of the new Public Hall, on Wednesday, Aug. 23rd. —At Shediac, on the 7th inst., Pierre H. Leger, of Grand Digue, brother of the late Dr. E. H. Leger, M. P., was married to Miss Christine P. Hebert, of Shediac. The happy couple set out on the same day on a wedding tour. —A meeting at Campbellton of the stockholders of the Restigouche and Victoria railway company was held Thursday afternoon in Messrs. Murry and McLatchy's office. It was resolved to take immediate steps to have the first fifteen miles surveyed at once. —New postage stamps of the value of eight cents are being put into circulation. The stamp will be available for the prepayment either of registration fee and postage combined, or postage only. The five cent registration stamp is to be withdrawn when the present supply is exhausted. —The Sheriff took possession of John Edgecombe & Sons' carriage factory and property at Fredericton, last week under an execution at the suit of the Bank of British North America for $15,000. This crisis has arisen from a dispute between the heirs of the late John Edgecombe and not from any insolvency on the part of the concern. —“If you want to hear the gospel preached in the manner that John the Baptist, Peter or Paul the Apostles, or even Christ preached come out and hear Rev. —” was the wording of an advertisement, in an exchange last week, under the sensational heading “For men only.” Times are very rapidly changing when church services, to draw a crowd, must be advertised in such a manner. —A first class passenger car of the B. & M. Railway train ran off the track near the upper reservoir, Moncton, Wednesday, and ran two hundred yards before the engineer became aware of the trouble, there being no means of communication between the car and the engine. A loose fishplate was the cause of the trouble. The passengers were badly frightened and some jumped off, while others were preparing for emergencies. The sleepers were torn up the entire distance. —A Montreal despatch to the Globe, says:—Room No. 9 in the Richelieu Hotel was nearly the scene of a tragedy, Friday. Two young girls named Gilker, coming from Campbellton, N. B., occupied that room, and being unused to gas, they blew out the light and went to bed. Yesterday morning one of the employes of the hotel noticed the smell of gas, forced the door and found the two girls stretched half-unconscious on the bed. All that saved them was the fact that the extreme heat had caused them to leave the window open and thus the gas had had a chance to escape. —A fire broke out Saturday morning, in the Lee opera house, Fredericton, and completely destroyed it. The fire then spread along the block towards Queen and up Queen to Parsons hotel. Ten buildings were destroyed. These are as follows: John Palmer, tannery; W. T. Estey's storehouse with large quantity of potatoes and flour; Lee's opera house and stable; dwelling house of Charles Segee, baron of P. McGinn, T. E. Murphy, building; J. G. Gunn's dwelling, and J. J. Fox's grocery store; Mrs. Linforth's wooden dwelling; dwelling of Mr. Haining; C. A. Parson's hotel and stables. Loss about $15,000. —A Campbellton despatch to the Sun says:—Frank Levesque, the young burglar captured in W. A. Mowat's store last week, was brought before Police Magistrate McLatchy on Tuesday, when from some cause unexplainable, he was discharged, much to the surprise and indignation of the citizens. The question is asked who was to blame for his dismissal. Last night thieves entered the residence of John McAllister, M. P. Mrs. and Miss McAllister are away from home and Mr. McAllister is boarding at the Lansdowne, but sleeps at home. The thieves evidently are aware of the fact, as they got into the house before ten in the evening. Mr. McAllister misses a valuable gold ring, and a penknife and a watch which were in the drawer with the ring were left untouched.
